San José State University
San José, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Specialization: Physical Disabilities and Rehabilitation
Job Opening ID (JOID): 23416
Rank: Assistant Professor, Tenure-track

Qualifications:
Occupational therapist with PhD or equivalent doctorate required (clinical doctorate not eligible for appointment). Prefer at least 5 years clinical experience in rehabilitation across the continuum from acute-care to long-term rehabilitation, to outpatient, to home-based and community intervention for adults with physical disabilities. Expertise with one or more of the following areas is desired: neuro-rehabilitation, hand therapy, cognitive rehabilitation, and adaptive technologies. Teaching experience preferred. Applicants must be eligible for occupational therapy licensure in California. Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching, and other comparable experience. Applicants should be able to demonstrate commitment to teaching excellence, possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills, and exhibit a commitment to establish and interact effectively with community partnerships. Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:
Duties include teaching, scholarship, and service to the university and profession. Primary responsibility will be to teach rehabilitation, acute care, long-term rehabilitation, outpatient home- based and community intervention, and adaptive strategies for adults with physical, neurological, and cognitive disabilities in both didactic and clinical practice courses in the entry-level master’s program, and contribute to program and curriculum development. Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date:
August 22, 2016

Eligibility:
Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedure:
For full consideration, upload a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/ philosophy, research plans, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by November 5, 2015 at apply.interfolio.com/31005

Please direct questions to:
Lynne Andonian, PhD, OTR/L email: lynne.andonian@sjsu.edu
Chair, Occupational Therapy Recruitment Committee
Department of Occupational Therapy
College of Applied Sciences and Arts
San Jose State University
Please include Job Opening ID (JOID) on all correspondence.

The Occupational Therapy Program is fully accredited by the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE). The occupational therapy department, founded in 1943, is situated in the College of Applied Sciences and Arts, one of seven colleges at San Jose State University (SJSU).

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University’s annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (http://www.sjsu.edu/police).