Introduction paper

Each student will complete a two page type written introduction paper providing a brief personal history, the reason(s) for taking this course including areas of the police/society relationship that most interest you and your future goals in the justice system. The introduction paper must be completed prior to any further assignments being accepted. Papers turned in after the due date will receive a score of zero, but are still required to be submitted.
Academic Integrity online quiz  Students will complete the online academic integrity quiz at http://130.65.109.143/plagiarism/index.htm. The completed verification form will be attached and submitted with the introduction paper.

Papers
Students will complete 2 research papers outside of class. Each paper will be 7-8 typewritten, double spaced pages with normal margins and fonts. Papers will address the below listed topics. Each paper must be turned in by the end of class on the due date. Papers will be graded on relevance, organization, completeness and reference notation. Each paper will include a minimum of three scholarly references in the APA format. Late papers will not be accepted except in the case of a verifiable medical emergency.

Essay #1 Topic — An overview of any Community Oriented Policing program or project currently being utilized/tested by any police agency. The essay will provide a detailed account of the program, its effectiveness and acceptance by the community and agency personnel.

Essay #2 Topic — A review of any existing police oversight program with the primary purpose of reviewing officer behavior and/or citizen complaints. Scoring: Papers will be scored on the following basis, Spelling/grammar 10 points, APA/ 5 points, scholarly references 5 points, Content 30 points.

Individual Presentation
Each student will make one presentation providing an overview of a cultural/ethnic practice. Prepare an outline for the presentation and provide enough copies for the instructor and other students. All presentations will include a visual aid. Scoring: Outline provided for class, 5 points, Visual aid 5 points, Overall presentation 15 points.

Exams
The Mid-term and Final exams will cover all material presented prior to the exam including chapter reading assignments, lectures, videos and information provided by guest speakers. Test reviews will provide a general overview of the material covered in the exam. Test will be a combination of multiple choice and true/false.

Course Structure
Lecture, student presentations, guest speakers, films
