

San José State University
San Jose, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval
Statistics
Department of Mathematics
College of Science

Job Opening ID (JOID): 14198

Rank: Assistant Professor (Tenure-Track)

Qualifications: The Mathematics Department at San José State University invites applications for one full time tenure track faculty position in Statistics. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Statistics or closely related field by the time of appointment. Also desirable would be the knowledge of and experience with the appropriate use of technology in teaching and research. We strongly encourage applications from women, minorities, and other under-represented groups. Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities: The faculty member is expected to supervise graduate students on their master's theses in the Math Department's MS Statistics program, which has been approved as a Professional Science Master's degree. The faculty member would also be expected to supervise student teams working on industrial research projects and consulting projects in the Math Department's Center for Applied Math, Computation, and Statistics (CAMCOS) program. In addition the faculty member is expected to teach a variety of undergraduate and graduate courses in the Department of Mathematics, to maintain a program of scholarly activity, to work on curriculum development, and be involved in departmental governance. Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 20, 2012

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedures: Candidates are encouraged to apply early. For full consideration, send a letter of application (which includes a paragraph explaining why you are interested in this position at San José State University), curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/philosophy and research plans, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by January 11, 2012 to the address listed below. Candidates may apply online at <http://www.mathjobs.org>. Original transcripts and original letters of reference will be required before appointment to position.
