JS 136, Violence & Hate in the Family & Community

Section 1, Spring 2013

Instructor: Maureen Lowell, MA, LMFT
Office Location: MacQuarrie Hall, Room 508
Telephone: (408) 924-3209
Email: Maureen.lowell@sjsu.edu
Office Hours: Wednesdays 11:45-12:45 or by appointment
Class Days/Time: MW 10:30-11:45; (January 23-May 13, 2013)
Classroom: MacQuarrie Hall 520
Prerequisites: Students must have passed the Writing Skills Test (WST), have upper division standing (56 units), and have completed their CORE GE classes. For students enrolled after January 2005, students are required to have completed or be co-enrolled in 100W.

GE/SJSU Studies Category: JS136 has been approved for Area S. of Advanced General Education. (Courses to meet areas R, S, and V of SJS Studies must be taken from 3 different dept or distinct academic units.)

Email
The best way to reach me is during office hours. If you are not able to come during that time, please email to schedule an appointment. I will do my best to answer email within 48 hours during the week. There are many weekends that I am not able to reply to email. Three rules for email. 1. If it is on the syllabus, I will not answer the question I will simply refer you to the syllabus. 2. If it involves a conflict or concern, please schedule a time to come in. Email is not the best way to resolve a conflict or something that requires a conversation. 3. Email should be limited to short answers. If it requires more explanation, please come during office hours or schedule a time to see me. These guidelines are intended to reduce frustrations and increase resolution to issues as they arise.

Desire2Learn (D2L)

1 *Correspondence: When sending e-mails, please include JS136 “Sect 1” in the subject line.
Access and use of D2L is required for this course. Syllabus and course content can be found on Desire2Learn (D2L). Students are responsible for checking D2L between classes for announcements and course content postings. Readings listed as “Provided” on the Class Schedule will be posted on D2L. All writing assignments will be submitted to D2L by the due date in addition to providing a hardcopy to the instructor.

Please be advised that course materials provided online are intended to support your learning and are not considered sufficient for successful completion of this course without attending class.

Course Description
The course examines abusive relationships and community and justice system policy and preventive interventions. Topics include child abuse, neglect, gangs, hate crimes, rape, marital violence and elder abuse. These issues are viewed from a Justice Studies perspective, but integrate a range of perspectives including mental health and child development.

Prerequisite: Completion of core GE, satisfaction of Writing Skills Test and upper division standing. For students who begin continuous enrollment at a CCC or a CSU in fall 2005 or later, completion of, or co-requisite in a 100W course is required.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives
LO1. define and differentiate the abuse of power and the use of violence based upon gender, ethnicity, race, religion, class, sexual orientation, disability and age

LO2. identify how historical, social, psychological, economic and political factors have influenced the recognition of and response to each type of abusive relationship,

LO3. review current knowledge about the consequences of violence and effects on victims from diverse backgrounds,

LO4. develop self-awareness about their own prejudicial attitudes and behaviors that tolerate and promote abusive relationships,

LO5. explore and evaluate ways that individuals from diverse backgrounds and communities can prevent and intervene in each type of abusive and violent relationship,

LO6. Critique the current justice system response and propose ways in which greater equality and justice can be achieved in each type of abusive relationship. This involves reviewing:

(a) statutory laws,

(b) role of law enforcement,

(c) proceedings within criminal, family and juvenile courts
(d) auxiliary services offered by child protective, victim’s advocates and family court agencies

GE Student Learning Objectives
After successfully completing the course, students shall be able to:

LO1. describe how identities (i.e. religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age) are shaped by cultural and societal influences within contexts of equality and inequality; (course learning objectives 1 and 3)

LO2. describe historical, social, political, and economic processes producing diversity, equality, and structured inequalities in the U.S.; (Course learning objective 2)

LO3. describe social actions which have led to greater equality and social justice in the U.S. (i.e. religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age); and (course learning objectives 4 and 5)

LO4. recognize and appreciate constructive interactions between people from different cultural, racial, and ethnic groups within the U.S. (Course learning objectives 5 and 6)

Course Content:
The course is divided into five parts that range over the life span of individuals in diverse socioeconomic, ethnic and racial communities:

- infant and child neglect and psychological maltreatment, physical and sexual abuse
- neighborhood gang violence and hate crimes motivated by religious, racial and sexual orientation discrimination and prejudice during adolescence and young adulthood;
- date rape and sexual violence between intimate partners;
- violence, stalking and psychological terrorizing in dating, cohabiting and marital partnerships;
- Abuse of the elderly in the family and care institutions.

