

Political Science 100W Writing Workshop

Fall 2009
DMH 161
6:00 p.m.—8:45 p.m.
email: Kenneth.Faulve-Montojo@sjsu.edu
and

Dr. Kenneth Faulve-Montojo
Clark Hall 406-G
Tel: 408-924-5558
Office Hours: MW 12:00—1:45
by appointment

Objectives: Students shall be able to refine the competencies established in Written Communication IA and IB as summarized below:

- Students should be able to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
- Students should be able to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.
- Students should be able to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.
- Students should be able to write for different audiences (both specialized and general)
- Students should be able to use (locate, analyze, and evaluate) supporting materials, including independent library research.
- Students should be able to synthesize ideas encountered in multiple readings.
- Students should be able to construct effective arguments.

Additionally,

- Students shall be able to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse.
- Students shall be able to organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences, including appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources.

To achieve these objectives, the course will be structured as a working and practical laboratory, where we will emphasize on working and sharing ideas with colleagues. Because political writing should be discussed openly and freely from inception to completion, we will work in small groups whenever possible to give students the opportunity to discuss their ideas.

Eligibility: To enroll in PS 100W you must have completed 60 units, completed English 1-B (or equivalent), and passed the Writing Skills Test (WST).

Required Texts: There is one required text for the course.

Hacker, Diana. 2010. A Writer's Reference, 7th ed. Boston, MA: Bedford/St. Martin's Press.

Additional readings are available through the SJSU MLK reserve system/Blackboard.

Grading:	Writing Assignments	60%
	Punctuation Exam	10%
	Grammar Exam #1	10%
	Grammar Exam #2	10%
	Participation	10%

Grammar: Part of the class will be devoted to punctuation and grammar. The first test covers punctuation. The second test covers grammar. The third test covers both grammar and style.

Writing assignments: There are four writing assignments. Each assignment, except the in-class assignment, can be broken down in terms of a draft and a rewrite. Students will write drafts of the assignments and bring in a specified number of copies to class on the day the drafts are due. Students must also download from Blackboard a copy of the student critique worksheet and bring a specified number of copies to class. Students will have their drafts critiqued by at least two 100W colleagues. Afterward, students are to rewrite their drafts based on the critiques and turn them in on the scheduled due date. The rewrite package should be ordered as such (1) a 100W grading scale sheet on top, which you can also download from Blackboard, then (2) the rewrite, then (3) the drafts critiqued by your peers, and then (4) the student critique worksheets. Please attach via staple or binder-clip all the pages together. No paper will be accepted without the student critiques, both drafts and worksheets. Any paper, draft or rewrite, submitted late will be marked down one-letter grade. Late papers will NOT be accepted one week after the due date. Death in the family and a severe illness, with appropriate documentations, are grounds for extensions. You must notify the instructor of these allowable excuses BEFORE, NOT AFTER, the due date of the paper submission. Students who ask for an extension AFTER the due date will NOT receive an extension.

Papers that are not the right length will also be graded down half-a-letter grade.

In addition to timely submissions, the following criteria must also be met. Papers will be marked down a third-of-a-letter grade for each infraction.

- 1) The thesis statement of the essay and the topic sentence of each paragraph must be underlined.
- 2) Contractions cannot be used in the essay.
- 3) Stylistic fragments must be footnoted.

Students must submit four (4) writing assignments. The following are the assignments and their weighted values, which are weighted more heavily toward the concluding assignments as students are expected to demonstrate an improvement in their writing skills.

1) Argument Paper	10%
2) In class assignment	10%
3) Personal statement/election position	15%
4) The Discipline of Political Science	25%

You must submit your papers in two forms, one hard copy and the other electronic. You must submit the electronic copy on Blackboard by 12:00 p.m. on the due date. If you have problems with the Blackboard upload system, submit the paper through the email system on Blackboard. Do not send it to my regular email account.

Correction Paper: The purpose of the correction paper is to help students understand and learn from their mistakes. When the instructor returns to the students graded written assignments, if requested, students must submit a correction paper. On this paper, students must have three points per error. First, students must write the grammatically incorrect statement as written in the original essay. Second, students must explain the nature of the error. Finally, students must rewrite the statement with the appropriate correction. Correction papers are due at the next class meeting after the assignment has been returned; late submissions reduce the grade of the original essay by half-a-letter grade. Furthermore, students who do not turn in the correction paper CANNOT submit the next assignment. This policy excludes the last assignment.

