Instructions: Each year, the department will prepare a brief (two page maximum) report that documents the assessment of the course during the year. This report will be electronically submitted to <curriculum@sjsu.edu>, by the department chair, to the Office of Undergraduate Studies, with an electronic copy to the home college by October 1 of the following academic year.

Part 1

To be completed by the course coordinator:

(1) What SLO(s) were assessed for the course during the AY?

    GELO 1  Recognize the physiological, social/cultural, and psychological influences on their well-being.

(2) What were the results of the assessment of this course? What were the lessons learned from the assessment?

    At the beginning of the semester students completed a series of self-observations. Later in the semester they participated in research-based activities, and finally, daily class exercises addressed GELO 1.

(3) What modifications to the course, or its assessment activities or schedule, are planned for the upcoming year? (If no modifications are planned, the course coordinator should indicate this.)

    Continue to refine the culminating assessment for the course.

Part 2

To be completed by the department chair (with input from course coordinator as appropriate):

(4) The course is aligned with the area Goals, Student Learning Objectives (SLOs), Content, Support, and Assessment? It is only offered in a single section.

(5) Class has been capped at 30 maximum enrollment. Writing assignment minimums are being met through class assignments, increased use of online submissions and, frankly, through added time and effort of the class instructor.
