Justice Studies Department Reading and Writing Philosophy

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

Course Description

Introduction to quantitative research methods used in Justice Studies. Includes relationship of theory to empirical evidence; logic underlying methods of inquiry; ethics in conducting empirical research; and methodological design, operationalization, and data analysis.

Note: Must achieve a grade of "C" or better to fulfill Justice Studies major requirements.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

In-Class Assignments

There will be a number of in-class exercises designed to help students clarify and retain important aspects of lectures, complimentary to homework assignments. Students will receive credit for participating in this portion of class, receiving full credit for completed work. There will be 24 such In-Class Assignments, worth 1 point each, totaling 24 points.

These assignments will be on paper and only handed out and turned back in during class. Absent students may make up a maximum of seven missed In-Class Assignments.

Homework Assignments

There will be 7 Homework Assignments to help reinforce what has been covered in readings and lectures. These will be due via CANVAS before class. Please also be sure to bring a copy of your homework to the class session it is due on, as we will typically be going over them in class as well. These will be graded for accuracy, though partial credit will be awarded for answers that are close. These are worth 2 points each. The lowest Homework grade will be dropped so that the Homework score totals 12 points.

Quizzes

To measure your understanding of research and research methods covered in this course more broadly, there will be three quizzes. They will be multiple-choice and short-answer. They will each be worth 8 points, totaling 24 points.

Research Paper Checkpoints

To help students prepare for and develop their Final Research Paper, there will be four Research Paper Checkpoint Assignments:

RPC1 – Topic Development Paper

RPC2 – Literature Review Draft

RPC3 – Analyses and Results

RPC4 – Research Paper Draft

Each of these assignments are worth 5 points, totaling to 20 points. Late work will be accepted for a maximum of half credit within a week of the due date – then the assignment will be graded as per usual. If there are extenuating circumstances, please contact me ASAP.

Final Research Paper

This paper will be the culmination of many things students have learned over the whole course. It will include the following sections: introduction, literature review, sample, methodology, data analyses, results, and conclusions. It will be due at the end of the course and will be worth 20 Points.

Grading Policy

The course grade is based on the final score out of 100 possible points. Theoretically, it is possible for everyone to earn an A. Missing any deadline without submitting a medical or university excuse may result in a grade of zero for the item.

The grading scale is:

97 – 100 A+    92 – 96 A
89 – 91 A-    87 – 88 B+
82 – 86 B    79 – 81 B-
77 – 78 C+    72 – 76 C
69 – 71 C-    67 – 68 D+
62 – 66 D    59 – 61 D-
58 and below F

Grades are based on:

Homework	12 points
In-Class Assignments	24 points
Quizzes	24 points
Research Checkpoints	20 points
Final Research Paper	20 points
Total	100 points

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf> for more details.

Classroom Protocol

Instructor's Note on Communication

As you know, a university degree is a significant undertaking and requires a high level of commitment, time management, organization, and initiative. Thus, it is in your best interest to stay on top of the readings and keep in touch with the instructor. The best way to keep in touch is in-person during office hours, or at another time by appointment. If you cannot meet with me in person, I prefer that you email me. Emails will be mostly only responded to during business hours (Monday through Friday). When you send me an email please put “JS 114 Section 1” and your full name in the subject line. Emails without this will most likely be discarded without response.

Classroom Etiquette

Please try to avoid being late. It is understood that many have numerous other commitments, but students must also understand that they have enrolled in school aware of the demands of those commitments. Please make arrangements in order to arrive in time for class to begin promptly at the designated time. Please silence all cell phones, laptops, and any other electronic device. The use of anything that beeps or consistently vibrates during class is disruptive and then the instructor will need to ask that it be turned off, and then no one is happy. Please don't do rude things like texting or browsing the internet during class. That can be distracting to students behind you. Students are responsible for all missed notes, materials, and announcements due to absence (i.e., do not email the instructor asking about what you missed). Students are encouraged to exchange contact information with someone in class just in case you miss class.

University Policies

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

As members of the academic community, students accept both the rights and responsibilities incumbent upon all members of the institution. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU's policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90-5 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf>. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog, at <http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html>. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic\_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf>, requires students to obtain instructor's permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor's permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

-Audio and video recording of lectures is not allowed without written permission. In such cases, the class meetings to be recorded must be enumerated.

-Due to the active participation of students that may be on the recording, recording of the lecture must be precise to omit their participation, or permission of those students should be obtained as well.

-As a side-note, due to in-class assignments and the lecture slides being available on CANVAS, recording lectures will not likely be very helpful.

“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Academic integrity

Your commitment, as a student, to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf> requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

Presidential Directive 97-03 at

http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD\_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aec> to establish a record of their disability.

Accommodation to Students' Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed. See University Policy S14-7 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S14-7.pdf>.
