Introduction paper

Each student will complete a two page type written introduction paper discussing the police/society relationship that most interests you and your future goals in the justice system. The introduction paper must be completed prior to any further assignments being accepted. Papers turned in after the due date will receive a score of zero, but are still required to be submitted. Your introduction paper must include a one to two line written statement that you have reviewed and understand the academic integrity policy of the university. You must also indicate your essay topic selected from the list of approved topics.

Academic Integrity

Students will be required to adhere to all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity. All work presented during the course is expected to be an original work by the student and not previously submitted in any other course. The academic integrity policy can be reviewed on line at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/soc-fall/rec-776.html and enter “academic integrity” into the search info window. Violations of this policy will be submitted to the Judicial Review Committee.

Essay Topics

Essays will be written on one of the following topics. Identity Theft, DNA use in Cold Case review. Releasing Sex Offenders back into the Community, Electronic Monitoring of Parolees, Problem based Policing, Restorative Justice, Video Monitoring of Public Areas and Releasing Chemically Treated Sex Offenders back into the Community.

Essay

The paper will be 6-8 typewritten, double spaced pages with normal margins and fonts. Essay topics will be selected from the list provided by the instructor. A hard copy of your paper must be turned in by the beginning of class on the due date. An electronic version must also be submitted to turnitin.com. Papers will be graded on relevance, organization, completeness and reference notation. Each paper will include a minimum of two scholarly references in the APA format. Grammar and spelling will account for 20% of each paper. Each paper must have a minimum of four references including the two scholarly references. Students expecting an A level paper will go beyond the required minimums. The course website provides a rubric concerning how your paper will be evaluated Late papers will not be accepted except in the case of a verifiable medical emergency. A hard copy of the essay must be turned in during class on the due date.
Individual Presentation

Each student will make one presentation providing an overview of a cultural, ethnic or religious celebration, practice or ritual that would further your understanding of a diverse community. A 5 minute oral presentation with visual aids will be given in class for the instructor and other students. Student will sign up for presentation dates and must be ready to give their presentations on the selected date. The course website has an online rubric regarding the evaluation of your presentation.

Exams

The Mid-term and Final exams will cover all material presented prior to the exam including chapter reading assignments, lectures, videos and information provided by guest speakers. Test reviews will provide a general overview of the material covered in the exam. Your best study guides will be in class notes and practice exams on the publishers website. Test will be a combination of on-line short answer and in class multiple choice and true/false. A scantron 882e and a number 2 pencil will be required to take each exam.

Online Quizzes

Eight online quizzes will be given during the course and assigned at various times in the lecture. You will have one week to complete the quiz once assigned. Additional information will be provided in class and on the course website www.prcarrjr.pageout.net

Online Discussion Topics

Five online discussion topics concerning current affairs will be presented during the semester. Students will be required to respond to the topic at hand and participate in the discussion with others in the class.

Course Structure

Lecture, student presentations, guest speakers, films, discussion/debate

Student Accommodation