Recurring themes are social discrimination and oppression on the basis of gender, religious, racial and ethnic background, socioeconomic status, disability, age and sexual orientation. The dynamics of power and control in relationships and the social and historical processes and institutions that legitimize the abuse of power provides the basic framework for the analysis of all violence and abuse. An understanding of how infant and child development is compromised by witnessing abuse and being the objects of abuse provides a complementary developmental understanding (or mechanism) to help explain the intergenerational cycle of abusive relationships. A further theme is the development of civic responsibility in individuals and groups to work collaboratively to recognize and respond effectively to violence in diverse communities and the develop awareness of attitudes and beliefs that support and/or hinder social action.

Two writing assignments require students to demonstrate their understanding of the course learning objectives 1-6 as stated above. Other experiences that develop mastery of the objectives include small group discussions and reflections, exercises analyzing case vignettes, documentary film reviews, class debates and optional observations in dependency, family and criminal courts.

Teaching Philosophy

This class combines reading, lectures and video segments to present the conceptual material. Regular in-class discussions and group exercises are used for students to critique the readings, lectures, videos and data presented on rates of incidence and prevalence of violence. These small group activities and individually written assignments, in class and through outside assignments, also enable students to examine their own attitudes, and cultural and family beliefs about abusive relationships. The focus of the in-class discussions is on engaging in dialogue about critical issues and developing practical, creative and effective community and justice system responses for preventing and intervening in violence that are respectful of diverse perspectives and achieves greater justice and equality.

Warning: The material covered in class is not hypothetical and reflects experiences shared by many individuals including individuals enrolled in the course. It is not unusual for students to have experienced some of the abuses discussed. These personal associations may bring up strong feelings for students. If you feel the material is bringing up issues for you that are affecting your ability to be successful in the course, please take advantage of the University counseling center and/or see the instructor.

http://www.sjsu.edu/counseling/Personal_Counseling/index.htm

Due to the nature of the course, the instructor asks that students not bring children to class. The topics and audio-visuals used in class are not intended for children.

Justice Studies Reading and Writing Philosophy

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

JS Writing Standards

All submitted written assignments must adhere to the Department of Justice Studies writing standards:

1. Conformity to the American Psychological Association standards for scholarly writing. Minimum standards include:
   a. Consistent use of complete sentences;
   b. Correct use of grammatical constructions, punctuation, sequencing (paragraphing), referencing, hyphenation, spelling, headings, capitalizations, pagination, abbreviations, margins;
   c. Appropriate content, clarity, conciseness, and style;
   d. Neat appearance

2. 20% of the grade of each written assignment will be based solely on writing.

3. Each written assignment must contain no more than 5 novel grammatical errors and/or 5 novel APA errors (e.g., reference citation in text, reference list).

4. When a paper is submitted that does not meet departmental standards, it will be returned (ungraded) to the student(s) for revision. The student(s) will have 7 calendar days to revise and re-submit the paper.

5. Any paper that is returned to the student(s) for revisions will have an automatic 10% deduction in the total grade of the assignment.

6. Upon resubmission, if a paper still does not meet departmental standards, the student(s) will be given a “0” for the written portion of the total paper grade and will be graded only for required content.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbooks

3. Additional articles will be posted on the course calendar. Additional Links and/or citations will be made available for additional required reading on D2L.

Classroom Protocol & Decorum

The classroom is a place to learn. If you are not able to focus on learning for any reason, please remove yourself. Talking, eating and side comments disrupt the learning environment and cannot be tolerated.

Given the significant amount of material presented in this class, the complexity and sensitive nature of these topics, students are expected to actively participate in their learning and the collective exploration of topics. To this end, students are expected to attend class (attendance is taken); come to class prepared to participate by completing reading and other assignments; reflect on material and produce thoughtful integration of the concepts through reflection journals and papers.

