Justice Studies Department Reading and Writing Philosophy

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

Course Description

Description
Examination of terrorist organizations and activities, definitions of terrorism, and social and political consequences of terrorism. Includes policy responses to terrorism, including roles of intelligence and security agencies, and impacts on law, rights and liberties. Prerequisite: Upper division standing. Note: A grade of "C" or better is required for Justice Studies majors.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Objectives - Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1) Distinguish terrorism from other types of political violence;
2) Identify different theoretical and analytical approaches to the subject;
3) List the core characteristics of various extremist political and religious ideologies that have served to motivate terrorists;
4) Identify the world’s major terrorist organizations in each ideological category;
5) Explain different responses to terrorism and approaches to counterterrorism;
6) Recognize present and future security threats posed by terrorist groups to the U.S., other countries, and the international community

In short, in this course you will be expected to master important basic information about the phenomenon of terrorism.

This will be a lecture oriented course with discussion, feedback and expected participation by students. Attendance is vital since there will be pop quizzes and in-class writing assignments. There will also be guest speakers whose background, training and experience will add to the content of the course.
NOTE that University policy F69-24 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F69-24.pdf states that “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

Course Requirements
SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Each student will complete a two page typed (double spaced) paper discussing the area of the criminal justice system that most interests you and what your future goals in the justice field are. This paper must include one or two lines stating that you have reviewed and understand the academic integrity policy of the University. http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/Students/ This paper must be submitted no later than February 8, 2016.

Group Research Papers  (Learning Objectives 2,3,5,6 )
Students will be randomly assigned to groups and assigned to research one of the Foreign Terrorist organizations listed on the U.S. State Departments website http://www.state.gov/j/ct/rls/other/des/123085.htm. Students will review and research the organizations structure and complete a threat assessment utilizing the Homeland Security Threat and Hazard Identification and Risk Assessment Guide. Papers will be a minimum of 10 pages, type written, double spaced and annotated in the APA format. Groups will present a 15 – 20 minute simulated threat assessment briefing before the class on Monday April 11, 2016 and Wednesday April 13, 2016. Audio visual aids for the group presentation must be submitted by April 4, 2016.

Individual Presentation (Learning Objective 3)
Each student will make one presentation providing an overview of a cultural, ethnic or religious celebration, practice or ritual that would further your understanding of a diverse community. A 5-10 minute oral presentation with visual aids will be given in class for the instructor and other students. Visual aids must be visible to all students seated in the classroom. A one page outline of your presentation is to be provided for the instructor at the time of your presentation. You must select a presentation date by signing up in class prior to March 7, 2016.

Discussion Topics  (Learning Objectives 1-5)
Four discussion topics concerning current affairs will be presented during the semester. Students will be required to review selected articles and respond to the topic at hand participating in the discussion with others in the class. Response must be comprehensive, provide supporting sources for your comments and cannot be completed in one or two sentences.
Quizzes and Exams (Learning Objectives 1-5)
Quizzes will be given during the course and assigned after the relevant material has been covered in class. Quizzes may also include material presented in videos shown during class and/or information provided by guest speakers. You will be advised of the quizzes and exam dates.

Chapter Exams/Final Exam (Learning Objectives 1-5)
The Book Chapter Exams and Final exam will cover material presented prior to each exam including chapter reading assignments, lectures, videos, handouts, and information provided by guest speakers. The final exam is not comprehensive and will cover only the listed chapters and material presented after the Section 2 exam. Your best study guides will be in class notes and chapter quizzes. Exams may be a combination of short answer, multiple choice and/or true/false questions.

