welcome to a panel discussion on Various Career Paths in Early Childhood

Camilla Weiberg, Department of Child Development Chair and Faculty, Mission College

Jessica Fraser, Program Director, Neighborhood Christian Center

Kathy Lincoln, Co-Chair Local Early Education Planning Council, County Office of Education

Natalie Seer, Ed.D., Quality Improvement Coordinator, WestEd E3 Institute

Terri Wallace, Director of Preschool Programs, Mountain View-Whisman School District

Sandy Yoo, Early Childhood Educator, Google Children’s Center

Wendi Mahaney-Gurahoo, Deputy Chief Early Learning, FIRST 5 Santa Clara County
• Describe your educational and career path. How did you enter this field and how did your experiences lead you to this career?

• What are the most rewarding and the most challenging aspects of your career?

• Is there opportunity for professional growth and advancement in this career?

• What is your typical workday like? Is it possible to balance time between work and life outside of work?

• What specific qualities or abilities are important for this career?

• Reflecting on your career path, what would you have done differently? What would you keep the same?
Join CAAEYC’s Men & Early Care & Education Committee for a... meet and greet and presentation.

The Importance of Men and Early Childhood Education

San Jose
Lakeshore Learning Store
1099 S. Bascom Ave.
San Jose, CA 95128

Saturday, MARCH 17, 2018
8:30 AM—10:00 AM

RSVP to Jose C. Nunez, MS
(209) 505-1159 • jcjwnunez@gmail.com
See you next time!

Early Childhood Research:
What is it and why does it matter?

Join us to...

• explore the exciting world of early childhood research.
• learn about ongoing projects across various disciplines.
• discover the importance of early childhood research.
• think about how findings inform practice.
• get involved in research!

Thursday, April 26th 3:00-4:00pm, SH 106