Course Notes

Class protocol:

- Active participation in all class activities: including lectures, practice, discussion,
 - quizzes, written examinations, skill test, and assignment. Students with sickness and injuries must communicate with the instructor for individual arrangement to pick up skills missed before attending the next class since it may involve a risk of hurting yourself and/or partner.
- Attend classes in a timely manner.
- Take care of the equipment and facility.
- Etiquette and Manners Guidelines
 - Show respect to classmates and the instructor.
 - Keep the gym clean.
 - Do not use foul languages.
 - Be considerate and help each other.
 - Do not select partners.

- Do your best physically and mentally.
- Bowing in class
- Never used skills learned in class to attack others unless in self-defense situation.
- Safety Guidelines and Class Rules
- Assess your health, consult your physician, and report any injury.
- Do not practice if you are sick or injured and report injuries to the instructor at once.
- Sport wear. Remove anything that may cause injuries to you or the partner.
- Attachments: Remove watch, all jewelry, hard hairpins, or other similar stuff.
- Nails: Cut all long nails (hands and feet) for this semester.
- Bubble gums and food: no bubble gums, food or drink in the gym.
- Horseplay: Absolutely no horseplay allowed in the gym.
- Show-off: Do not show off in the class or anywhere else.
- Warm-up: No practice or learning without proper warm-up.
- Emotion: Control temper, or get mad in the gym.
- Concentrate on class activities. Avoid loud laughing and socializing on the mat.
- Movement: Control your movement to avoid accidents.
- Alert: Be aware of what is going on around you in practice.
- Risk of injury: There are always possibilities of accidents that may cause physical injuries in practice and student should take responsibilities to strictly follow the etiquette and safety guidelines.
- Body contact: Learning and practicing skills will involve in working with a partner and it is common that both will touch each other with arm, feet, shoulders, or non-sensitive parts of the body. Students can choose their partner and modify the practice based on their personal reasons if they have to.
- Limit of effectiveness in real life: Self-defense strategies and skills taught in class are designed to reduce the chance of becoming victims and increase the chance of escape during attacks, but there is no guarantee due to the complicated crime situations.
- For self-defense only: Students should not use physical skills learned in the class to attack other people unless in real self-defense situations.
- Recording class: Instruction may not be recorded. If classmates ask you to record their performance for later review make sure it is done before or after class rather than during class. Do not post or otherwise share the recording.
- Intellectual property: Course materials developed by the instructor (e.g., exam/quiz items, videos, lecture notes), are the instructor's intellectual property and cannot be shared or uploaded in any form publicly without the instructor's approval.

Other information:

- Students may make up skill test or game assignment if they have emergency or pre-arrange with the instructor upon the time limit (1-2 makeups max).
- Students with sickness and injury can observe the class and take detailed notes for skill assignments credits for a couple of times without doctor's note (students must inform the instructors before each class). Students need to communicate with instructor if their observe more than two times.

Skill Tests: There will be two skill tests: the first one will be one-on-one distance defense, and the second test will be one-on-4 release defense. The grading will be based on accuracy of skills, reaction, speed, and spirit.

Written Midterm: The midterm will cover basic knowledge of self-defense up to On-site Response, and Floor Defense.

Written Final: The written final will cover knowledge and skills after midterm.

Assignments/Projects: The assignments will cover daily learning and practice while taking a brief note at the end of each class. The grading will be based on effort and proficiency of skill practice and the quality of notes. The other written assignments will be based on time and quality of self-evaluation.

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 30 hours over the length of the course. This would include preparing for class, participating in course activities, and completing assignments/projects. Generally this will amount to 1 hour a week outside of class.

University Policies

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog in the policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The late drop policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University's Academic Integrity policy at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm>, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Integrity policy at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm> requires approval of instructors.

Note: Outings/assignments completed for another class cannot be counted for this course.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aec/> to establish a record of their disability.

Accommodation to Students' Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed. See University Policy S14-7 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S14-7.pdf>.
