GE Area V: Cultures and Global Understanding Course Learning Outcomes (GELOs)

Students shall be able to:

1. Analyze historical, social, and/or cultural significance of creative works of human expression (examples include, but are not limited to, written works, images, media, music, dance, technologies, designs), from at least one cultural tradition outside the United States;
  - We will analyze the historical, social, and cultural significance several creative works of human expression, specifically a number of religious/spiritual traditions and ritual practices, primarily from Indigenous contexts. These will include: traditional Buryat (Siberian) shamanism and other global shamanisms; Ndembu (Central African) healing ritual; traditional Ojibwe/Anishinaabe worldviews and other Native American relationships with sacred landscapes and other-than-human-persons; African-diaspora religions and rituals as sites of resistance, resilience, and reciprocity, including Haitian Vodou and Yoruba-derived traditions; and traditional Hmong (Southeast Asian) shamanism and cultural practices.

GE Area V Course Learning Outcomes (GELOs) (continued)

- 2. Examine how creative works of human expression [as defined in #1] outside the United States have influenced the United States' cultures;
  - We will examine and think comparatively about the historical and cultural contexts of the above-named religious/ritual traditions and cultural worldviews in order to understand the influence (and presence) of traditional Indigenous cosmologies and marginalized spiritual practices on and in U.S. cultures. This will include specific attention to the presence and influence of Indigenous and African/African diaspora religions in the U.S. We will also analyze and compare these traditions to some of the dominant Euro-American cultures and paradigms, including North American evangelical Christianity and "Western" scientific empiricism, and we will interrogate some of the ways in which the lived historical and cultural experience of these religious/ritual traditions challenges "Western" assumptions about nationalism, religious boundary maintenance, and scientism.
- 3. Explain how a culture outside the U.S. has changed in response to internal and external influences;
  - We will examine, in cultural/historical contexts, some of the differing consequences of religious change, competing cosmologies, and changing paradigms. This will include investigating some specific examples of culture change in societies outside of (and/or immigrating to) the U.S., especially in response to the pressures of colonialism and globalization.
- 4. Appraise how the study of creative works of human expression from outside the United States shapes one's own understanding of cultural experiences and practices.
  - We will interrogate the concepts of magic, science, and religion by comparing the religious and ritual traditions and cultural worldviews of Indigenous and African/African diaspora with Euro-American Christianity in order to understand some of the ways in which cosmologies and ideologies of magic, science, and religion can all be located in all human cultures. By examining religions and rituals as creative cultural expressions, experiences, and practices from the point of view of colonized and marginalized peoples — rather than normative, socially dominant, Euro-American religions — we will also discern how our understandings of these concepts changes when we think of religions as defined more by ritual practice and lived experience, rather than only by belief, dogma, or ideology, as well as how our understandings of these concepts changes when we take questions of power into account. Finally, we will explore the relevance of these concepts for our current world and the work of dismantling systemic oppressions.

Course Goals

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have demonstrated their understanding of the Area V GELOs by:

- Remembering and describing key concepts from anthropology and religious studies via weekly quizzes and discussion posts.
- Examining and explaining why the way we think about the concepts of religion, magic, and science are shaped by our cultural and religious worldviews, including the consequences of competing and changing paradigms, via weekly discussion posts.
- Demonstrating their understanding of these concepts, including their consequences for Indigenous & colonized peoples, by applying them to real world cases studies, via weekly discussion posts and a final essay.
- Analyzing in writing the impact of systemic oppressions and social power imbalances for Indigenous and marginalized religions and cultures via a final essay.

Technology Requirements

In order to participate in and pass this class, you will need to ensure that you will have access to an internet-enabled computer or tablet a minimum of 9 hours per week. (See University Policies below.) You are expected log in to our course a (bare) minimum of once a week, and logging in more frequently is highly recommended. You will use this time to:

- Complete online readings & watch required videos
- Complete required quizzes, participate in discussion forums, & write required essays
- Attend (or watch recordings of) Zoom meetings

It is also strongly recommended that your computer or tablet be running the most recent available operating system and other software. (I do not recommend trying to complete this course on a phone.)