Laptops are not required. If students choose to use laptops, they must use them responsibly. Students using laptops for purposes not consistent with the learning requirements of that day will be asked to shutdown the computer. Use of laptops is distracting to instructors and students when not used for class work. Please be respectful. If students are unable to comply with use of laptops to enhance learning of class material, computers will be banned from instruction time. Laptops are not to be used during guest lectures, unless specifically requested. Use of cell phones and other electronics are prohibited during class.

Course Add/Drop Statement
Instructors are permitted to drop students who fail to attend the first scheduled class meeting and who fail to inform the instructor prior to the second class meeting of the reason for any absence and their intention to continue in the class. Some instructors will drop students who do not meet the stated course prerequisites. However, instructors are not required to drop a student from their course. It is the student’s responsibility to make sure classes are dropped.

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page located at http://www.sjsu.edu/academic_programs/calendars/academic_calendar/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Course Requirements and Grading:
A grading scale is included to reflect the academic standards for each grade. Grades are based on student performance on papers, quizzes, reflection papers, and exams.

Papers (40%)
Papers make up 40% of the student’s grade. Two take-home written assignments are required during the semester. Each assignment involves library research, analysis of assigned topic, integration of information covered in the course culminating in a well-written, six to eight page paper.

All papers must be submitted to D2L in the designated dropbox folder and a hard copy submitted to the instructor for grading on or before the due date. Please note the due date. Late papers will be docked 4 points for the first day late and 1 point for each day after (including weekends and holidays). Papers more than two weeks late will not be accepted without prior approval. Each paper will make up 20% of the student’s grade. Papers are graded on a 50 point rubric (provided).

Both papers require literature review and proper APA format and citation. Students are expected to be able to write at an upper division level. Students are strongly encouraged to use the writing center on campus if they feel that their writing ability and/or understanding of APA style may impact their performance on these papers. Appointments should be made in advance to allow enough time to make recommended changes.

ASSIGNMENT No 1: Child Maltreatment
Full assignment and grading rubric will be provided on D2L.

The first paper requires students to read “Somebody Else’s Children” and write a 6-8 page paper using the story as a case study. Assignment details will be provided on D2L and discussed briefly in class in week 2. Students are required to discuss and apply the concepts of child maltreatment and response to child maltreatment using the book as a case example. This is not a book review, rather a case analysis used to illustrate concepts presented in class. See assignment page for details.

ASSIGNMENT No 2: Intimate Partner Violence
Full assignment and grading rubric will be provided on D2L.

The second paper requires researching a special topic or current controversy in family violence. See assignment details available online after the midterm.

Exams (50%)
A mid-term and a final exam will be given and will consist of 50 multiple choice and true/false objective questions and up to six short answer/essay questions reflecting the course objectives. Exams will cover content from assigned readings and lecture material. Each exam will make up 25% of the student’s grade. Students are required to bring a scantron and bluebook to exams. Bluebooks will be collected prior to the exam and redistributed. Do not put your name on the booklet.

Participation (10%)

Students will participate in several small-group discussions (during class time) on social issues and may be required to give brief oral reports to the class as part of a group exercise. Writing exercises will also be required as a reflection journal of in-class writings that further develop class material and discussions. Two in-class quizzes and reflections have already been scheduled. Other in-class participation activities will be added as needed to facilitate learning.

Reflection Journal (Participation)

Reflection journals are used to facilitate integration of concepts presented in class. This forum allows students to explore the material based on their own experience and promotes active learning. The journals allow personal reflection on the material and will be handled respectfully and confidentially. Grades are based on the students’ thoughtfulness and integration of course concepts.

Two reflections will be take-home assignments and at least two reflections will be completed in class and submitted before leaving. Take-home reflections will be turned-in the following class and uploaded on D2L. In the case of in-class writings, no additional submission to D2L will be required.

Quizzes (Participation)

There will be two in-class quizzes this semester. See the course schedule for specific dates. Quizzes are intended to help students stay current with course material and provide feedback between exams. Quizzes will be based on assigned reading covered to date and class material. Answers to the quizzes will be reviewed in class immediately following the quiz. Grades on quizzes will be included in student’s participation grade and posted in gradebook on D2L.

