COURSE DESCRIPTION
Examines classic and contemporary theories of justice, including legal, social, economic and criminal justice and their application to current social issues. JS-201 is a 3-units course.
Please note: required courses in the graduate program (JS-201; JS-202; JS-203; JS-204; JS-207) must be completed with a grade point average of 3.0 (“B”) or better.

COURSE OVERVIEW
This seminar provides a critical reconstruction of some recent transformations of punishment and social control in the United States. Since the mid-1970s, a long cycle of “domestic wars”
(i.e., war on drugs, war on crime, war on welfare, war on immigration) has reshaped north-American society, turning the United States into one of the world’s most punitive countries.
Furthermore, this “punitive turn”—exemplified by mass-incarceration, draconian drug-laws, the resurgence of the death penalty, harsh anti-immigration laws, and increasingly punitive welfare policies—has contributed to deepen social inequality along the lines of race, class, and gender.
The seminar will analyze these developments from a broad range of scholarly perspectives and methodological approaches within the field of punishment & society studies. Throughout the seminar students will thus be exposed to theoretical critiques of the US penal field, as well as to ethnographic and documentary narratives of the “underworlds” targeted by the new punitiveness.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
The main objective of this seminar is to help students develop a scholarly grounded critical understanding of the inner contradictions of punitive penal policies in the United States. In order to achieve this objective, students will be encouraged to observe the consequences of the American punitive turn particularly from the point of view of the communities and social groups most affected by the new punitiveness. This is an interactive seminar based on intensive reading and discussion. Although the instructor will introduce and illustrate the main issues and topics in order to facilitate the debate, the success of this learning experience is heavily dependent on the students’ active participation to the seminar. Therefore, all participants should come to class having done the assigned readings—a necessary condition for a productive and meaningful participation.
STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

SLO#1: Identify, distinguish, and analyze the various types of theories introduced in class.
[RELEVANT ASSIGNMENT: IN-CLASS TEST]

SLO#4 Complete a research paper that applies theoretical concepts, analyzes current literature that relates to the topic, applies current APA citation formats, and offers directions for future research based on a comprehensive understanding of the research topic.
[RELEVANT ASSIGNMENT: REVIEW ESSAY]

SLO#5 Students should read, write, and contribute to discussion at a skilled and capable level.
[RELEVANT ASSIGNMENT: IN-CLASS TEST/REVIEW ESSAY/IN-CLASS PRESENTATION]

CLASSROOM PROTOCOL
Attendance: According to University policy F69-24 “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading”. Attendance is taken at each class meeting using sign-in sheets.
Etiquette: While in class please turn your cell phone off. If your laptop has wireless access you may use it to access information relevant to the discussion, but please do not read emails, newspapers or other non-class related material during class. Students are encouraged to speak up with questions and comments, and to respond to points raised by other students. However, the maintenance of an effective discussion space in class requires all of us to act with respect for everyone else in the room.

SPECIFICATIONS ON COURSEWORK

1) IN-CLASS PRESENTATIONS/DEBATE (max 20 points / 20% of total grade)
Each week, one participant will give a 25-30 min. presentation in class, based on the relevant reading for that week. Depending on the total number of participants, presentations will be given individually or in couples (the calendar of presentations will be made available by the second week of class). In their presentations, students are required to summarize the reading, but also to elaborate some meaningful critique of its arguments, and to introduce a minimum of three questions to be debated in class. At the end of each presentation there will be a debate moderated by the instructor. Students will be graded both on their presentations and on their contribution to the ensuing debate.

2) IN-CLASS TEST (max 30 points / 30% of total grade)
This test will be done in class, and will consist of 3 questions about any of the topics/readings discussed in class. Each question will receive a grade ranging between 0 and 10 (for a maximum of 30 points). You are kindly requested to come to class with your own bluebook on the date the test is due (10/20/2014).

PLEASE NOTE: during the tests no notes, books, or laptops will be allowed. If the test is missed due to family/health/work problems, there is the possibility of a makeup test only for those students who adequately certify the reasons for their absence (e.g. doctor’s certificate, employer’s statement, etc.).

3) REVIEW ESSAY (max 30 points / 30% of total grade):
In order to complete this assignment, students will have to write an 8-10 pages-long review essay on two books of their choice among the ones listed under the section “BOOKS AVAILABLE FOR REVIEW” (see above). Students are strongly encouraged to discuss their choice of books with the instructor. In order to be accepted, the review essay should include the following:

a) INTRODUCTION describing the topic(s) of the books and its relevance;

b) ANALYSIS of the main arguments of the books, and of their contribution to scholarly debate;

c) CRITIQUE, considering such elements as clarity/originality/coherence/argumentation;

Further guidelines about the review essay will be provided in class. The deadline for submitting this assignment is 11/24/2014.

PLEASE NOTE: The review essay should be submitted electronically (as a MS Word attachment).

4) MOVIE COMMENTARY (max 20 points / 20% of total grade):
This will be done at home. Students will write a 5-pages long, double spaced commentary on one of the movies/documentaries watched in class. In their commentary, students are requested to make use of at least three readings discussed in class. The deadline for submitting this assignment is 12/8/2014.

PLEASE NOTE: The movie commentary should be submitted electronically (as a MS Word attachment).

Students should know that the University’s Academic Integrity Policy is available at http://www.sa.sjsu.edu/download/judicial_affairs/Academic_Integrity_Policy_S07-2.pdf.

Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.
