Course Description

Through the development of sound basic conducting technique, students will begin to appreciate the relationship between gesture and sound. Students are required to be of junior standing and a music major, or have instructor consent.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

The students will demonstrate musical ideas clearly and efficiently through fundamental conducting gesture. The conducting gesture includes appropriate posture, the use of the baton, expressive and independent use of both hands, beat patterns, cueing, and control of tempo, dynamics and phrase shaping. The student will also study and/or review elements of instrument transposition and musical terminology.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CLO 1 Explain and demonstrate proper posture for the conductor.
CLO 2 Explain and demonstrate appropriate use of the baton, hand position and conducting plane.
CLO 3 Demonstrate expressive use of both hands as related to the musical ideas in the score.

CLO 4 Demonstrate professional stage presence and emotional communication while conducting in class.

CLO 5 Conduct in a variety of styles including legato, marcato, staccato, etc.

CLO 6 Conduct selected beat patterns and mixed meters.

CLO 7 Effectively cue parts of the ensemble.

CLO 8 Define musical terms as appropriate to the knowledge of a conductor.

CLO 9 Understand the transpositions of instruments as related to the score.

CLO 10 Describe the role of the conductor.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Grades are based upon the following formula. In order to receive a passing grade for this course, the student must satisfactorily complete each of the constituent parts.

Conducting Presentations & Self-Evaluations - 45%

Conducting assignments are necessarily cumulative and should reflect consistent improvement. The student will also complete a written self-evaluation of each conducting experience.

Written Assignments - 15%

Students will complete graded assignments throughout the semester. These assignments are due on the date noted on the syllabus.
Examinations - 20%
  The midterm and final exams will include a prepared conducting assignment and a written component. More information will be announced in class as the dates approach.

Rehearsal Observations - 10%
  The student will submit a rehearsal observation form upon observing of three (3) conductors in rehearsal. The observations must meet the following requirements:
  - Two observations must involve the conductor of a recognized SJSU ensemble or a PROFESSIONAL conductor in the Bay area. The third observation may include a church or public school conductor. You must observe the conductor rehearsing an ensemble for at least 45 minutes. In addition, one of the rehearsal observations must be a conductor of an instrumental ensemble; one of the observations must be a conductor of a choral ensemble.
  - You may not evaluate a rehearsal in which you participate.

Participation - 10%
  Participation is essential for success in this course. Students must conduct and critique each day in order to earn full credit for participation.
  When not conducting, the student serves in the "performing ensemble."

Grading Information
90-100 A
80-89 B
70-79 C
60-69 D
59 and lower F

Penalty for Late or Missed Work
Assignments are due on the dates stated in the Course Schedule. Students may not make up a missed test or assignment due to an unexcused absence. Missed tests or assignments due to excused absences can only be made up at a time appointed by the instructor. You must notify the instructor of an excused absence before the absence occurs.

Classroom Protocol
Class participation is essential. Students will be involved not only as conductors but as attentive and encouraging ensemble members. When we are conducting vocal music, you are expected to sing. When we are conducting instrumental music, you are expected to bring your instrument and play (if you are an instrumental major) or sing one of the assigned instrumental parts. You are expected to be in class on time (in your seat with all materials by 12pm). Cell phones and other electronic devices should be turned off.

University Policies

Dropping and Adding
Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.
Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material
University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course.
Beginning Conducting, MUSC 147A, Fall 2013 Page 4 of 6
“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”
“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Academic integrity
Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.
Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act
If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at http://www.sjsu.edu/aec to establish a record of their disability. In 2013, the Disability Resource Center changed its name to be known as the Accessible Education Center, to incorporate a philosophy of accessible education for students with disabilities. The new name change reflects the broad scope of attention and support to SJSU students with disabilities and the University's continued advocacy and commitment to increasing accessibility and inclusivity on campus.
School of Music and Dance Policies and Procedures

Music Use Fee:
Music majors and minors must pay a music equipment use fee of $30 each semester. The fee must be paid directly to the Cashier's Office, and you must bring the receipt to the Music Office before completing registration. Applied music instruction will not be authorized until this fee is paid. Music 10B students, or students enrolled in any sound recording course, must pay a fee of $22 each semester that they are enrolled in one or more of these classes. The fees are included in the student's bill, with other registration fees.