Participation counts as 10% of student’s final grade.

Make-up Exams & Late Papers

In accord with departmental policy, make-up exams and acceptance of late papers after the due date will be provided only in extreme cases and only when appropriate documentation is provided. Approved make-ups for exams will be held on the make-up day of finals week. (See schedule for assigned make-up day.)

- In general, grades should be distributed following a normal curve
- All JS courses require a “C” or better for passing.

University Policies
Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, withdrawal, etc. found at: http://sa.sjsu.edu/student_conduct

Academic Integrity
Academic integrity is essential to the mission of San José State University. As such, students are expected to perform their own work (except when collaboration is expressly permitted by the course instructor) without the use of any outside resources. Students are not permitted to use old tests, quizzes when preparing for exams, nor may they consult with students who have already taken the exam. When practiced, academic integrity ensures that all students are fairly graded. Violations to the Academic Integrity Policy undermine the educational process and will not be tolerated. It also demonstrates a lack of respect for oneself, fellow students and the course instructor and can ruin the university’s reputation and the value of the degrees it offers. We all share the obligation to maintain an environment which practices academic integrity. Violators of the Academic Integrity Policy will be subject to failing this course and being reported to the Office of Student Conduct & Ethical Development for disciplinary action which could result in suspension or expulsion from San José State University. The policy on academic integrity can be found at: http://sa.sjsu.edu/student_conduct

To better understand plagiarism and to aid you in making sure that you are not plagiarizing, please visit: http://tutorials.sjlibrary.org/plagiarism/index.htm
Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University’s Academic Integrity policy, located at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sa.sjsu.edu/judicial_affairs/index.html.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Justice Studies Department Policy: Any incident of cheating and/or plagiarism must be reported to the Department Chair. The Department Chair will meet and discuss the situation with the student, meet with the faculty member, and decide if action from the department is required. Some level of action will be taken. The faculty member has the discretion to determine the level of response: failing the test or assignment, failing the class, and/or reporting to the Office of Student Conduct & Ethical Development per University policy.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act
If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) at http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/ to establish a record of their disability.

Student Learning Resources
Students come with a range of competencies and skills. SJSU is committed to helping students succeed. Resources have been made available to help students build competencies and proficiencies to meet course requirements. Please note due dates and course requirements and take advantage of available resources.

Student Technology Resources
Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library.

A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include digital and VHS camcorders, VHS and Beta video players, 16 mm, slide, overhead, DVD, CD, and audiotape players, sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

Learning Assistance Resource Center
The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) is located in Room 600 in the Student Services Center. It is designed to assist students in the development of their full academic potential and to inspire them to become independent learners. The Center's tutors are trained and nationally certified by the College Reading and Learning Association (CRLA). They provide content-based tutoring in many lower division courses (some upper division) as well as writing and study skills assistance. Small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring are available. Please visit the LARC website for more information at http://www.sjsu.edu/larc/.

SJSU Writing Center
The SJSU Writing Center is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. Our writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. The Writing Center website is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about/staff/.

Peer Mentor Center
The Peer Mentor Center is located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall in the Academic Success Center. The Peer Mentor Center is staffed with Peer Mentors who excel in helping students manage university life, tackling problems that range from academic challenges to interpersonal struggles. On the road to graduation, Peer Mentors are navigators, offering “roadside assistance” to peers who feel a bit lost or simply need help mapping out the locations of campus resources. Peer Mentor services are free and available on a drop-in basis, no reservation required. The Peer Mentor Center website is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/muse/peermentor/.

Student Success Center
The Student Success Center in the College of Applied Sciences and Arts (CASA) provides advising for undergraduate students majoring or wanting to major in programs offered in CASA Departments and Schools. All CASA students and students who would like to be in CASA are invited to stop by the Center for general education advising, help with changing majors, academic policy related questions, meeting with peer advisors, and/or attending various regularly scheduled presentations and workshops. It’s also a great place to study, and you can check out laptops. http://www.sjsu.edu/casa/ssc/
