2. describe historical, social, political, and economic processes producing diversity, equality, and structured inequalities in the U.S.;

3. describe social actions by religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age groups leading to greater equality and social justice in the U.S.; and
4. recognize and appreciate constructive interactions between people from different cultural, racial, and ethnic groups in the U.S.

REQUIRED TEXTS

CLASS REQUIREMENTS

You are responsible for reading assignments before class lecture and bringing the appropriate text to class for discussion purposes. Class notes are essential and should be obtained from classmates if you miss class. Please do not ask to copy the instructors notes. Assignments, handouts and grades will be posted on Blackboard.

Two exams are required; a midterm and a final administered in class during the final examination period. The midterm will have a take home essay portion and an in class objective portion. A total of 3500 words of writing is required for credit in the class. A research paper 8-10 pages in length (2000-2500) words is also required for a total of 3500 or more words. A handout on the paper will be provided outlining topics, research requirements, format, outlines, due date and grading procedures. We will conduct a library tour outside class time if necessary. Students are required to submit either an annotated outline or a draft of their paper for review by the instructor. Instructor will provide feedback and points assigned. Additionally, two in class structured written assignments are required. They will be based on videos, and will be a review of major concepts of equality and inequality. Small group discussions based on the Healey
Readings will be spaced every 2-3 weeks. Participation in the group will be evaluated by the instructor and points distributed. Participation will also be evaluated by student assignments of cases in the Lindgren text. Students will also review major issues discussed in their research in a class presentation.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Regular class attendance is expected. Outstanding class participation may result in the improvement of the final grade by 1/2 grade point. Readings must be completed prior to the class meeting to promote understanding and informed class discussion. Students must bring the appropriate text--Healey if small group discussions; Lindgren if case law discussion. Check the greensheet to ensure you are prepared. If you are absent you must rely on classmates for notes. Missed exams and in class assignments may only be made up only for compelling reasons. Vacations, oversleeping etc. do not constitute valid excuses. Makeup exams will only be administered during finals week, and the instructor must have received notice of the absence! Again, only one exam may be made up, and that will occur on the last day of class.

Because class participation enhances the learning experience for all, I will be taking roll each class period. Students who post their picture on Blackboard will help me tremendously in learning your names and assigning participation points.

EVALUATION

- Midterm #1: 70 pts (50 essay, 20 objective)
- Crash Assignment: 50 pts
- In class writing assignment #1: 10 pts
- In class writing assignment #2: 10 pts
- Draft of research paper: 15 pts
- Research paper: 90 pts
- Midterm #2: 70 pts (50 essay, 20 objective)
- Objective final: 50 pts
Extra credit up to 20 pts

Total of 375 pts plus extra credit

Exams will receive a letter grade and a point distribution will illustrate class standing. Extra credit may be generated based on additional readings provided by the instructor. Please speak to the instructor if you are interested. Your final grade in the class will be curved against the rest of the class but again, may be enhanced by either outstanding class participation or extra credit. Note: If you are 15 minutes late for an exam, without a valid excuse, you may not take the exam. You may only be late for one exam. Late papers will be deducted 10 points for each day late. Missed exams without proper documentation will credited as an “F”. It is your job to inform the instructor of anticipated missed exams etc. All written materials should be backed up on your computer or on a disk. Students must submit hardcopies of their work to the instructor; emailed assignments will only be accepted under exigent circumstances with permission by the instructor.

EXTRA CREDIT

Extra credit will consist of additional reading in a specific topic area or viewing of a film the instructor has chosen as particularly relevant to our coursework. Students will write a reflection paper (separate handout) of 3-4 pages in length and receive up to 20 points depending on the quality of the work. Suggestions for extra credit will be italicized in the syllabus.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students who need accommodation due to disability must register with the Disabilities Resource Center. The Center will access disability, document it, and provide acceptable accommodation. The DRC will contact the instructor to determine the type of consideration needed. DRC website http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/
CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM

In accordance with University policy, students caught cheating or plagiarizing will both fail the course and be reported to the University Judicial Affairs Officer. A report of the incident may be included in your academic record which may be accessed by future employers. Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by enrollment at San Jose State University, and the Universities Academic Integrity Policy requires you to be honest in all your academic work. The policy on academic integrity can be found at: http://www2.sjsu.edu/senate/SO4-12.htm. For more information on what constitutes this infraction, take the SJSU Library tutorial at http://tutorials.sjlibrary.org/plagiarism/index.htm. We will be using Turnitin.com this semester.

