Kristofer Boaz Claspill was an adventurous San Jose State University student taking Justice Studies courses and working toward his lifelong dream of becoming a police officer. In his last year of studies, his life was tragically cut short on September 16, 2006.

Kris did not have the opportunity to complete his final year at the university, so the Claspill family was inspired to establish an endowment to fund a scholarship in Kristofer's memory. The scholarship is intended to provide financial support to a student who, like Kris, is majoring in Justice Studies, is in or is entering his or her senior year, and is planning to pursue a career in law enforcement.
