Course Format

CANVAS Learning Management System

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on Canvas Learning Management System course login website at http://sjsu.instructure.com. You are responsible for regularly checking CANVAS.

Course Description

Advanced skills in writing. Generalized and specialized forms of writing. Development of advanced writing skills and creation or organized, persuasive and analytical prose. The course will involve generalized and specialized forms of writing. Students will be required to write critical reviews of published writings, a business letter, scholarly paper, equity/diversity paper, and abstract of a journal article. Oral presentations will also be required.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

Students will develop advanced proficiency in college-level writing and appropriate contemporary research strategies and methodologies to communicate effectively to both specialized and general audiences. Written Communication II should reinforce and advance the abilities developed in Written Communication IA and IB, and broaden and deepen these to include mastery of the discourse peculiar to the discipline in which the course is taught. Courses to meet Areas R, S, and V of SJSU Studies must be taken from three different departments or distinct academic units.

Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency. Students shall be able to:

(SLO 1). produce discipline-specific written work that demonstrates upper-division proficiency in: language use, grammar, clarity of expression

(SLO 2). explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse

(SLO 3). organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences

(SLO 4). organize and develop essays and documents according to appropriate editorial and citation standards

(SLO 5). locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and to communicate that purpose in writing
Objectives for SJSU Studies - Area Z:

Upon successful completion of KIN 100W, the student will be able to:

a. perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
b. express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.
c. use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.
d. write for different audiences (both specialized and general).
e. use (locate, analyze, and evaluate) supporting materials, including independent library research.
f. synthesize ideas encountered in multiple readings.
g. construct effective arguments.
h. express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse.
i. organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences, including appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of KIN 100W, the student will be able to:

a. write with brevity and precision of expression.
b. recognize and produce different styles and levels of writing.
c. write in business letter format.
d. prepare a resume and cover letter.
e. locate and effectively use appropriate resources.
f. write a cohesive expository response with correct grammar and punctuation.
g. write an abstract for a journal article.
h. critique a journal article.

Assignment and Test Specifics - Total class points class = 100.

a. Pre Topic Proposal (1%) & Topic Proposal (4%) (5% pts.)
This assignment should be 3-4 pages in length and address the following questions: 1) What is your research question? Is it problematic? 2) What is your personal relationship to this question? What drew you to this question? How will your relationship to it affect your research and writing process? 3) What is the larger significance of your topic? Who or what could benefit from your research? 5) How will your topic address/include multicultural perspectives? 6) What research sources will you use and where will you find them? Will you need to look outside of the MLK Library? Who, specifically, are the key experts you’ll need to cite?

Length: 2-4 pp. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, e, and f.

b. Annotated Bibliography (10% pts.)
Submit an annotated bibliography for 10 scholarly sources published within the past 10 years. At least 3 of these sources must illuminate multicultural considerations of your topic. Web sites are not acceptable unless they are online versions of print academic journals. It must also include 3-5 .gov or non-profit websites. For each source, include a correct APA reference citation. Under each reference citation, provide a paragraph of 5-8 sentences that: 1) summarizes the main argument of the source; 3) relays the implications of the research; 3) identifies the intended audience; 4) compares and/or contrasts the source to another, specific, source in the bibliography; 5) explains how this source will be helpful in answering your research question.
c. Outline (5% pts.)
The purpose of this assignment is to come up with a plan for your paper that will help you organize your thoughts before you begin writing. Rather than specify a particular format for the outline, please choose one that works for your particular writing process and learning style. No matter how your outline is formatted, it is required that you include the major points you intend to make and use complete sentences rather than key words (don’t just list the general concepts you will cover, articulate what you plan to say about those concepts). See example on page 518 in the text.

Length: 2-4 pp. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, e, and f.

d. Problem Statement (5% pts.)
Students are required to write the introduction of an empirical article which must include the statement of the problem, related background information from two scholarly and empirical journal articles, a problem statement, and a hypothesis. Points will be based on organization, logic, clarity, grammar (includes use of active voice), punctuation, and APA format. Detailed information on this assignment will be provided.

Length: 2-4 pages. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, and i.

e. Abstract (5% pts.)
Students must write an abstract for an empirical, scholarly journal article. Points will be based on clarity, organization, brevity (includes use of abbreviations), grammar (includes use of active voice), punctuation, and APA format. Detailed information will be provided.

Length: 1 page. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, d, g, and i.

f. Final Paper Drafts (2.5% X 2) of Scholarly Research Paper (5% pts.)
The draft 1 of the final research paper must contain the following: 1-3 pp. of text, a working thesis statement, a working forecasting statement, clearly defined section headings, and a working references page. To receive credit for this assignment, it must be submitted in class during the peer review session. Draft 2 includes the same, but includes pages 4-6; Draft 3 pages 7-10.

g. Final Scholarly Research Paper (20% pts.)
The final research paper must include the following:
1. 9-12 pages of text, not including the title page and references page.
2. A focused and thoughtful research question and thesis that involved challenging significant research.
3. Integrate multicultural and interdisciplinary considerations and perspectives.
4. Synthesize information from a wide range of relevant sources, both print and electronic, relevant to the thesis, balanced, and critically evaluated for credibility and objectivity.
5. Logical organization with unity developed from the thesis and clear connections among ideas.
6. Researcher’s ideas integrated smoothly with paraphrased and quoted material, and all conclusions clearly supported by relevant, convincing evidence.
7. Effectively communicated the results of research to convey an original understanding (researcher’s voice) with clear, unified concluding ideas.

8. Student papers demonstrate clear writing that exhibits mostly proper grammar, word choice, spelling, and consistently accurate APA format and citation style.

