Course Description: This is an integrated writing and research course designed to develop advanced communication skills, which will be valuable in a career in the justice field. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be skilled at communicating information in a variety of formats to criminal justice professionals and to general audiences. Effective written and oral communication skills are vital to success in any career, but are particularly important in criminal justice. The best method for improving these skills is through extensive practice, critical feedback, revision, and examination of models of excellence in communication.

The students of AJ 100W will develop:

- a clear, concise, and effective writing style, exhibiting the mastery of the mechanics of writing
- advanced proficiencies in research strategies and methodologies necessary to communicate complex ideas effectively and appropriately to both general and specific audiences
- the ability to read, interpret, and critically analyze scholarly literature within the field, and to respond critically both orally and in writing
- the ability to gather diverse supporting evidence from a variety of sources and appropriately cite these sources
- the ability effectively and cogently to express a position, using organized, clear and concise wording in a variety of formats to target different audiences

Prerequisites: English 1A and 1B or equivalent, and passing score on the Writing Skills Test.

Schmalleege, F (2002). The definitive guide to criminal justice on the world wide web. Recommended
Merriam-Webster’s collegiate dictionary (10th edition or newer). Recommended

Course Requirements: To satisfy the University’s Written Communication II requirement, students will be required to write a minimum of 8000 words with an overall grade of “C” or better. Students will also make at least two oral presentations, and will evaluate classmates’ writing on a variety of assignments. Assignments in AJ100W will include: expository responses to problem statements, a review of scholarly literature, an argumentative research paper, interviews of professionals in the criminal justice field, a brief of and response to a Supreme Court decision, an oral presentation in the form of a debate, various correspondence, a professional resume, and a final examination. All of these assignments are designed to provide practice in critical reading, thinking, and writing strategies necessary to plan and execute purposeful writing. Purposeful writing includes analyzing research, generating ideas, developing a thesis, organizing and writing a first draft, revising for form and content, editing for grammar, punctuation, spelling and usage, and evaluating, using, and documenting supporting materials. There will also be vocabulary and grammar quizzes.

Important: If you need course adaptation or accommodations because of a disability, or if you have emergency medical information to share with me, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please see me during office hours.
Course Grade: All writing workshops are graded ABC/NC. Performance that merits a grade lower than a "C" will receive a "No Credit" for 100W. Please note that University and Departmental guidelines require a serious and compelling reason to drop a course. A course cannot be dropped because of grades alone.

The semester grade in 100W will be based on a weighted average method. Not all assignments will be weighted. Grades are determined based upon the following criteria:

Papers will be evaluated in three areas: format, content and mechanics. Students will be given specific criteria for each assignment and will be expected to follow guidelines provided. All assignments completed outside of class must adhere to the following guidelines unless otherwise specified: typed, double-spaced, single sided, white paper, 1 inch margins, 12 pt. standard font (i.e.: Times, New York, Palatine, Geneva).

Always keep a copy of any out of class writing that is turned in.

Late paper policy: Points will be deducted if a paper is up to a week late. After one week, late papers will not be accepted, without prior approval from instructor.

Plagiarism: Adhere to the SJSU code prohibiting plagiarism. Any plagiarized work will receive no credit and may not be resubmitted. Plagiarism may also result in disciplinary action by the Department or the University. SJSU plagiarism policy located at: www1.cob.sjsu.edu/7_dean_office/86_10.html.

Attendance and Participation: Critical reading, thinking, and writing involve a number of practical skills. These skills must be diligently practiced to be developed and they must be diligently exercised to be maintained. Students are expected to keep up with class readings, to attend all class meetings and to be prepared to contribute to the classroom exchange of ideas and information throughout the semester. Attendance is mandatory.

In class writing assignments: Be prepared to write in each class. In class assignments will include expository responses to problem statements, abstracts, letters, case summaries, quizzes, drafts of cover letter and resume, critiques, and the final examination.

Out of class assignments: Out of class assignments will include interviews, literature review, brief of and response to Supreme Court decisions, presentation of opinion in debate format, research paper critique, and the research paper itself.

Vocabulary Development: Students will be expected to master 150-175 new vocabulary words this semester. Mastery will be evidenced through vocabulary quizzes and correct usage of vocabulary words in writing and speech.

Research Paper: Students will write an 8 - 10 page research paper, which will be argumentative in nature. The paper will be based on the agency case study material included in CJSWM. Research for this paper will include a literature review and personal interviews. The research process itself will incorporate several additional writing assignments, which will be graded separately.

Final Exam will be Saturday, May 10, 2003, 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM.

Make up exam will be Monday, May 12, 2003, 2 – 5:00 PM.
