

New Online Course for Fall 2013!

RELS/HUM 155: *Pagan Traditions

This course will examine:

- ◎ the religions, cultures & histories of diverse indigenous peoples
- ◎ the roots of Contemporary/Neo-Paganism in the folklore & traditions of Europe, including popular & esoteric traditions
- ◎ the formation of new & alternative religious movements, including festival cultures
- ◎ the intersections of religion & ecology
- ◎ the integral role of ritual, performance, & the creative arts in religion
- ◎ questions of authenticity, syncretism, & “otherness,” in religions & culture

Class Meets Fully Online: August 21, 2013-Dec 9, 2013

SJSU STUDENTS: register through regular channels

NON-SJSU STUDENTS: Contact Dr. Gilmore to get on the waiting list.

You may register via SJSU Open University beginning August 20, 2013.

(<http://ou.sjsu.edu>). Cost will be $840-900 (set by SJSU).

Home institutions & departments should be consulted regarding potential eligibility for transfer credits.

Course will include:

- mandatory live/recorded online meetings & discussion forums
- plus readings, short essays, & a research paper

Instructor: Lee Gilmore, Lecturer, San José State University, & Author, Theater in a Crowded Fire: Ritual and Spirituality at Burning Man

email: lee.gilmore@sjsu.edu

PLEASE FEEL FREE TO CONTACT HER WITH ANY QUESTIONS!

MORE INFO AT: <http://www.sjsu.edu/people/lee.gilmore/courses/rels155/>

SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY