Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

Daly, Erin ;Sarkin, Jeremy,  Reconciliation in Divided Societies: Finding Common Ground

Online, ebook on Libraryone.

Magerrell, Lisa: Wesley, Joya , Learning From Greensboro, Truth and reconciliation in the United States

On Amazon, Abe Books.

Other Readings

Will be assigned on Canvas.

Course Requirements and Assignments

1. Students will take several individual and group multiple-choice quizzes. Quizzes will be based on readings, videos and lectures. Students will complete quizzes individually and then debate answers in a group before retaking the same quiz as a group. If questions seem unfair, or poorly conceived, students may appeal to the professor to have the question tossed out.

2. Class participation will be graded and will be based upon group debates and your participation in class. Everyone will be called upon to answer questions and students will be graded on the quality of their answers (Socratic method).

3. Students will form debate groups and discussion both parts of a human rights and justice issue. Debate competence will be graded. Extra will be awarded to the group that wins the debate.

4. The final will consist of a multiple-choice exam based on lectures and films. The final will also include a paper and presentation on human rights atrocity somewhere in the world and how truth and reconciliation could solve the issue. You will present the atrocity and your solution to the problem in class before your final. The final will be graded on effort and mastery of your project.

5. Extra credit will be awarded in debate exercises.

Grading Information

A student’s final grade is based on completion of several assignments and activities, including written assignments, in-class discussion and presentation, and online activities. Evaluation shall consist of Canvas assignments, creative project, class presentation, flyer project midterm Exam , final Exam and participation in class. Examinations consist of multiple choice questions derived from the reading assignments, group discussions and lectures.

Classroom etiquette: No electronic device use is allowed. Please take notes on paper, which has proven to increase retention of material. Use of cell phones or other devices will result in a reduction of your grades. Please tell friends and family that you will be unavailable via text or call during class time. Repeated lateness will also result in grade reduction.

University Policies
Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo

Justice Studies Reading and Writing Philosophy: The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

University Policies Per University Policy S16-9: University-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/” Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability (e.g. additional time on the quizzes), please contact me as soon as possible. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the SJSU Accessible Education Center (AEC) to establish a record of their disability. You will need to email me a copy of your AEC form so that I can provide you with the appropriate accommodations. Academic Integrity Students should know that the University’s Code of Student Conduct which can be found at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/docs/Student%20Conduct%20Code%202013.pdf. Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The website for Student Conduct and Ethical Development is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.

PLEASE NOTE: Justice Studies Students have only two opportunities to pass JS 132 with a C or better. Any student with a final grade that is C- or lower on the first attempt will be placed on administrative probation with a registration hold. Any repeating student with a final grade that is C- or lower will be disqualified from the Justice Studies degree program.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.
