Conditional Admission/Eligibility

At International Gateways students are our top priority. Our knowledgeable and friendly staff is here to help you improve your English and reach your academic goals.

What is Conditional Admission/Eligibility?
Conditional Admission/Eligibility is a pre-admission evaluation service for international students who do not have a passing TOEFL/IELTS score to apply to SJSU directly. By applying for Conditional Admission/Eligibility, international students verify their academic eligibility to attend SJSU in the future.

Benefits of Conditional Admission/Eligibility?

1. WES evaluation is not needed if you meet the Conditional Admission/Eligibility criteria
2. Conditional Admission/Eligibility students do not need to resubmit academic documents to SJSU to apply to a degree program
3. Conditional Admission/Eligibility students enrolled in the Academic and Test Preparation program can prepare for and take a paper-based TOEFL test accepted by most SJSU degree programs

Steps to Conditional Admission

Please note: Being conditionally admitted does not guarantee acceptance to a degree program. Students who are offered conditional admission must submit a Cal State Apply application to a degree program upon achieving the minimum required TOEFL or IELTS score.

I applied for Conditional Admission to start my M.S. in Aerospace Engineering. The advisors gave me valuable advice regarding graduate school and work experience.

Jinke Du
Undergraduate Conditional Admission student, 2017
B.S., Business Analytics, SJSU
Country of origin: China

The biggest help to me is the International Gateways staff. I was a Conditional Admission student, and there was a lot of information to remember and documents to prepare. Without the help of the Conditional Admission advisors it would have been hard to go through the application process on my own.