REVIEW/MAKEUP EXAMS/small group discussions
RESEARCH PAPER REQUIREMENTS

1. The paper must be a total of 8 typed pages, 12 font, 27 lines per page. Quotes should not be longer than a few lines, and MUST BE single spaced and indented.

2. A bibliography using APA format must be included.

3. Every idea that is not your own must be cited! Cite with a footnote either incorporated on the page, or entered at the end of your paper as a sources cited page. (turnitin.com)

4. Each paper must contain four scholarly sources which are used in your analysis. Scholarly sources are academic journals such as The Journal of Criminal Justice, Criminology, Sociology Social Research. We will spend time in class distinguishing the various types of sources and which are most helpful in this project.

5. Students must keep a copy of their draft and final paper on a disk.

6. College papers should never contain gratuitous profanity, even if it’s a quote!

RESEARCH PAPER GUIDELINES: Students must complete the paper according to the guidelines in order to receive a final grade in the course.

1. Students will choose a book from the attached list, or have one of their own choices cleared by the instructor. I will have a binder in my office with material on books supplied by Amazon, reviews, price etc. Students should peruse this binder in making their selection. It will save shopping time.

2. The books are generally autobiography, biography, ethnography or even fiction. They are compelling presentations of injustice, discrimination, prejudice or insurmountable obstacles faced by individuals. All are excellent reading and cover most areas in our curriculum. I will be adding and subtracting from this list as publishing in this area is prolific.

3. Your job is to analyze the book, using the attached format, augmented with sources, and guided by the principles and concepts we will be studying this semester. There is wonderful writing in this area that I urge you to choose a book which contains an issue of relevance to you. It may be an issue of current or historical ethnic discrimination, gender inequality, unfairness or illegality in the workplace. Any and all issues discussed in class or contained in our curriculum are appropriate.

4. An annotated outline or draft of the paper is due on the date in the greensheet. Copies of the journal articles must be attached. I will make suggestions for revisions and return them to the students. No final paper will be accepted without an outline I will also expect to speak to all students regarding the paper.

RESEARCH PAPER QUESTIONS

1. Reason for the student’s book choice (5 pts)

2. Historical background of discrimination or inequality exhibited in your book (10 pts)

3. Examples of individual or institutional discrimination or injustice (10 pts)

4. Relationship between members of dominant and subordinate groups (10 pts)
5. Effects of oppression or injustice in terms of assimilation, denial of economic opportunity, lifestyle choices, incarceration, autonomy, etc. (10 pts)

6. How the justice system responded (or didn’t) to the discrimination or injustice (10 pts)

7. What are possible solutions to the injustices/discrimination presented in your book? Litigation, Class Actions, legislation, education of the public, societal change? (20 pts)

9. Sources, bibliography, footnotes. (5 pts)

10. Presentation, grammar, syntax, spelling, paragraphs (5 pts)

Crash Video Assignment
50 points—Must be typewritten. Due Oct. 1 in class.

The movie Crash, tells the interlocking stories of Blacks, Whites, Latinos, Koreans and Iranians all living in Los Angeles. There are cops and criminals, powerful or powerless, kind and cruel, all defined by their racism. Some are perpetrators of bigotry, others victims of it. All characters in the movie are emotionally or physically impacted by impulsive, thoughtless, in-your-face interchanges. Some characters may learn from their actions and appear redeemed by the end of the movie, although no attempt is made by the filmmaker to have a politically correct ending. Irony runs throughout the film in unexpected ways, and most of the characters maintain negative assumptions, based on stereotypes, even of those they care for. No character is untouched, as they continue to crash into each other, literally or figuratively. Reference theory on prejudice and discrimination as you write your paper.

1. (15pts) Describe examples of how characters use stereotypes to bolster racism.

2. (15pts) Discuss how irony is a recurrent theme throughout the film.

3. (10pts) By the end of the film, which character(s) gained insight into Their prejudice? Why do you think this occurred?
4. (10pts) What is the director's conclusion about current race relations?
