HOW TO APPLY

1. Write your own letter explaining your circumstances. You will need to explain the violation and outline how you are eligible for reinstatement. To be eligible you:
   A) Cannot have been out of status for more than 5 months at the time of filing reinstatement (unless you can demonstrate exceptional circumstances and you are filing as promptly as possible);
   B) Do not have a record of repeated or willful violations of USCIS regulations;
   C) Currently pursuing or intending to pursue a full course of study in the immediate future;
   D) Not engaged in any unauthorized employment;
   E) Is not deportable on any grounds; and
   F) Establishes to the satisfaction of USCIS by a detailed explanation showing that
      a. The violation of status resulted from circumstances beyond the student’s control (e.g. injury, illness, closure of SJSU, a natural disaster, or mistake by an international student advisor) OR
      b. The violation relates to a reduction in course load that would have been in the international student advisor’s power to authorize and failure to approve reinstatement would result in extreme hardship to the student.

2. Complete USCIS Form I-539, optional Form G-1145 (for email and text notification of application receipt) and G-1450 (if paying by credit card). Available at https://www.uscis.gov/forms. Type responses in fillable PDF and print out.

5. If appropriate, obtain a letter from your academic advisor confirming expected completion date with a statement you are making normal progress towards a degree.

6. Assemble supporting document. Include documents to support your person letter; includes academic transcript or medical record/letter from a doctor to confirm a medical condition.

The USCIS Service Center will send you an official paper receipt in the mail. It may take up to 4 weeks to receive a filing receipt (Form I-797C).

Online Status Check. The status of your application can be reviewed with USCIS Case Status Online here: https://egov.uscis.gov/casestatus/landing.do. You will need to locate your file or case number on your filing receipt. Enter your receipt number (example WACxx-xxx-xxxx) without the hyphens.

Reinstatement Case Decision

If reinstatement is approved USCIS will send you an approval notice, Form I-797A Notice of Action, in the mail as proof you have been reinstated to F-1 student status. Bring in the official approval notice to an international student advisor so we can update your SEVIS record. We will re-print an updated I-20 for “Continued Attendance”.

If your reinstatement request is denied you will be given a date of voluntary departure by which to leave the United States (usually within 30 days of notification) and you may not appeal the decision.
