Course Description

In this course the student will learn the correct movements, postures and sequence used in traditional Hatha Yoga.

Web Resource

Course materials may be found at https://sites.google.com/a/sjsu.edu/olliges-sjsu/ and may be sent to you via MySJSU email. Please keep your MySJSU email address updated. This syllabus is also posted on the Kinesiology website: http://www.sjsu.edu/kinesiology/GreenSheet/.

Following activities and assigned reading, students will be able to demonstrate through class activities/assignments, skills tests, and written exams,

- The correct movements, postures, and sequences used in Hatha yoga, as taught in the Kali Ray TriYoga system. Emphasis will be on learning fundamental Yoga asana skills and related techniques and principles;
- Proficiency in execution of the skills covered;
- An understanding of ‘mindful movement’ as it applies to exercise;
- An understanding of meditation as it applies to exercise;
- An understanding of the history, rules, strategies, current research, safety, and etiquette associated with Yoga;
• An understanding of the mental and physical health benefits to be derived from Yoga;
• An appropriate level of proficiency in personal fitness as it relates to core strength, upper body strength, lower body strength, balance, coordination, flexibility, and body alignment;
• An understanding of how to reduce mental and emotional stress levels through breath work, concentration, meditation, physical training, and an increased understanding of the body/mind relationship;
• An understanding of the various paths of Yoga, the goal of which is Self-realization.

Activity Program Learning Outcomes
After completion of the physical activity graduation requirement, students shall be able to:

• Demonstrate proficiency in the execution of the motor/sport skills appropriate to the specific activities completed.
• Identify and/or explain the applicable history, rules, strategies, current research, safety, and etiquette related to the specific activities completed.
• Identify and/or explain the benefits of physical activity as related to physical and mental health.

Text/Readings
Required Text (available from SJSU Bookstore):

Read the following chapters: 1-4 and 7-10.

Course Notes
The training room will be treated as a traditional ashram (a place of spiritual practice). The following serves as introductory etiquette:
• Students are expected to be punctual and remain to the end of the class.
• Students should wear comfortable clothes that will allow unimpeded movement.
• Jewelry must be removed and pockets emptied. Shoes and socks must be removed. Keep hands and feet clean.
• No eating or chewing gum.
• An attitude of respect is to be maintained for all participants at all times.
• Practice is relaxed and internally focused.
• All injuries will be immediately reported to the instructor.
• Students will participate in breath work (pranayama), chanting, visualization, and meditation.
• Cell phones and other electronic devices will not be used during class.

IMPORTANT COURSE INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS:
Active class participation is essential to fulfill the course requirements. Participation can be made up as described below; all make-up work must be completed by May 16.

Class time lost due to injury or illness: Timely communication between the student and the instructor regarding an ongoing illness or injury is a must. Special arrangements regarding such issues need to be handled at the onset of the condition.

There are no make-ups for the skills test.

Five points will be deducted for each class day that an assignment is turned in late.

Course Requirements, Assignments, and Grading

Tests and Other Assignments:

ASSIGNMENT SCHEDULE:
• 10% Take-Home Test 2-21-17
  o Based on readings in required text (see above)
  o Turn in hard copy in class on or before 2-21-17
• 10% Midterm Paper 3-21-17
• 20% Skills Testing 4-25 and 5-2
• 10% Final Paper 5-9-17
• 50% Skill Development through class participation 1-31 through 5-9

PAPERS
• Papers may be submitted by hard copy in class or by email to solliges.yoga@comcast.net
  Papers must be in 12-point font, double-spaced.
• I will deduct up to 10% of the paper’s grade for mistakes in grammar and/or punctuation. The papers are expected to be written at a college level of proficiency.
• If submitted by email, papers must either be Word or Pages or be copied into the body of the email. I will send you a reply within 24 hours of receiving your paper. If you have not received a reply by the due date, your assignment will be considered late. Alternately, you can hand in a hard copy in class, on or before the due date.
• Points will be deducted for late assignments (5 points per class day).

Midterm Paper Assignment
Due March 21, 2017

Refer to Chapter 4 in the textbook, The Path of Yoga, which describes the five moral precepts and the five practices of self-restraint that are given by Patanjali in the Yoga-Sutra. Choose one of the moral precepts or one of the practices of self-restraint.

Write a one- to three-page essay describing your understanding of and experience with this precept or practice and how it is related to Yoga. One page is about 300 words.

Final Paper
Due May 9, 2017
Pick one of the following question sets. Write a one- to three-page paper that answers the question set that you have chosen. One page is about 300 words.

1. Do you identify yourself with your body or with your mind and feelings, or with the seer who sees through the mind? How would you recognize these different ways of seeing yourself?

2. Do you feel there is a reason or a purpose for your existence? How is this purpose served by your incarnation in this body at this time and place?

3. How do your mental posture and emotional state affect your physical posture? And vice versa?

4. Can you identify in yourself two natures—lower and higher, or carnal and spiritual? What are the tendencies and habits of these two natures?

5. What do you think is the relationship between the existence of something and its perception by someone?

SKILLS TEST — April 25 and May 2

Students will demonstrate sequences of postures that have been taught during the semester. Evaluation will be based on correct alignment, rhythmic movement, economy of motion, and mudra. Everyone will participate in these flows while I observe selected students’ skills.

Grading

EVALUATION:

- Develops Skills Through Class Participation 50%
  - Instructor will observe students’ performance of Yoga skills during their class participation, evaluating focus, alignment improvement, and rhythmic movement. Student performs Yoga Flow at Home assignment and submits written paragraph.
- Take-Home Test (Based on readings from required text) 10%
- Written Midterm Paper 10%
- Skills Testing 20%
- Final Paper 10%

Class Make-Ups

The instructor continually assesses the students’ development of skills during class participation, which accounts for 50% of the grade.

Students can make up for missed participation by completing additional written assignments.

To make up one class via written assignment, Refer to Chapter 4 in the textbook, The Path of Yoga, which describes the five moral precepts and the five practices of self-restraint that are given by Patanjali in the Yoga-Sutra. Choose one of the moral precepts and one of the practices of self-restraint that you did not write about in your midterm paper.

Write one page about the moral precept and one page about the practice of self-restraint, describing your understanding of and experience with this precept and practice and how they are related to Yoga.

One page is about 300 words.
There are no make-ups for the skills test.

Penalty for Late Take-Home Tests and Papers

There will be a 5-point penalty for each class day that the take-home test or midterm paper is turned in late. No assignments or make-up work will be accepted after May 16, 2017.
