Themis seeks original research papers and book review submissions from SJSU undergraduate and graduate students. Students from any major may submit, but papers must be topically related to justice/injustice, human rights, criminal justice, criminology, law, law enforcement, philosophy of law, philosophy of the courtroom, neuroscience, or any of the forensic sciences. Selection for publication is competitive. Students may not submit more than two papers per volume. Paper length limited to 30 pages, including reference list. Use APA reference format for social science papers, or JFS format for science papers.  http://libguides.newhaven.edu/JFScitation
