MYSJSU Messaging and Online Access to Course Materials

In order to ensure that you receive all pertinent email communication, you must have a current and accurate email address in the MYSJSU system. Please check to make sure your email is updated in MYSJSU. Also, copies of the course materials such as the syllabus, major assignment handouts, etc. may be found on D2L. If you do not have a D2L account, you will need to set one up. For more information on setting up your account go to <http://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/students>.

Course Description

KIN 185: Problem centered study of perspectives on human beings in motion; a culminating class for students to synthesize their undergraduate preparation, including completion of a professional portfolio and movement project.

KIN 185 Honors: Examination of a topic of current interest in human performance. Summarized paper to be presented at student seminar. Prerequisite: 3.2 or better overall GPA and 3.5 or better average in major.

Undergraduate Degree Program Learning Objectives (PLOs)

At the end of a Bachelor of Science degree program in the Department of Kinesiology students should be able to:

1. Obtain a critical understanding and the ability to apply theoretical and scientific knowledge from the subdisciplines in kinesiology for personal fitness, healthy lifestyles, sport, and/or therapeutic rehabilitation;

2. Effectively communicate the essential theories, scientific applications, and ethical considerations related to kinesiology;
3. Apply scholarship and practice of different movement forms to enhance movement competence in kinesiology;
4. Recognize and apply sustainable approaches as they relate to kinesiology;
5. Identify social justice and equity issues related to kinesiology for various populations.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of the course, each student will demonstrate:

1. knowledge of the various sub disciplines of Kinesiology;
2. knowledge of current issues relating to Kinesiology;
3. the ability to research, synthesize, and present information on selected topics in Kinesiology;
4. the ability to reason, discuss, and communicate information pertinent to Kinesiology and related fields;
5. an understanding of various controversial issues in physical education and sport through an examination of the sub disciplines that comprise Kinesiology;
6. an understanding of diversity and social justice as they relate to human movement.
7. the ability to assemble a personal portfolio culminating in a professional resume.
8. an understanding of the effects of the environment on physical activity and the effects of physical activity on the environment.
9. leadership in the field of kinesiology.

Required Texts/Readings

GREEN CLASSROOM

In an effort to save the environment, most course readings will be accessed electronically. Citations and/or full texts will be posted on D2L.

Definition of a Credit Hour

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of forty-five hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

As an example, the expectation of work for a 3-credit course is 150-minutes of direct faculty instruction and six hours of out-of-class student work each week.

Classroom Protocol (Course Format)

This class is a seminar, which means:

1. every student assumes a primary responsibility for course outcomes;
2. lecture will be limited;
3. students contribute to course planning;
4. students are highly encouraged to bring in relevant media sources for class discussion;
5. the class is organized around a series of related problems and issues;
6. the class focuses on developing, sharing, and critically examining independent investigations by class members;
7. every student is expected to make effective class contributions by contributing to class discussions, listening and respecting opinions of others, developing critical questions and demonstrating critical thinking, synthesizing information, and exhibiting professional behavior.

Cell phone and mobile device policy

The use of cell phones and other mobile devices for personal communication is disruptive to the class, to both the instructor and classmates, and is therefore strictly prohibited.

- First offense: Reminder.
- Second offense: Loss of daily participation points.
- Third offense: Loss of one grade level on final grade in class.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/Academic_Calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

COURSE EVALUATION COMPONENTS

Active Course Participation 20%

Each student is expected to actively participate in each seminar class. Active course participation will be assessed on student contributions to the seminar as well as class assignments. The grade earned on this component will be assessed by your contribution to all class sessions. This means that you are expected (and responsible) to be prepared for each seminar session. You are expected to speak and make effective class contributions by contributing to class discussions, listening and respecting opinions of others. Students may increase their participation by bringing in relevant newspaper, magazine, and journal articles to share with the class. NOTE: If you are not in class to interact or participate it will be difficult to achieve points in this area.

Professional Presentations (2) 20%

Each student is required to complete two professional presentations throughout the course. The first will be done with a partner and the second individually. Further details to be distributed in class.

Professional Electronic Portfolio 25%

Each student will be required to assemble a professional electronic portfolio, which will include a professional resume. The portfolio shall contain all supporting documents related to the student's program of study, work and internship experiences, certifications, athletic or sport experiences, awards and honors, attended workshops and conferences, presentations and publications, and other relevant materials related to the student's professional preparation for a career in the field of kinesiology. Preparation of the e-portfolio and professional resume will be reviewed and discussed in class.

Movement Project (Literature Review + Deliverable) 25%

Each student will be required to complete a movement project. The movement project's final product may take one of many different formats, depending on the student's emphasis area as well as her or his career goals. Examples of acceptable final products include a manual, pamphlet, website, DVD or videotape, PowerPoint presentation, or publication. A review of literature using both primary and secondary references is required as a part of the movement project's final product. Further details will be distributed in class. The literature review shall be submitted to Turnitin.com via the D2L dropbox to verify student originality. Students will present their movement project to the class at the end of the semester.

