Justice Studies Department Reading and Writing Philosophy

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

Course Description

This course will engage the student in an analysis of the theory and practice of managing justice system agencies, including organizational change and contemporary issues. An in-depth examination of ethical challenges in managing justice agencies and strategies for ensuring ethical practices will also be explored. Students will become more informed critics and analysts of justice management. Prerequisites: Upper Division Standing; JS 10, 11, 12, or 25; 100w; Note: Must achieve a grade of "C" or better (not C-) to fulfill Justice Studies major requirements. 3 Units.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CLO 1: Demonstrate substantive knowledge about the service quality approach to justice management throughout the criminal justice system.
CLO 2: Demonstrate the ability to objectively and critically analyze the pros and cons of traditional closed-systems versus open-systems, including organizational changes and development.

CLO 3: Demonstrate a thorough understanding of the constraints placed on the field of criminal justice, and how they relate to and impact decisions made by line staff and managers.

CLO 4: Students should read, write, and contribute to discussion at a skilled and capable level.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Projects

Midterm and Final Projects will require students to conduct independent research, craft two thesis papers, and make one in-class presentation specific to their conclusions regarding contemporary ethical issues and challenges inherent to the effective management of justice-related agencies in the United States, to be explained extensively in class and due as reflected below. Reliable sources for all assertions should be cited in the American Psychological Association (APA) format. (CLO 1, 2, 3 & 4)
