AJ 132
WOMEN, MINORITIES AND THE LAW

COURSE DESCRIPTION

History of legal issues and definitions of individual and institutional discrimination. Laws relating to women, ethnic and cultural minorities, gays and lesbians and the disabled in education, labor market, criminal justice system and family relations. Recent court decisions on affirmative action and reverse discrimination. Solutions explored for structured equality and inequality in the U.S.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

AT THE TIME OF THE FINAL STUDENTS SHOULD BE ABLE TO:

1. Define concepts of different cultural/social identities and theories of prejudice and discrimination from a multidisciplinary and multicultural perspective

2. Describe the legal history and current legal context of minority group and gender discrimination

3. Identify the structural sources of inequality and equality in major societal institutions; family, education, labor market, criminal justice, and religion, and how these inequalities and equalities are reflected in the law

4. Analyze case law and constitutional guidelines in reviewing claims of discrimination by women and men, by racial/ethnic and religious minority groups, by the aged, the disabled, and by persons of different sexual orientation

5. Analyze competing legal rights of men and women in domestic relations including marriage, reproduction, adoption, child custody and divorce.

6. Analyze legal and social developments in issues relating to sexual harassment, hate crimes, and affirmative action/reverse discrimination

7. Identify social and political movements offering solutions to structured inequality between people of different race, ethnicity, gender, class, religion, age, sexual orientation and ability
8. Recognize your own and others' attitudes towards racism, sexism and discrimination of all groups

9. Recognize and appreciate constructive interactions between people from different cultural and social groups and identities in the U.S.

10. Gain greater competence in research and writing skills

11. Gain greater verbal articulation skills, and ability to communicate with people of different background and identities

REQUIRED TEXTS

CLASS REQUIREMENTS

Three exams are required; two midterms and final administered in class during the final examination period. A total of 3500 words of writing is required for credit in the class. Each exam is 2/3's essay (approximately 500-600 words) and 1/3 multiple choice. A research paper 8-10 pages in length (2000-2500) words is also required for a total of 3500 or more words. A handout on the paper will be provided outlining topics, research requirements, format, outlines, due date and grading procedures. We will conduct a library tour outside class time if necessary. Instructor will provide extensive feedback on research paper drafts submitted at least two weeks before paper due date. Additionally, two in class structured written assignments are required. They will be based on videos, and will be a review of major concepts of equality and inequality. Small group discussions based on the Cyrus readings will be spaced every 3-4 weeks. Participation in the group will be evaluated by the instructor and points distributed.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Regular class attendance is expected. Outstanding class participation may result in the improvement of the final grade by 1/2 grade point. Readings must be completed prior to the class meeting to promote understanding and informed class discussion. Students must bring the appropriate text—Cyrus if small group discussions; Lindgren if case law discussion. Check the greensheet to ensure you are prepared. If you are absent you must rely on classmates for notes. Do not ask the instructor for her notes. Missed exams and in class assignments may only be made up for compelling reasons. They will be administered during finals week, but the instructor must have received notice of the absence!

RESEARCH PAPER REQUIREMENTS

Students must complete a research paper for credit in this course. The paper must be a total of eight (8) typed pages, double space, 27 lines per page, 12 font. A bibliography and citations page must be included. Footnotes may be incorporated into the body of the paper (at the bottom of the page) which is the preferred method. The paper must be stapled or bound in a folder with the students name, class time, date on the title page. Please refer to any thesis or paper writing text for direction, Strunk & Whites' Elements of Style is excellent. The paper is due on the date listed on the greensheet, late papers are subject to point diminishment. Note: College papers should never contain gratuitous profanity, even if it's a quote!

Research: A minimum of eight different sources must be used. Six (6) must be academic, scholarly or professional journal articles or books. Newspaper articles may not be used as the journal sources! Interviews with professionals are appropriate, but see the instructor first. Interviews with family members, friends etc. are not acceptable. See handout for proper internet citation methods. Illustrations may be included. A draft of the paper is due on the date listed on the greensheet. The draft will be redistributed with notes, suggestions, corrections. The student will incorporate suggestions and resubmit the completed paper on the due date.
