COURSE DESCRIPTION

From the SJSU Catalog: Treatment of essentials of U.S. history. Satisfies the American institutions requirement in U.S. history (US1) and the Core GE requirement in Social Sciences: Comparative Systems, Cultures, and Environments (D2).

History 15A is designed to introduce students to the essential events, ideas, turning points and transitions that have shaped American history from its origins to the present day. Students will examine key periods in American history focusing on both conventional and alternative interpretations of historical events and political processes that have shaped our modern economic, political and social systems. This information will be presented in a multi-cultural framework, including both conflict and consensus perspectives, of the choices and options available to individuals and groups in their social, economic and political relations. Students will also read key primary source documents and writings in the history of the United States, in order to give them direct exposure to the words, thoughts and feelings of the incredibly diverse personalities that helped shape and define the great epochs of the past five hundred years of American history. Finally, students will be able to draw connections between the great social, economic, political and cultural issues of the past and those issues that animate our American society today. Throughout the course of the semester, students will develop the skills used by historians to research, analyze, critically think and argue about the past, which will provide them with transferable skills essential for future success in their careers and in their roles as American citizens.

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING OUTCOMES (GELO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

GELO 1 (US1): Describe the principal events, developments, ideas, politics, and international relations in all the territories now in the United States from the beginnings of this society until the present. Assessed by multiple-choice and essay questions on midterm and final exams, periodic quizzes, primary source problem activities, poll questions and in-class discussion assignments.
4. GELO 4 (D2): Evaluate social science information, draw on different points of view, and formulate applications appropriate to contemporary social issues. COURSE WORKLOAD

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally 9 hours per week for a three unit class), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on.

NOTE CAREFULLY—Because this course, taken together with Political Science 15, satisfies requirements that normally take three courses (9 units), the workload is heavier than a normal 3-unit class. Be aware that taking this course as part of a full load of 12 units will require more time and effort than if you are taking 4 normal 3-unit courses.

More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS:

You will be required to take three midterm exams and one final exam. The exams will comprise of 40 multiple-choice questions and three identification terms. The final is not comprehensive; it will cover only the material discussed or assigned in the last section of the course.

Your text for this course is Eric Foner's Give Me Liberty (see above image). You will be required to read approximately 700 pages over the next 4 months. This equates to approximately 43 pages a week.

IMPORTANT: You will not be required to read the entire text. To access the chapter-by-chapter reading guide Print out the "Foner Reading Guide" found in the "files" on Canvas.

You will also be required to read the Introductions and selected primary sources from two Bedford/St. Martins books—John Brown's Raid and My Lai (see above images), which you can purchase at the bookstore or online, as well as introductory essays on Sacco and Vanzetti, and the Salem Witch Hunt, which will be provided by the instructor (each of these readings averages about 32 pages). There will be a quiz on each of the four readings, which you will access through Canvas, followed by an in-class discussion of topics and issues raised by the historical topic. Your participation in these discussions will be graded as well.

You are required to send a "selfie" head shot to the instructor at- robert.cirivilleri@sjsu.edu - which will be used for the organization of students into study and discussion groups, and to gauge your in class participation, (This will be included in your participation points). If you fail to send your photo shot by TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5th, you not only lose 25 points for not having completed this, you will lose an additional 10 points, which will be subtracted from your overall participation grade of 45 points.

Your 45 participation points will be based on your completion of all assignments and exams and your contributions made in class discussions (including making comments, turning in written handouts provided by the instructor for that day, etc.). Participation points break down as follows:

- | | |
|---|---------------------------|
| • Complete all quizzes and exams (-2 points per missed test) | 13 points |
| • Attendance and group participation in 4 in-class quiz discussions | 12 points (3 points each) |
| • Class participation during lectures (questions, comments) | 5 points |
| • Timely pick up of all midterms from the professor | 5 points |
| • Professor meeting during office hours (or scheduled meeting) | 10 points |

Throughout the semester there will be several extra credit opportunities that will involve attending a campus sponsored event. Details will be provided in class.

ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING:

With the exception of the online quizzes, I do NOT post exam grades on Canvas. Midterms will be handed back two weeks after the exam date, and you are expected to pick up all of your midterms. Per department policy, grades cannot be emailed to students. Failure to pick up your exams in a timely fashion (within 2 weeks after I have handed them back) will affect your participation grade. If you have questions on how your exam was assessed I encourage you to see me during office hours or on a scheduled appointment date. I will be happy to go over your exam with you and help you devise strategies to improve your grade. I am also happy to fill out an academic or fraternity/sorority grade check form, but you must give me advance notice and then arrange to meet me in my office.

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY

I do not accept late assignments nor will I give late or make-up exams unless there is a VITALLY COMPELLING REASON to do so. ALL LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE MARKED DOWN 20%. A compelling reason exists only when you provide me with a valid reason BEFORE THE ASSIGNMENT IS DUE, as to why you cannot complete the assignment on time, or take the exam at the scheduled time. A valid excuse also requires official documentation verifying your absence. Even if you have a valid reason for missing an exam or assignment, the professor reserves the right to subtract points for late work. I also do not grant incompletes for any reason. If you feel you cannot complete the work required for this class you must drop before the required deadline! The last day that you can drop this class is TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5TH.