The final exam for this course has been scheduled for May 19, 2016, 9:45AM to 12:00PM.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

Late Papers or Missed Quizzes/Assignments The criminal justice system is driven by a number of deadlines for the submission of paperwork, filing of charges, etc. Being able to meet and adhere to these timelines is an important part of working within the justice system. With this in mind, late papers will not be accepted nor will missed assignments be allowed to be made up without documentation/verification of an unexpected medical emergency or a death in the immediate family. Submission due dates are listed for each assignment. Please make sure your work is completed and submitted on time. All papers must be submitted in doc. docx. rtf. pdf. or odt. format. No other formats will be accepted. WORD IS ACCEPTABLE

Extra Credit Extra credit points are normally not provided for this course. On occasion a university or community program will present a unique learning opportunity for which attendance or participation will warrant extra credit points. If such an opportunity occurs, the entire class will be provided the information concerning the event and the number of points available at the instructor’s discretion. Students will be graded strictly on the points available during the semester.

Grading Policy
Letter grades will be based on points earned from quizzes, exams, and presentations.

Class quizzes - 80 points (20 Points each)
Mid-Term and Final Exam - 80 points (40 points each)
Individual Class Presentation - 10 points
Group Presentations - 30 points
180-200 = A
160-179 = B
140-159 = C
120-139 = D
Below 120 = F

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.

Classroom Protocol

Students are expected to behave in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. The university’s Academic Integrity Policy requires students to be honest in all academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. A few students get into trouble because they are unaware of what constitutes academic misconduct. Academic misconduct includes cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, interference (e.g., stealing another student’s work), violating course rules, and facilitating academic dishonesty. Academic misconduct could result in failure for an assignment (typically a grade of zero) or for the course or even in expulsion from the university. The academic integrity policy can be found at: http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct . I will not tolerate academic misconduct.

Classroom etiquette requires consideration of other students and the instructor. Arriving late, leaving early, cell phone interruptions cannot contribute to a learning environment. Spirited discussion however is always welcome.

Peer Mentor Center
The Peer Mentor Center is located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall in the Academic Success Center. The Peer Mentor Center is staffed with Peer Mentors who excel in helping students manage university life, tackling problems that range from academic challenges to interpersonal struggles. On the road to graduation, Peer Mentors are navigators, offering “roadside assistance” to peers who feel a bit lost or simply need help mapping out the locations of campus resources. Peer Mentor services are free and available on a drop-in basis, no reservation required. Website of Peer Mentor Center is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/eop/

CASA Student Success Center
The Student Success Center in the College of Applied Sciences and Arts (CASA) provides advising for undergraduate students majoring or wanting to major in programs offered in CASA Departments and Schools. All CASA students and students who would like to be in CASA are invited to stop by the Center for general education advising, help with changing majors, academic policy related questions, meeting with peer advisors, and/or attending various regularly scheduled presentations and workshops. Looking for academic advice or maybe just some tips about how to navigate your way around SJSU? Check out the CASA Student Success Center! It’s also a great place to study, and you can check out laptops.
Location: MacQuarrie Hall (MH) 533 - top floor of MacQuarrie Hall. Contact information: 408.924.2910.

Student Technology Resources
Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college.

Martin Luther King Library.
A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include digital and VHS camcorders, VHS and Beta video players, 16 mm, slide, overhead, DVD, CD, and audiotape players, sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

Learning Assistance Resource Center
The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) is located in Room 600 in the Student Services Center. It is designed to assist students in the development of their full academic potential and to motivate them to become self-directed learners. The center provides support services, such as skills assessment, individual or group tutorials, subject advising, learning assistance, summer academic preparation and basic skills development. The LARC website is located at http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu/

SJSU Writing Center
The SJSU Writing Center is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. Our writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. The Writing Center website is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about/staff//.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

• “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at http://www.sjsu.edu/aec to establish a record of their disability.

Accommodation to Students' Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed. See University Policy S14-7.

SJSU Counseling Services

The SJSU Counseling Services is located on the corner of 7th Street and San Fernando Street, in Room 201, Administration Building. Professional psychologists, social workers, and counselors are available to provide consultations on issues of student mental health, campus climate or psychological and academic issues on an individual, couple, or group basis. To schedule an appointment or learn more information, visit Counseling Services website.