- Canvas System Requirements: <https://guides.instructure.com/m/67952//720329-what-are-the-browser-and-computer-requirements-for-canvas>
- Zoom System Requirements: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/201362023-System-Requirements-for-PC-Mac-and-Linux>

How to Use Canvas & Get Tech Support

For help with using Canvas see Canvas Student Resources page (<https://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/software-tools/teaching-tools/canvas/student-resources/index.php>)

- There is also a searchable Canvas Student Guide: <https://guides.instructure.com/>
- Additional resources and help docs can be found via the SJSU e-Campus: <https://www.sjsu.edu/learnanywhere>
- If those links don't fully address your needs, you can submit an iSupport ticket and you will receive a response back promptly from SJSU support personnel. See: <https://www.sjsu.edu/it/support/service-desk/help-ticket.php>
- In Canvas, you can also click on the Question Mark icon on the far left-hand nav bar for help options

Grading Information

Determination of Grades (100% = 1000 points)

A+	1000-975	B+	899-875	C+	799-775	D+	699-650
A	974-925	B	874-825	C	774-725	D	649-600
A-	924-900	B-	824-800	C-	724-700	F	less than 600

Total Assignment Points Possible

- 425 = Quizzes (22 @ up to 10-30 points each)
- 325 = Discussions (13 @ up to 25 points each)
- 250 = Final Paper (up to 100 points for First Draft + up to 150 points for Final Draft)
- +50 = (up to 50 points of extra credit available for attending optional Zoom Meetings, &/or following the course twitter, &/or commenting on other people's posts in the discussion forums)

My Grading Philosophy

As far as I am concerned, grades are simply a measure of whether or not a person "did the thing" and are NOT a reflection of anyone's innate intelligence or moral character. In this case, "the thing" being measured is completing the assignments as laid out in this syllabus, and according to the standards specified in the rubrics that are attached to each assignment in Canvas. (And for more specifics about what I am looking for in the weekly Discussion Posts and TIPS to boost those scores, please see Discussion Rubric Details on Canvas.)

To a significant extent, this means that simply getting the assignments in on time (within reason, see the Late Policy below), and following the directions accurately and completely should be more than sufficient to pass this class with a C. The more evidence of effort, polish, curiosity, and rigorous analytical thinking I see in your work, the more that translates into Bs & As. (Also see Be a Participant, Not a Spectator below.)

The only way to fail this class is to not complete enough assignments (or to plagiarize, see the Plagiarism Policy below). You need to stay on top of the schedule and deadlines and not fall behind, as it is neither acceptable nor humanly possible to satisfactorily complete all of the course assignments at the last minute. (Again, see Late Policy below.) If you run into any difficulties that could interfere with your ability to complete the assignments within a reasonable time frame, please reach out to me ASAP. I am committed to doing whatever I can to support people in passing this class, but my own ability to do so is seriously limited if you don't reach out before it's too late.

Upper Division GE Courses (Areas R, S, V)

Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or the WST Directed Self Placement or ENGL/LLD 100A with a C or better (C- not accepted), and completion of Core General Education are prerequisite to all SJSU Studies courses. Completion of, or co-registration in, 100W is strongly recommended. A minimum aggregate GPA of 2.0 in GE Areas R, S, & V shall be required of all students.

Course Requirements & Assignments

Quizzes (up to 425 points total)

Every week, you will have at least one quiz to complete. Try to think of these Quizzes more as exercises or study guides, rather than as "tests." Each Quiz is closely tied to the specific readings and assigned videos listed on each Quiz instruction page. They are ALL open book and open note, so there's nothing to keep you from referring back to the reading or videos, and in fact I encourage you to do so. There is also no time limit (although there is a deadline (see Late Policy and Important Note About Due Dates & Deadlines below) and you can save your work on each Quiz and come back later if needed. Questions will be multiple choice, matching, true/false, or short answer, and are worth between 10-30 points each.

In general, I recommend that you complete the specified readings and videos BEFORE you start the Quiz, and then go back through them as you complete the Quiz, making note of key points and ideas in the quiz questions. I also recommend that you do the readings and Quizzes FIRST each week, and then watch the Video Lectures and complete the Discussion Posts, because I think that the course concepts will make more sense in the big picture that way. For more details see About Quizzes on Canvas.

Video Lectures & Discussion Forums (13 @ up to 25 points each, up to 325 points total)

For each module, you will watch a series of ~5-15 minute video lectures (labeled 2a, 2b, 2c, etc). These explain some of the more subtle and complex ideas we will encounter in this course. Sometimes this will mean going over — or going more deeply into — the ideas in the readings and other videos (produced by people other than myself). But frequently the video lectures will include ideas not directly discussed in the readings. (As you watch the video lectures, it's a good idea to take notes, as you would in a traditional face-to-face classroom. Also note that each video includes a transcript, as well as a link to a pdf of the slide deck I used to make the video.)