COURSE POLICIES

- Attendance: Students are strongly encouraged to attend all class sessions. Regular attendance reflects a commitment to your academic career. Students who do not regularly attend class sessions will have difficulty in keeping up with the class work.
- Due Dates: Without documented serious and compelling reasons, no assignment will be accepted late (late = after the beginning of class on the due date). An email or phone message to the instructor AND WRITTEN documentation of any illness, medical emergency or death of a close relative will be expected should you miss any exam or assignment deadline.
- A missed exam or assignment will receive a zero grade.
- Students shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith with prior written notification via email to the instructor.
- E-mail correspondence will occur throughout the semester. It is the student's responsibility to check email regularly for announcements, assignments, and other important class information.
- If at any time you feel the need for help, information concerning the course, and/or your standing (grade, attendance, etc.) in the course, see your instructor during OFFICE HOURS as soon as possible!
- Final grade notification will be provided by the University Registrar's Office. Grades will not be posted or provided via telephone.

Guidelines for all Written Assignments

- Use a standard cover page with: a title, your own name and student ID, course number and course name. Exception: you do not need a cover page for any assignment less than three pages.
- All assignments must be typed and paginated, with one inch margins, double spacing, and a 12 point font.
- All references must be CITED IN TEXT using APA style AND appear in a REFERENCE LIST at the end of the paper.
- Assignments must be securely stapled in the top left corner and submitted with only the standard cover page described above. DO NOT submit assignments inside any additional folders.
- All assignments MUST be attempted to achieve a passing grade for this class.
- All assignment submissions must be original works of the student composed specifically for this course. Any assignment submitted that does not fully meet these requirements will receive a zero and will immediately be reported to the Office of Judicial Affairs.

- NO assignments will be accepted via email, unless otherwise instructed or approved by the professor.

Computer Use and Classroom Etiquette

In the classroom, students may use computers only for class-related activities such as taking notes, following the lecture on Web-based PowerPoint slides that the instructor has posted, or finding Web sites to which the instructor directs students at the time of the lecture. Students should abstain from “surfing the web” and/or engaging in IM-ing during class. The teacher reserves the right to close the computer or ask the student to leave the class if the student is engaging in non-class related activities. This will affect your participation in the class.

University Policies

All SJSU Policies in the Catalog, Schedule of Classes and Academic Senate apply to this course (see <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>)

Plagiarism

One of our goals is to convey the importance of properly citing the work of others. With the increased use of the Internet, frequently students unknowingly violate the plagiarism policy. At SJSU, “plagiarism is the act of representing the work of another as one's own (without giving appropriate credit) regardless of how that work was obtained, and submitting it to fulfill academic requirements”. It includes incorporating the ideas, words, sentences, paragraphs, or parts thereof, without giving appropriate credit. For more information on SJSU's policy on cheating and plagiarism go to: http://sa.sjsu.edu/download/judicial/Academic_Dishonesty_Policy.pdf.

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University's Academic Integrity policy, located at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm>, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential

Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) at <http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/> to establish a record of their disability.

Student Technology Resources

Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center at <http://www.at.sjsu.edu/asc/> located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and in the Associated Students Lab on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library.

A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include DV and HD digital camcorders; digital still cameras; video, slide and overhead projectors; DVD, CD, and audiotape players; sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

SJSU Peer Connections

The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) and the Peer Mentor Program have merged to become Peer Connections. Peer Connections is the new campus-wide resource for mentoring and tutoring. Our staff is here to inspire students to develop their potential as independent learners while they learn to successfully navigate through their university experience. Students are encouraged to take advantage of our services which include course-content based tutoring, enhanced study and time management skills, more effective critical thinking strategies, decision making and problem-solving abilities, and campus resource referrals.

In addition to offering small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring for a number of undergraduate courses, consultation with mentors is available on a drop-in or by appointment basis. Workshops are offered on a wide variety of topics including preparing for the Writing Skills Test (WST), improving your learning and memory, alleviating procrastination, surviving your first semester at SJSU, and other related topics. A computer lab and study space are also available for student use in Room 600 of Student Services Center (SSC).

Peer Connections is located in three locations: SSC, Room 600 (10th Street Garage on the corner of 10th and San Fernando Street), at the 1st floor entrance of Clark Hall, and in the Living Learning Center (LLC) in Campus Village Housing Building B. Visit Peer Connections website at <http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu> for more information.

SJSU Writing Center

The SJSU Writing Center is located in Suite 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. Our writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. The Writing Center staff can be found at <http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about/staff/>.

CASA Student Success Center

The Student Success Center in the College of Applied Sciences and Arts (CASA) provides advising for undergraduate students majoring or wanting to major in programs offered in CASA. The CASA Student Success Center offers academic advice, help with changing majors, academic policy related questions, peer advisor meetings, and presentations and workshops. It's also a great place to study, and you can check out laptops. More information can be found on the website at: <http://www.sjsu.edu/casa/ssc/>. The Center is located at MacQuarrie Hall (MH) 533.
