

Dr. Josephine Chandler Humanities Scholarship $1,000 Award

Apply for the 2009/2010 award through STARS by
Monday, May 3, 2010 by 5:00 PM

In honor of the pursuit of academic excellence and a commitment to the study of the humanities, the College of Humanities and the Arts invites applicants for the Dr. Josephine Chandler Humanities Scholarship Award.

This scholarship is offered to students majoring in an academic program within the following departments:

English and Comparative Literature
Foreign Languages
Humanities
Linguistics and Language Development
Philosophy

Scholarship eligibility requires a minimum grade point average of 3.5 and sponsorship by any San Jose State University professor.

Scholarship nominees are required to complete the application in STARS. The application includes transcripts, information about achievements, activities and career goals, and a one-page statement addressing the importance of the humanities to modern life.