COURSE DESCRIPTION
Identification of contemporary areas in justice related to theory, empirical research, and policy analysis, leading to comprehensive examinations.
Prerequisite: 21 units in residency, instructor consent and classified graduate standing. Students must have a cumulative ‘B’ average (3.0) in the following courses: JS 201, JS 202, JS 203, and JS 204. Course cannot be repeated.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
This advanced seminar offers a critical analysis of the punitive turn that has swept American society in the aftermath of the civil rights revolution, with particular reference to the growing convergence of penal and social policies toward a paradigm of punitive governance of racialized poverty. Adopting an interdisciplinary approach that combines critical scholarship on political economy, welfare, and penal politics, the course will analyze the “severity revolution” of the 1970s as the emergence of a neoliberal model of social regulation built along three distinct coordinates: (1) the restructuring of class power in the era of postindustrial capitalism; (2) the reproduction of racial control in the age of colorblindness; (3) the remaking of state sovereignty in the age of “small government.” Throughout the semester, seminar participants will read, analyze, and discuss different theoretical and empirical perspectives on these issues; students will also engage in theoretically grounded critiques of specific policy developments, legislative measures, and institutional changes in the fields of social and penal policy.
STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

SLO#1: Engage in theoretically grounded scholarly critiques of specific policy developments
[RELEVANT ASSIGNMENT: IN-CLASS TESTS/RESEARCH PAPER]

SLO #2: Critically assess legislative measures dealing with punishment
[RELEVANT ASSIGNMENT: IN-CLASS TESTS/RESEARCH PAPER]

SLO#3: Understand and competently discuss institutional changes in the field of American penal politics
[RELEVANT ASSIGNMENT: IN-CLASS PRESENTATIONS]

CLASSROOM PROTOCOL
Attendance: According to University policy F69-24 “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading”. Attendance is taken at each class meeting using sign-in sheets.
Etiquette: While in class please turn your cell phone off. If your laptop has wireless access you may use it to access information relevant to the discussion, but please do not read emails, newspapers or other non-class related material during class. Students are encouraged to speak up with questions and comments, and to respond to points raised by other students. However, the maintenance of an effective discussion space in class requires all of us to act with respect for everyone else in the room.

DROPPING AND ADDING
Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, etc. Information on add/drops are available at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/soc-fall/rec-298.html. Information about late drop is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/sac/advising/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for adding and dropping classes.

Specifications on Coursework

1) In-class Presentations/Debate (max 20 points / 20% of total grade)
   Each week, participants will offer an in-class presentation based on the readings assigned for that week. Depending on the total number of participants, presentations will be given individually or in couples (the calendar of presentations will be available by the second week of class). In their presentations students should not simply summarize the reading, but elaborate some meaningful critique of its arguments, and present at least three issues/questions to be debated in class. At the end of each presentation there will be a debate, moderated by the instructor.

2-3) In-class Tests (max 40 points / 40% of total grade)
   These tests will be done in class, and will consist of 2 short-answer questions about any of the topics/readings discussed in class. Each question will receive a grade ranging between 0 and 10 (for a maximum of 40 points). You are kindly requested to come to class with your own blue-book on the dates the test are due (3/11/2013 and 5/6/2013).
   Please Note: during the tests no notes, books, or laptops will be allowed. Dictionaries welcome.

4) Research Paper (max 40 points / 40% of total grade)
   Students are required to write a 10-12 pages long (computer typed, double spaced) research paper on a subject of their choice among the topics listed under the “Research Paper Topics” section (see above). In the paper, students are asked to explore a specific issue making use of at least 10 scholarly sources (i.e., articles from peer reviewed journals, or academic books). Papers must be written in APA style.
   The evaluation and grading of the research papers will be based on the following:
   - Originality (relating ideas to issues; reflexivity and critique, etc.)
   - Comprehension (use of concepts; knowledge of theoretical perspectives, etc.)
   - Structure (presentation of ideas, appropriate use of sources; internal consistency, etc.)
   - Clarity (proof-reading; correct use of APA format, etc.)

   Please Note: In order to get credit for this assignment, students are requested to follow the timeline specified in the “Course Schedule” (see below).
   The research paper is due on 5/13/2013, and should be submitted electronically.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Students should know that the University’s Academic Integrity Policy is available at: http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/docs/Student_Conduct_Code.pdf.
Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The website for Student Conduct and Ethical Development is available at: http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/. Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

CAMPUS POLICY IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE AMERICAN DISABILITIES ACT
If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the DRC (Disability Resource Center) to establish a record of their disability.