Length: 9 - 12 pages for each draft. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, and i.

h. Final Paper Presentation (5% pts.)
All students are required to present their research project on the last day of class. Presentations must be 10 minutes in length and must address what they discovered in the research and how they contributed to the academic discourse surrounding their topic. Students must present one point of grammar to the class, and they must provide handouts that clarify the points made in the presentation and that include a short quiz. Points will be based on accuracy of information and organization of the presentation. Points will also be based on accuracy, organization, grammar, punctuation, and APA format of the handouts.

Length: 1-2 pages each. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, and i.

i. Examinations (10% pts.)
Midterm worth 5% points; Final Exam worth 5% points of final grade. The midterm exam format will consist of multiple-choice questions and editing challenges. The final exam will consist of multiple-choice questions, short answers, and essay. Students are responsible for all material assigned in the book and presented in lecture. Although the lecture and book assignments will overlap to a great extent, some material in the lectures may not appear in the book and some of the material in the book may not be presented in lecture. The examinations will be based on both lecture and book material. A Scantron T&E 200 and large blue/green book is required for both exams.

j. Resume and Cover Letter Assignment (10% pts.)
Students must write a cover letter and a resume, which are specific to a job announcement. Points will be based on organization, clarity, brevity, grammar (including use of action verbs), punctuation, and marketing effectiveness. Details will be provided. Students are required to sign up with the SJSU Career Center with Sparta Jobs. Students are to bring to class on day assigned, copy of job/internship they intend to “apply for” as a part of the assignment.

The copy of the job and all pertinent information used to “target” the resume for the specific position will be turned in along with the cover letter and resume. The assignment will be peer reviewed prior to final copy being turned in to the instructor. Web link is: http://careercenter.sjsu.edu/.

The specific link to the job search function on the Career Center web site is: http://careercenter.sjsu.edu/jobsearchtips/jobsearchtips.html.

Length: 10 approx. pages. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, d, and g.

k. Group Presentations (10% pts.)
- Your group will make presentations seven times
- 4 from MAS, 2 from PM and 1 from TGP
- Your group leads the discussion
• Everyone should read the chapter and have one question for the discussion
• Your group will lead the discussion on your assigned chapter
  o Recap chapter
  o Explain key concepts
  o Review new vocabulary
  o Presentation slides are not necessary
  o Handouts are not necessary
  o See Course Schedule for dates
  o 0 points if you miss class when your group is presenting the chapter o Instructor may make exceptions for family emergencies and will be on a case by case basis.
    ▪ If approved by instructor you may submit a video in your absence but your team is responsible for showing it

l. Participation (10% pts)
• 100 points
• THIS IS NOT AN ATTENDANCE GRADE
• This class relies on participation
• If you are not here you cannot participate
• Point Breakdown
  o 0 missing participation 100 points
  o 1 missing participation 95 points
  o 2 missing participation 85 points
  o 3 missing participation 75 points
  o 4 missing participation 65 points
  o 5 missing participation 0 points

m. In-Class-Writing: 0%/0 points
Students will write essays in class to be peer reviewed. Emphasis will be placed on organization, logic, clarity, grammar, and punctuation. Emphasis for peer reviews will be placed on constructive criticism, logic, clarity, grammar, and punctuation. Detailed information will be provided.

Length: 4-6 pages. Satisfies student learning objectives a, b, c, d, f, g, h, and i.

Note: Students must use New Times Roman with a size 12 font for all submitted work in APA format.

Evaluation

The ABC/NC grading will be replaced by full letter grading (A-F) for all 100W courses, retaining the need for all such courses to be passed with a C or better (C– not accepted) when satisfying the CSU Graduation Writing.

Assessment Requirement

Your grade in this course will be determined by the following:

Pre Topic Proposal (1%) & Topic Proposal (4%) 5%
Annotated Bibliography 10%
Outline 5%
Problem Statement 5%
Abstract 5%
Final Paper Drafts (2.5% X 2) of Scholarly Research Paper 5%
Final Scholarly Research Paper 20%
Final Paper Presentation 5%
Midterm and Final Examination (5% each) 10%
Resume and cover letter 10%
Group Presentation 10%
Participation 10%

There will be no make-up allowed for any missed examination. Assignments will not be accepted late except in cases of documented “extreme” emergency. See the course calendar for special dates.

The course will be taught as a workshop. This means students and instructor will work one-on-one at times and in small groups. Your work may be reviewed by your peers.

Final Examination

• Closed book and closed notes
• 100 question, multiple choice and true/false
• Essay questions
• Cumulative Exam
• Anything discussed in class or anything in the readings may be on the Final Exam
• Scantron 882E and Blue Book will be required

Classroom Protocol

1. All students are expected to read the assigned chapters/reading assignments before the lecture
2. All students are expected to participate in the class discussions from the assigned readings
3. Students are expected to attend every class and to take the exams as scheduled.
   a. No makeup exams or quizzes are given and late homework is not accepted.
   b. Written documentation of any illness, medical emergency or death of a close relative will be the exception. Contact instructor as soon as possible.
4. Students shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith or a University Sponsored Activity with prior written notification via email to the instructor.
5. No noise-making electronic devices (lap tops, phones, calculators, etc.) are allowed.
6. Computers may only be used for class related activities.
7. Students must plan to spend a minimum of 6 hours per week outside of class time in order to complete all requirements, including readings, and submit assignments on schedule.
8. Check email on a regular basis and respond to emails in a timely manner.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/”

Dropping and Adding
Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s catalog policies.  http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html
Add/drop deadlines can be found http://www.sjsu.edu/registrar/calendar/2164/index.html
Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/

Academic Integrity
Students should know that the University’s Academic Integrity Policy is available at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/integrity.html

Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San José State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development.
http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act
If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center http://www.sjsu.edu/aec/.
