Students can make up participation points by attending classes in the other section and/or by completing additional written assignments. See instructor for information on written assignments.

There are no make-ups for skills tests or field trip.

Penalty for Late Take-Home Tests and Papers

There will be a 3-point penalty for each class day that a midterm paper is turned in late. Final papers must be turned in on the last day of class, May 13.

Classroom Protocol

The training room will be treated as a traditional dojo (a place of the “way” or the spiritual path).

The following serves as introductory etiquette:

- Students are expected to be punctual and remain to the end of the class.
- Training uniforms (gi) are encouraged, but not required. In place of gi, students should wear sturdy, loose-fitting clothes. Shorts are not recommended.
- Jewelry must be removed and pockets emptied. Shoes and socks must be removed. Keep hands and feet clean; keep fingernails and toenails trimmed.
- No eating or chewing gum.
- An attitude of respect is to be maintained for all participants at all times. Aikido is a cooperative learning effort.
- Training is joyful.
- All injuries will be immediately reported to the instructor.
- Bowing is a fundamental aspect of aikido training, which reflects respect and humility – it does not hold religious significance.

IMPORTANT COURSE INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS:

- Active class participation is essential to fulfill the course requirements. You will be allowed to miss two classes without any deduction of participation points. Absences can be made up by arranging with the instructor for an alternate assignment, which must be completed by May 13, 2015.
- Class time lost due to injury or illness: Timely communication between the student and the instructor regarding an ongoing illness or injury is a must. Special arrangements regarding such issues need to be handled at the onset of the condition.
- Three minutes will be given to “dressing out” at the beginning of each class period. Allowing for this, class will begin promptly three minutes later than scheduled.
- There are no make-ups for the skills test or field trip.
- Three points will be deducted for each class day that an assignment is turned in late.
