The Justice Studies Department proudly announces the 2016 Scholarship competition honoring prominent persons associated with the department:

- Kristofer Boaz Claspill Memorial Scholarship
- Theresa Edel Memorial Scholarship
- Jeffrey Fontana Memorial Scholarship
- Paula Stone Hubbell Memorial Scholarship
- Daniel P. Lomio Memorial Scholarship
- Willard "Huck" Schmidt Memorial Scholarship
- California Association of Criminalists Reed McLaughlin Endowment

These scholarships, worth between $1,000 to $5000, are available to undergraduate and graduate students in Justice Studies—over $25,000 in scholarships will be awarded. Eligibility and application requirements vary. Students may apply to more than one scholarship.

Submit applications in one of two ways:
1. Enter application information and submit required documents by April 6, 2016 at https://sjsu.academicworks.com, or
2. Submit a paper and an electronic copy of the application form and required documents:
   a. Drop off a paper copy at the Justice Studies Department, MacQuarrie Hall 524, by 5:00 PM, Wednesday April 6, 2016.
   b. Email the same materials by April 6, 2016 to Scholarship Chair, Jan Hagemann, at janet.hagemann@sjsu.edu.

2016 Scholarship Application:

The following information must be submitted in its entirety for each scholarship application.

1. Applicant information entered online at https://sjsu.academicworks.com or on the application form available on the Department webpage
2. A written statement (300 - 500 words) that addresses each of the following points:
   a. Describe the experiences that motivated you to pursue a justice related career.
   b. Explain or describe how the specific scholarship will contribute to your academic success and professional goals.
   c. Identify and describe any volunteer work, internship, or other work experience in the criminal or juvenile justice field, or forensic science.
   d. (If applying for the Paula Stone Hubbell Scholarship, describe your plans for a career in juvenile justice or related field; if applying for the Jeffrey Fontana or the Kristofer Boaz Claspill scholarship, describe your plans for a career in law enforcement.)
3. Unofficial copy of all higher education transcripts
4. A recent GRADED Justice Studies course paper or project with instructor's markup
5. Additional documents for select scholarships:
   a. Paula Stone Hubbell, submit a letter from a professional in the justice field
   b. CAC Reed McLaughlin Endowment, submit two (2) letters of recommendation and a one-page outline of the applicant's research project
   c. Kristofer Boaz Claspill, option to provide additional evidence supporting the applicant's interest in a career in law enforcement

Applications must be submitted by Wednesday, April 6, 2016. The committee will not consider late or incomplete applications.
Justice Studies Department Scholarships

Kristofer Boaz Claspill Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship is intended to provide financial support to a student like Kris: one majoring in Justice Studies, in or is entering the senior year, and planning to pursue a career in law enforcement. The scholarship is intended to help pay for the senior year at SJSU.

Student must have:
- Completed 80 units by the end of the spring semester.
- A minimum 3.0 GPA in Justice Studies coursework
- A demonstrated interest in a career in law enforcement. This may be substantiated by related work experience, internship, letters from someone with first-hand knowledge of the student's career interests, and so forth

To Apply: Submit the 2016 Scholarship Application outlined above.

Note: Option to submit additional evidence to demonstrate interest in a career in law enforcement.

Theresa Edel Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship is for an undergraduate student majoring in Justice Studies or Forensic Science.

The student must have completed:
- 60 units of college coursework,
- 12 units at SJSU, and
- 6 units in JS/FS courses

The student must meet GPA minimums:
- 3.0 overall GPA
- 3.0 GPA at SJSU, and
- 3.0 GPA in JS/FS coursework

To Apply: Submit the 2016 Scholarship Application outlined above.

Jeffrey Fontana Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship is intended for upper division undergraduate students majoring in Justice Studies or Forensic Science with intent to enter law enforcement.

The student must:
- Demonstrate a desire to pursue a career in law enforcement
- Have a minimum 3.5 GPA in major coursework
- Have a minimum 3.0 overall college GPA

To Apply: Submit the 2016 Scholarship Application outlined above.
Justice Studies Department Scholarships

Paula Stone Hubbell Memorial Scholarship
This memorial scholarship is only for a current graduate student in classified standing in Justice Studies.
Graduate student must have a:
• Minimum 3.5 GPA in the last 60 units of college/university work
• Demonstrated serious commitment to a career in juvenile justice or related fields
To Apply: Submit the 2016 Scholarship Application outlined above.
Note: Applicant must submit a letter of recommendation from a professional in the justice field.

Daniel P. Lomio Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship may be awarded to either an undergraduate or graduate student in a Department of Justice Studies degree program.
Undergraduate student must:
• Be in a Department of Justice Studies major, have completed 60 units of which 12 must be at SJSU and 6 must be in the major.
• Have a minimum 3.0 SJSU GPA
Graduate student must:
• Be a Justice Studies graduate student in classified standing with at least 6 units left to be completed.
• Have a minimum 3.0 GPA in Justice Studies graduate courses.
To Apply: Submit the 2016 Scholarship Application outlined above.

Willard “Huck” Schmidt Memorial Scholarship
This scholarship may be awarded to either an undergraduate or graduate student in a Department of Justice Studies degree program.
Undergraduate student must have:
• Completed at least . . .
  o 60 units of college coursework, o 12 units at SJSU, and
  o 6 in the qualifying major
• Met minimum GPA requirements . . .
  o 3.0 in overall coursework
  o 3.0 at SJSU, and
  o 3.0 in the qualifying major
Graduate student must:
• Be in classified standing with at least 6 units left to be completed
• Have a minimum 3.5 GPA in Justice Studies graduate courses
To Apply: Submit the 2016 Scholarship Application outlined above.
California Association of Criminalists Reed McLaughlin
Endowment
This scholarship is for undergraduate students majoring in Forensic Science. It is specifically intended to support student research and training. The funds may be used for travel, lodging, registration and attendance at forensic science meetings, and to offset costs incurred for research and presentation of results at a California Association of Criminalists meeting.
Student must:
   1. Have either begun or completed one semester of research/internship experience in forensic science,
   2. Be a current student member of, or applicant to, the California Association of Criminalists,
   3. Be an applicant to or a member of the Forensic Science Student Group,
   4. Have completed 60 units of college coursework, with 12 units in the forensic science major, and
   5. Have a minimum 3.0 overall GPA with a minimum 3.0 GPA in forensic science major coursework

To Apply: Submit the 2016 Scholarship Application outlined above.
Note: Applicant must submit two letters of recommendation and a one-page outline of their forensic science research project