So here are a just a few suggestions for your consideration:

- SJSU Choirs at Carnegie Hall
  April 27
- Student Dance Portfolio
  May 1-2
- Faure Requiem
  May 2
- Symphony Orchestra
  May 5
- Wind Ensemble
  May 7
- Collegium Concert
  May 8
- Student Dance Portfolio
  May 9
- Symphonic Band
  May 10
- Jazz Orchestra
  May 12
- Latin Jazz Ensemble
  May 13

I hope you will join us as a returning audience member, or take advantage of this bouquet of live performances to sample something new. You’ll love it!

–Fred Cohen, DMA
Director, School of Music and Dance

Faculty News

SMD Faculty member Aaron Lington has been selected as a Silicon Valley Artist Laureate for 2015 in the “Off Stage” category, recognizing his achievements in composition and arranging for ensembles. The program is funded by Silicon Valley Creates.

SMD Faculty member Pablo Furman’s new composition for orchestra and choir, The Singing Icons, will be premiered on May 9-10 by Symphony Silicon Valley in the California Theater.