JS 120

JUVENILE JUSTICE

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course will provide an orientation to the issues, policies and procedures which make up our system of justice for children. The function and legal responsibilities of the Police, probation, Juvenile Court and corrections system will be studied. Emphasis will be on societal forces that bring children into the Justice System including child abuse, and gang participation as well as the legal response of mandated agencies. Recent case law will also be examined.

OBJECTIVE

Students will gain an understanding of the history of both child victims of crime and child perpetrators of crime. Analysis of the overlap between children in the dependency System with children who are law violators. Groundwork will be laid for further study in juvenile justice and students considering a career in the justice system will understand the role of law enforcement, social workers, probation officers and attorneys. Analysis of theories of delinquency including psychological, biological and sociological will provide students with a framework for understanding law violation. Through institution tours and Court observation students will gain a greater understanding of the strengths and weaknesses of the system. Students will also gain appreciation and empathy for all child victims and offenders who find themselves within the Juvenile Justice System.

REQUIRED TEXTS

CLASS REQUIREMENTS

There will be a midterm, final and two papers, of 5-10 pages in length. Students who miss an exam may make it up on the last day of class providing they have documentation for why the exam was missed. There are absolutely no exceptions to this rule! Makeup exams are administered on the last day of class. Lecture material is comprehensive, thorough note taking suggested. There will be guest lecturers and tours scheduled. Students will not be penalized for not attending tours but should get materials from classmates to ensure they are properly prepared for the exams.

The longer paper will be based on a response to My Bloody Life & Unmaking of a Latin King. The second paper will be selected by the student from a list provided by the instructor. TURNITIN.COM MUST BE UTILIZED FOR BOTH PAPERS IN ORDER TO RECEIVE A PASSING GRADE. All exams and assignments must be completed in order to receive a grade in the class.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Regular class attendance and participation is expected. Regular absences for work/illnesses should be reported to the instructor. Students are expected to do the class reading before the lecture. I will be posting many of my lectures on Blackboard so that students may download the notes before class. Students are encouraged to share with the class relevant newspaper articles on juvenile justice topics. As participation enhances the classroom learning experience for all, attendance will be taken and credit accrued. STUDENTS WHO CAN SUPPLY THE INSTRUCTOR WITH A PICTURE OF THEMSELVES LABELED WITH THEIR NAME WILL MAKE CLASSROOM DYNAMICS THAT MUCH MORE POSITIVE. I will distribute handouts on field trips a few weeks before they are scheduled and reviews for exams a week before the exam. Texting, ringing cellphones and shopping on line during class earns is unacceptable. Excessive whispering and eating is disruptive to everyone!

EVALUATION

Exams are based on class lectures, text readings, handouts and videos. Students will be given a review sheet before the exam and the grades will be distributed to the class the period after the exam. Students will receive a point score and a grade for each exam and the scale will be illustrated so students are aware of class standing. Grades will be posted on Blackboard. Extra credit may be pursued subject to instructor approval. Students may pursue topics on a deeper level than class time allows, write short papers on their work with the Juvenile Justice System etc. However, the work must be generated for this class; not recycled work from other classes which may or may not be relevant. Please see the attached sheet on Extra Credit. More weight is given to the final so that students improvement is reflected in their final grade.
Midterm #1 25%
Midterm #2 25%
Paper –Latin Kings 15% Assignment will be distributed
Final 35% Includes second paper

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who need accommodation must register with the Disability Resource Center, document it, and determine the services and accommodation needed for student success. The DRC will contact the instructor with the types of consideration needed. Students must register with the Center during the first three weeks of the semester. Their website is: http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM

In accordance with University Policy, students caught cheating or plagiarizing will both fail the class and be reported to the University Judicial Affairs Officer. If you are considering a career in the Justice System, be aware that reports of cheating will go on your permanent academic record and thus may be discovered by employer’s background investigations. For more information, take the SJSU Library Tutorial at http://tutorials.sjlibrary.org/plagarism/index.htm. Students should also be aware that inappropriate, disrespectful emails may be forwarded to the Office of Student Ethics.
