Course Description
This course provides a critical analysis of the role of the police in the US and other Western societies, both in a historical and contemporary perspective. More specifically, we will reconstruct the birth of the modern police in the XIX century as well as its transformations during the XX and early XXI centuries, with particular reference to American society. In this context, several styles of policing will be scrutinized and particular attention will be devoted to the most recent and debated developments within police strategies, such as “quality of life”, “order maintenance”, “zero tolerance”, and “paramilitary” policing.

Course Objectives
After completing this course, students should be aware of the various cultural and political dimensions of policing, as well as of the main approaches to past and present transformations of police activity in American society. Most importantly, however, students will be expected to show a sociologically informed knowledge about the most problematic aspects of police work in societies divided along lines of class, race, ethnicity, and gender. Finally, participants should be able to develop a critical understanding of the controversies surrounding police action in contemporary urban settings, with particular reference to such crucial issues as police brutality, and racial profiling in US inner cities.

Important Note on Coursework
TESTS: These will be done in class, and will consist of 5 short-answer questions. If you miss one test, there is the possibility of a makeup test reserved for the students who justify their absence with a doctor’s certificate.
PAPER: This will be done at home, and will consist of a written essay on a topic chosen by each student from a list which will be made available by the instructor. The essay should be 5-10 pages long, double-spaced and typed in Word, Times New Roman (12pts). In order for the paper to be accepted, students are requested to discuss their project and/or draft at least once with the instructor, during office hours. The discussion should take place before 03/19/2008. No papers will be accepted without previous discussion!
Please consider that having office hours is a student’s right: take advantage of it and feel free to come and see the instructor as you need.

Student Conduct

Attendance: According to University policy F69-24 “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading”. Attendance is taken at each class meeting using sign-in sheets.

Etiquette: While in class please turn your cell phone off. If your laptop has wireless access you may use it to access information relevant to the discussion, but please do not read emails, newspapers or other non-class related material during class. Students are encouraged to speak up with questions and comments, and to respond to points raised by other students. However, the maintenance of an effective discussion space in class requires all of us to act with respect for everyone else in the room.

University Policies

Course Add/Drop Statement

Instructors are permitted to drop students who fail to attend the first scheduled class meeting and who fail to inform the instructor prior to the second class meeting of the reason for any absence and their intention to continue in the class. Some instructors will drop students who do not meet the stated course prerequisites. However, instructors are not required to drop a student from their course. It is the student’s responsibility to make sure classes are dropped. You are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, withdrawal, etc. found at: http://sa.sjsu.edu/student_conduct

Academic Integrity Statement

Academic integrity is essential to the mission of San José State University. As such, students are expected to perform their own work without the use of any outside resources. Academic integrity ensures that all students are fairly graded. Violations to the Academic Integrity Policy undermine the educational process and will not be tolerated. It also demonstrates a lack of respect for oneself, fellow students and the course instructor. We all share the obligation to maintain an environment which practices academic integrity. Violators of the Academic Integrity Policy will be subject to failing this course and being reported to the Office of Student Conduct & Ethical Development for disciplinary action which could result in suspension or expulsion from San José State University. The policy on academic integrity can be found at: http://sa.sjsu.edu/student_conduct.
