Pre/Co-Requisites
None.

Course Catalog Description
The course presents historical and modern perspectives of the theories and structures of law, and provides an overview of the economic and sociological challenges to law making. This course also examines the nexus between law, social change, and dispute resolution.

Required Texts/Readings

Readings:
This course does not have a designated textbook. E-readings will be available on Canvas and via the Online Syllabus on Google Drive (through your @sjsu.edu email account).

Justice Studies Credit
To be accepted for credit towards a degree in Justice Studies, a grade of “C” or better in this course is required.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

SLO 1 - Demonstrate a general understanding of the fundamental influences society has on the law.
SLO 2 - Demonstrate knowledge of legislative, administrative and judicial law making, as well as a general understanding of the law making processes.

SLO 3 - Develop an understanding of methods for analyzing the legal and social controls and dispute resolution.

SLO 4 - Understand the various aspects of the legal profession and methods for legal research.

SLO 5 - Students should read, write, and contribute to discussion at a skilled and capable level.

Justice Studies Reading and Writing Philosophy
The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

Classroom Protocol
1. This course depends on participation and interaction. Students are expected to be on time to class out of respect for your colleagues and instructor.
2. All classroom participants are expected to foster an environment that encourages participation, rather than silencing others (be respectful to one another, do not insult or intimidate others, and so forth).
3. Students are expected to complete all readings and assignments by the dates indicated on the syllabus.
4. Readings about legal studies may involve discussions of violence, injustice, discrimination, which may be challenging intellectually, personally, and emotionally. All students are encouraged to engage in self-care. This means that if particular topics or course materials raise emotional or other personal issues, you can simply choose not to speak or to leave the room without being questioned or penalized. Should you have any questions or concerns, free to contact the professor in person or anonymously (e.g., a note slipped under Dr. Kinney’s office door of 525B MacQuarrie Hall).
5. Students are responsible for any and all notes and materials missed in their absence.
6. Please turn off all cell phones, pagers, PDA’s or any other electronic device. The use of anything that beeps or vibrates during class is disruptive and will not be tolerated. If you are caught using a telephone (even silently, e.g. texting), you will be asked to leave the classroom. Computers may be used for e-readings and class activities, but you will be “on call” to answer questions about the readings if your computer is open.
7. Students may not use recording devices without the written permission of the instructor.
Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, etc.
https://slisweb.sjsu.edu/current-students/registration-and-enrollment/adding-and-dropping-classes

Students should be aware of the current deadlines for dropping and adding classes.
http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/docs/1314aycalendar.pdf

Assignments and Grading Policy

Readings

Students are expected to complete readings before the class session indicated on the course schedule. Students should come to class prepared to discuss the assigned readings such that class time is not wasted, and we can engage the material together. Though readings are not a graded assignment per se, the final and midterm exams will certainly focus on students’ ability to recall, understand, and integrate readings in their responses. Substantively, the readings in this course are designed to expose students to international and domestic tensions and perspectives on how fundamental rights and dignity for human and non-human animals might be defined and realized. Readings are intentionally designed to represent the culturally and politically diverse field from which discussions of fundamental rights and dignity emerge.

Assignments & Grading

Grading: Writing assignments will be graded on a 100-point scale and evaluated on content, clarity, and thoroughness. See Canvas for a detailed rubric and writing resources. Students must submit all assignments online at the Canvas website and submit a paper copy in class.

Examination and Evaluation: A student’s final evaluation shall consist of one midterm examination, Posts to Canvas Discussions, a Case Brief, a Legal Research Assignment, and a final examination. Each assignment/exam shall consist of 100 points and weighted as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade Item</th>
<th>Weight</th>

<tr>
<td>Midterm Examination (SLO’s 1-3, 5)</td>

<td>5%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final Examination</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Examinations consist of multiple choice, short answer and essay questions derived from the reading assignments, online activities, and class lecture. Missed exams or assignments may only be made-up with proper documentation of illness, incapacity and/or prior and valid notification and reason for absence.
Optional Extra Credit
Students will periodically have the opportunity to complete extra credit by attending lectures or presentations related to human rights. Opportunities will be announced in class and via email; students must write a 1-page reflection paper to receive credit for attending, viewing or participating in such events. Students can receive up to five percentage points extra credit on their final grade (e.g., to offset lower grades on the midterm). Assignments can be turned in to the instructor any time before the last day of instruction.

+/- Grading: This course will be using the +/- system on final grades based on the following percentages:

- 98-100: A+
- 94-97: A
- 90-93: A-
- 87-89: B+

Required University Policies Statements

Academic Integrity:
www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/docs/Academic_Integrity_Policy_S07-2.pdf
Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development.

The University will not tolerate instances of academic dishonesty. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. Students must complete all assignments unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that the SJSU Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:
“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s written/emailed permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.

“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act: If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case of building evacuation, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the AEC (Accessible Education Center) to establish a record of their disability. For more information call their office at 408-924-6000 (v) or 408-924-5990 (TTY).

Accommodation to Students’ Religious Holidays: San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed. See University Policy S14-7 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S14-7.pdf.

Expectations of Students’ Effort: “Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of forty-five hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”
