A Taste of Spain

COURSE
NUFS 144 Food Culture – Consuming Passions (3 units) (Area V)

NUFS 139 Hunger and Environmental Nutrition (3 units) (Area R)

DATES ABROAD
7/2/2018 – 7/16/2018

PROGRAM LEADER
Deepa Singamsetti

EMAIL
deeap.singamsetti@sjsu.edu

Information Sessions
10/4, 2:30pm
CCB 222

10/12, 3:00pm
Student Union Meeting Room #5

10/19, 3:00pm
CCB 122

11/9, 3:00pm
CCB 122

11/30, 3:00pm
CCB 122

Interested in….
• learning how to cook paella?
• tasting Spanish olive oils?
• visiting a chocolate factory?

If so, this may be the FLP for you!

On this FLP we will….
• explore the amazing cities of Barcelona & Girona
• learn about Mediterranean food specialties
• marvel at art at the Pablo Picasso and Salvador Dali Museums
• taste regional artisanal cheeses
• walk through an olive production area and then taste the olive oil produced there
• cook the Spanish dish Paella
• visit small medieval towns in the Catalan region of Spain
• stay in a convent which is hundreds of years old

Spend two weeks in Barcelona and Girona, located in the Catalan region of Spain, and immerse yourself in this beautiful and complex food culture. Spain is known for their quality assurance of their foods and we will have the opportunity to learn first hand the processes involved in the production of Spanish wine, champagne, rice, olive oil, cheeses, and chocolate. This is an FLP for all of the senses!