You will then write a Discussion Post about the Video Lectures. For each Discussion Post, think about how the ideas discussed in the videos illuminate concepts from the assigned readings, and make note of any places where you still have questions. Each post will also ask you to reflect back on the previous week's discussion and my collective feedback. Each Discussion Post will be worth up to 25 points. It is not possible to earn enough credit to pass this class without completing most of these in a timely fashion. For more details, see: About Video Lectures & Discussion Posts, Discussion Forum Guidelines, Discussion Forum & Chat Etiquette Guidelines, and Discussion Rubric Details on Canvas.

Final Paper (up to 250 points total)

The Final Paper will demonstrate your ability to think critically about the concepts studied in this course, including the consequences of competing and changing paradigms.

- The Final Paper should be ~3-5 pages long (1000-1500 words)
- The FIRST DRAFT is DUE by SUN APR 30 @ MIDNIGHT and is worth up to 100 points
The FINAL DRAFT is DUE by WED MAY 17 @ NOON and is worth up to 150 points
- For more details, see Assignments: Final Essay and General Criteria & Guidelines for Written Assignments on Canvas.

EXTRA CREDIT: Twitter Participation (up to 5 points of Extra Credit total)

I use a twitter account (@ProfLeeGilmore) to occasionally post articles about current events and other topics that are relevant to this course (and sometimes others I teach). Up to 5 extra credit points may be earned by following and participating with my teaching twitter. Full credit if you follow within the first couple of weeks, less if you start following after Week 4. If you don't use twitter, you can still follow along via the twitter feed on Canvas, and receive extra credit by emailing a few very brief summaries (1-3 sentences) of at least 2-3 of the articles I posted on that account. (You can submit this at any point in the semester, but no later than MON MAY 15 @ NOON.) For more details, see Assignments: Twitter Extra Credit on Canvas.

Course Requirements & Assignments

EXTRA CREDIT: Zoom Meetings (optional, up to 20 points of Extra Credit available)

Four times this semester, I will hold live Zoom Meetings. These sessions are an opportunity to discuss the readings, ask questions, and get a better understanding of core issues and concepts. You can earn up to 5 points of extra credit each for attending AND participating in these Zoom sessions. COME PREPARED WITH QUESTIONS FOR ME ABOUT THE MATERIAL.

It is highly recommended that you attend and participate in as many live Zoom Meetings as possible. The more you participate and interact, the more you will get out of the experience, and the more credit you will ultimately earn. However, because I know that your schedules can be complicated, all Zoom Meetings will be recorded and available to watch after the session. If you cannot attend any of the sessions in real time, you may still earn extra credit by watching the recordings, writing a short summary of what was discussed, and emailing that to me within one week of each meeting.

FYI, in this class, it is okay if you join these sessions a little late, or need to leave a little early. Unlike a regular classroom, you can always go back and watch the recording of the portion you missed, and it's also not as disruptive when people join a Zoom Meeting late as it is when they walk into a regular classroom late. You do need to attend for at least one full hour for it to count for towards the full 5 points of extra credit, but I'll make a note for at least partial extra credit if you show up for at least some portion of the time. Zoom Meetings for Fall 2022 are scheduled as follows:

- THU JAN 26: ZOOM MEETING (1) @ 6:00 - 7:30 pm
- MON FEB 27: ZOOM MEETING (2) @ 6:00 - 7:30 pm
- WED APR 5: ZOOM MEETING (3) @ 6:00 - 7:30 pm
- TUE MAY 9: ZOOM MEETING (4) @ 6:00 - 7:30 pm

TO ATTEND, log on via the Zoom links posted on Canvas. I will also email everyone a reminder and invite a day or so prior to the meeting. Recordings will be posted as soon as possible after the meeting, usually the next morning. (For more details, see ABOUT ZOOM MEETINGS: Attendance/Participation on Canvas.)

Course Policies

Late Policy

HERE'S THE DEAL: You are expected to complete ALL assignments by the posted DUE DATES in the Course Schedule below, because the course runs much more smoothly for everyone that way. However, I do accept late assignments and there is always a 24-hour grace period before I may start subtracting late penalties (up to -1 point per day for Quizzes & Discussion Posts, and up to -5 points per day for the Final Paper).

The regular DUE DATE & TIME for both Quizzes and Discussion Posts in this course is MIDNIGHT on Sundays. HOWEVER, because of the 24-hour grace period, you always have some wiggle room on the deadlines for the weekly assignments, so don't stress out about submitting them exactly by the deadline (i.e. 12:01 am, 2:00 am or even 10:00 am the next morning is all fine).

