Course Requirements and Assignments/Grading policy

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Professional Presentation

Each student is required to complete two professional presentations throughout the course. The first will be done with a partner and the second individually. Further details are posted on Canvas.
Professional Paper
Topics are chosen by each student and approved by the instructor. Written assignments are due at the beginning of the class session on the due date and must be submitted to the assignment folder on Canvas. Assignments handed in after class has begun, unless otherwise specified, will be considered late. There is a 5-point penalty for each work day (M-F), or partial calendar day, that assignments are late. Assignments will not be accepted one week past the due date.

All assignments must be typed, double spaced, and submitted hardcopy in class and to the assignment folder on Canvas.

The SJSU Writing Center (http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about) is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. The staff can assist students at all levels to become better writers.

Professional Portfolio and Resume
Each student will be required to assemble a professional portfolio, which will include a professional resume. The portfolio shall contain all supporting documents related to the student’s program of study, work and internship experiences, certifications, athletic or sport experiences, awards and honors, attended workshops and conferences, presentations and publications, and other relevant materials related to the student’s professional preparation for a career in the field of kinesiology. Preparation of the portfolio and professional resume will be reviewed and discussed in class.

Movement Project
30%
Each student will be required to complete a movement project. The movement project’s final product may take one of many different formats, depending on the student’s emphasis area as well as her or his career goals. Examples of acceptable final products include a manual, pamphlet, website, DVD or videotape, PowerPoint presentation, or publication. Further details will be distributed in class. Students will present their movement project to the class using PowerPoint at the end of the semester.

Class Assignments and Participation
This is a seminar class. Class participation is demonstrated by discussion of the assigned readings and attention to the instructor and guest lecturers. Quality of participation will be assessed via contributions to all class sessions. This includes speaking, interacting in group discussions, actively participating in classroom activities, and participation in discussions on Canvas. Students who do not contribute on a regular basis will score poorly on this component. If you are not in class to interact or participate it will be difficult to achieve points in this area. Students may increase their participation by bringing in relevant newspaper, magazine, and journal articles to share with the class.

NOTE that University policy F69-24 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F69-24.pdf states that “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.
Classroom Protocol

Attendance: Students are strongly encouraged to attend all class sessions. Regular attendance reflects a commitment to your academic career. Students who do not regularly attend class sessions will have difficulty in keeping up with the class work and earning the class participation points.

This class is a seminar, which means:
- every student assumes a primary responsibility for course outcomes;
- lecture will be limited;
- students contribute to course planning;
- students are highly encouraged to bring in relevant media sources for class discussion;
- the class is organized around a series of related problems and issues;
- the class focuses on developing, sharing, and critically examining independent investigations by class members;
- every student is expected to make effective class contributions by contributing to class discussions, listening and respecting opinions of others, developing critical questions and demonstrating critical thinking, synthesizing information, and exhibiting professional behavior.

Cell phone and mobile device policy

The use of cell phones and other mobile devices for personal communication is disruptive to the class, to both the instructor and classmates, and is therefore strictly prohibited.
- First offense: Reminder.
- Second offense: Loss of daily participation points.
- Third offense: Loss of one grade level on final grade in class.

Due Dates: Without documented serious and compelling reasons, no assignment will be accepted late (late = after the beginning of class on the due date). An email or phone message to the instructor AND WRITTEN documentation of any illness, medical emergency or death of a close relative will be expected should you miss any exam or assignment deadline.

A missing assignment will receive a zero grade.

Students shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith with prior written notification via email to the instructor.

E-mail correspondence will occur throughout the semester. It is the student’s responsibility to check email and Canvas regularly for announcements, assignments, and other important class information.

If at any time you feel the need for help, information concerning the course, and/or your standing (grade, attendance, etc.) in the course, you should see your instructor during OFFICE HOURS as soon as possible!

Final grade notification will be provided by the University Registrar's Office. Grades will not be posted or provided via telephone.

Guidelines for all Written Assignments

All assignments must be typed and paginated, with one inch margins, double spacing, and a 12 point font.
All references must be CITED IN TEXT using APA style AND appear in a REFERENCE LIST at the end of the paper.
Assignments must be securely stapled in the top left corner and submitted hardcopy in class as well as in the assignment folder on Canvas with only the standard cover page described above. DO NOT submit assignments inside any additional folders.

All assignments MUST be attempted to achieve a passing grade for this class. All assignment submissions must be original works of the student composed specifically for this course (turnitin will run on the file submitted to the assignment folder on Canvas). Any assignment submitted that does not fully meet these requirements will receive a zero and will immediately be reported to the Office of Judicial Affairs.
NO assignments will be accepted via email, unless otherwise instructed or approved by the professor.

University Policies

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/atedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course.

- “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”
  - It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor’s process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
  - In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Accommodation to Students' Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed.
