Instructions: Each year, the department will prepare a brief (two page maximum) report that documents the assessment of the course during the year. This report will be electronically submitted, by the department chair, to the Office of Undergraduate Studies, with an electronic copy to the home college by September 1 of the following academic year.

Part 1

To be completed by the course coordinator:

1. What SLO(s) were assessed for the course during the AY?

   SLO 3: Students shall be able to explain how a culture outside the U.S. has changed in response to internal and external pressures.

2. What were the results of the assessment of this course? What were the lessons learned from the assessment?

   Course content was updated after the previous assessment. Topics such as the current health care system in China, the anti-corruption campaign, Hong Kong before 1997 and Hong Kong in 2012 were included in class presentation and discussion. The assessment was based on 2 written exams, and 3 two-page essays. Of the 43 registered students, 42 met the learning objective.

3. What modifications to the course, or its assessment activities or schedule, are planned for the upcoming year? (If no modifications are planned, the course coordinator should indicate this.)

   No modifications are planned.

Part 2

To be completed by the department chair (with input from course coordinator as appropriate):

4. Are all sections of the course still aligned with the area Goals, Student Learning Objectives (SLOs), Content, Support, and Assessment? If they are not, what actions are planned?

   Yes, the sections of the course are aligned with the area Goals, the SLOs, Content, Support and Assessment.
