Submission Instructions (Options):

- Email: Complete the form electronically and have your Supervising MPP for their electronic signature. The MPP will email it directly to workcontrol@sjsu.edu. The MPP is required to include their Tower Card No. for verification of Authorization.
- Print: Print the completed form, have it signed by your Supervising MPP and submit to FD&O Front Desk located in Corporation Yard Building "A", located off of San Fernando Street.
- Pick-up: Anticipate 5 business days from submission of form to FD&O for key/card to be ready for pick up.*

All Key Holder/Authorizers shall read the following:

1. University issued Tower Cards are required for issuance of any keys/cards, exceptions must be approved by FD&O in advance. If the key/card is for a vendor or contractor a University MPP must sponsor them and take responsibility for returning the keys. A university representative shall complete the form and be present when picking up the key/card to sign the document.
2. Ensure you have your key at all times, as the Lock Shop is not authorized to open or unlock private offices or buildings on your behalf.
3. Ensure the door is locked after exiting the room. Only the assigned key/card holder is allowed access into the building after hours and on weekends. Sharing keys or cards is strictly prohibited. Do not prop building or room entry doors open at any time.
4. If your electronic key card is lost or stolen, please call the FD&O Service Desk immediately at (408) 924-1990, so that it can be removed from the system. There will be a personal replacement charge for each lost key and card to be paid at the bursar's office/cashier. See FD&O website for schedule of charges for keys and cards.
5. California Penal Code Section 469 prohibits the unauthorized making, duplicating, use, or possession of keys to public buildings.