Ideally, you should plan to complete each week's assignments sometime during the week (or weekend) BEFORE the last minute on Sunday night. Put all deadlines & due dates in your own calendar and plan your regular schedules ahead of time in order to meet the weekly deadlines, while also accommodating your other commitments as needed. You are also encouraged to work ahead at your own pace, but please don't get too far ahead on the Discussions or it will be harder for me to provide substantive and personalized feedback.

FAIR WARNING: do not abuse this policy. If you make a regular habit of submitting late assignments, you may very quickly fall behind and find it difficult to complete the course adequately. And although 1-2 deducted points are very unlikely to make a difference in your final grade (see Determination of Grades above), too many subtracted points from too many late assignments can add up fast and dramatically reduce your final grade.

Furthermore, it is not possible to adequately complete all material in this class at the last minute. NO late Quizzes or Discussion Posts from before Spring Break (i.e. Modules 1-9) will be accepted after MON MAY 1 and NO late Quizzes or Discussion Posts AT ALL (i.e., also including Modules 10-14) will be accepted after the last day of regular classes (MON MAY 15).

So, if you are having difficulty keeping up with the assignments and deadlines for ANY reason, PLEASE check in with me about it sooner rather than later. I will waive late penalties in the case of illness or other emergencies.

Plagiarism Policy

Plagiarism means copying words from any source without placing those words in “quotation marks” and providing a citation. You are strongly encouraged to directly quote from sources in your writing for this class, but you MUST put all passages from the readings (or any other source) in quotation marks and include a citation, otherwise it is plagiarism (even if the error was unintentional). See Plagiarism Policy & Resources page on Canvas for tips on how to avoid plagiarism.

ANY attempt to present someone else's words as your own — especially submitting material written by a person other than yourself (or by an artificial intelligence) or submitting work in which ANY unacknowledged material appears — is a serious violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for that assignment. Depending on severity, it may also result in a failing grade for the course or even expulsion from SJSU. (Submitting papers written for previous classes without prior permission is also a violation of academic integrity.)

The Final Paper for this course will be checked for plagiarism via turnitin.com (as well as by my own experienced eyes). All serious incidents of plagiarism will be reported to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. If you get stuck working on any of your written assignments for this class, please ask me for help before resorting to plagiarism.

Be a Participant, Not a Spectator

This course is an opportunity for you to learn about the social and cultural construction of worldviews and paradigms using the concepts we call magic, science, and religion. Active and engaged participation in our class is required and your grade will be a direct reflection of how much effort you put into this course. While emergencies and illnesses may at times be unavoidable (especially these days), I guarantee that you will not do well in this class if you miss multiple assignments, or if you are distracted and/or multitasking during Video Lectures, Zoom Meetings, and other tasks.

THE ONLINE/REMOTE ONLY NATURE OF THIS COURSE means that it is incumbent upon you to be proactive about participating. This means that you will need to stay on top of course content, keep track of deadlines and regularly check both Canvas and email.

Finally, you should also approach this subject matter with an open and curious mind. My job is not to dispute your own religious, cultural, or other commitments, but rather to train you to think critically about religions, cultures, and worldviews (including your own, as well as others'). In turn, I agree to give you my complete attention during our time together, and to provide every resource I have available to help you do well in this course.

BOTTOM LINE: IT IS UP TO YOU TO MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR EDUCATION, AND HENCE YOUR TIME IN THIS COURSE.

University Policies

University Policies

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Per University Policy S16-9, relevant university policy concerning all courses, such as student responsibilities, academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. and available student services (e.g. learning assistance, counseling, and other resources) are listed on Syllabus Information web page (<https://www.sjsu.edu/curriculum/courses/syllabus-info.php>). Make sure to visit this page to review and be aware of these university policies and resources.

SPRING 2023 Course Schedule

IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT DUE DATES & DEADLINES

As stated in the Late Policy above, the due dates and times in the Course Schedule below are not necessarily the exact time I expect you to turn things in. Ideally, you should plan to complete each week's readings, videos, and assignments sometime during the week BEFORE the last minute on Sunday night.

However, there is also always a 24-hour grace period on all due dates in this class, which means you always have a little bit of wiggle room before I may start subtracting points. Furthermore, there is a 48-hour grade period on the first Quiz and first Discussion Post in Module 1, because I recognize that hitting the ground running can be a challenge when many of you may still be adjusting to and sorting out new schedules. However, PLEASE get started on these as soon as you can.

Plan your weekly schedules ahead of time in order to meet the regular deadlines, while also accommodating your other commitments as needed. You are also encouraged to work ahead at your own pace, but please don't get too far ahead on the Discussions or it will be harder for me to provide personalized feedback. All times are Pacific Time.
