Impaction Criteria for Change of Major to the BS Nutritional Science Degree for Fall 2016/Spring 2017

Student must complete a minimum of 12 SJSU units before applying to the major.

- For the following majors, students must complete these units with a minimum SJSU Cum GPA of:
  - 3.0 for Dietetics Concentration with
    - “C” or better grade in Chem 1A and
    - “C” or better grade in Nutrition course.
  - 2.5 for Packaging Concentration

- Applications submitted in Spring are due by June 9th for the following Fall semester; applications submitted in Fall are due by January 9th for the following Spring semester.

Due to impaction there is no guarantee of admissions to the new major

Application Required Paperwork *

A complete application for submission to CCB 200 includes:

1. A current Change of Major Form
   http://www.sjsu.edu/registrar/students/change_of_major/
   (initial Major Advisor/ Chairperson Approval signatures not needed yet)
2. “Unofficial SJSU Transcript”, (not “Grades” option version) including “SJSU cum” column and most recent semester’s grades.
3. If transfer student, submit unofficial transcripts from all previous colleges.
4. A statement of purpose for applying to the particular major (concentration/specialization)
5. Student ID number/Email address

Application Selection Process

- Every semester the number of spaces in the major will be determined. Students wanting to declare the Nutritional Science major will apply and be ranked by their overall SJSU Cum GPA and other qualifications. Starting at the top of the list, students will be approved for declaring the Nutritional Science major until all open slots are filled (those with complete applications only). Grades in support courses and major requirements are extremely important for students’ success in the major. A student may apply a maximum number of 3 times to a department.

- Applicants who submitted their application in Fall will be notified by email by January 23rd

- Applicants who submitted their application in Spring will be notified by email by June 30th