Spartan Daily: Students who have their 2-3 paragraph editorials printed in the Campus Viewpoint section of the Spartan Daily can substitute an “A” for any grade they have earned. Students who submit 1-2 paragraph letters to the Spartan Daily can substitute a “B” for any grade they have earned. There is a caveat to this policy. An “A” will be substituted for a lower grade only if the writing assignment (draft and rewrite) did not incur any tardiness penalties. If an assignment is submitted late, then the corresponding Spartan Daily grade is also subject to the same penalty. For example, if you had received a “B” on a writing assignment and because of late submissions it was downgraded to a “C,” then your Spartan Daily grade also will be reduced from an “A” to a “B.” Students who submit four (4) Spartan Daily essays can receive at the highest a B+ in the class.

ALL Spartan Daily submissions must be turned in at the end of the term.

Oral Participation: Students present their Discipline of Political Science essay at the end of the term. Students must also participate during draft submission days.

Critiques: Students will critique the work of other students. These critiques can be a great learning tool for writers and evaluators. A student critique worksheet can be downloaded from Blackboard, and students must bring a specified number of them to class on the day the drafts are due. Critiques, along with other contributions, will be used in assigning a grade for class participation. In addition, there is also the 100W grading scale critique, which can also be downloaded from Blackboard. You must attach a copy of this sheet to your rewrite.

Models of Excellence: During the course of the term, the instructor will provide students with models of exceptional writing.

SJSU Blackboard: The course will make use of the SJSU Blackboard system <http://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/> Find the courses link, and go to Fall 2009. Scroll down to Political Science 100W and click the “Political Science 100W” link. The login is your 9-digit student ID number. If you have never used Blackboard before, the password is “fall.” If you have used it before, the password is whatever it was the last time you used it. If you used Blackboard in Spring 2009 and did not change your password, then the password remains “spring.”

Please log on at the beginning of the week, every Sunday evening/Monday morning to get a copy of the abridged outline notes. You want to download these notes, print them, and bring a copy of them with you to class. These outlines help you to follow along with the lectures and are NOT intended to replace class attendance—which is very critical to your learning.

Finally, there is also a message section in Blackboard that I can use to send messages to the class. So please log on periodically.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory. If you must miss a class, please inform the instructor ahead of time so you can get the assignment and any materials that might be handed out that day.

Contacting Dr. Faulve-Montojo: My office hours are listed above. If you need to contact me outside of office hours, the best way to do so would be to contact me via email at Kenneth.Faulve-Montojo@sjsu.edu

Campus policy in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act: SJSU strictly complies with the ADA of 1991. In this regard, if you need “course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities register with DRC to establish a record of their disability.” If you wish to look up this policy, please see http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/student_services/document_disability.htm

Academic Integrity Statement: "Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San José State University, and the University’s Academic Integrity Policy requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The policy on academic integrity can be found at http://sa.sjsu.edu/student_conduct.”

Classroom behavior: As a courtesy to other students and the instructor, students should engage in the highest standard of behavior during class sessions. Students should turn off all mobile phones, refrain from text messaging and refrain from reading newspapers or magazines during class time, and avoid excessive talking within a group. Also, absolutely NO computers are allowed in class.

Final: The final is scheduled for 4:45 p.m.—7:00 p.m. Friday December 11, 2009.

Week 1 August 24, 2009	Week 2 August 31, 2009	Week 3 September 7, 2009	Week 4 September 14, 2009	Week 5 September 21, 2009	Week 6 September 28, 2009
Due August 24 Pre-Test		Labor Day--No Class	Due September 14 Draft of Argument Essay	Due September 21 Rewrite of Argument Essay
Discussion: Introduction Grading Criteria Pre-Test	Discussion: Planning/Drafting/ Thesis Statement Basic Grammar		Discussion: Paragraphs Revising	Discussion: Argument Avoid Fallacies Citing Sources/ Ethical uses of Source Material	Discussion: Punctuation
	Assignment: Argument Essay		Assignment: Personal Statement/ Election Position
Reading: Hacker: Section C1	Reading: Hacker: Section B and pp. 371-77		Reading: Hacker: Sections C2-3	Reading: Hacker: Sections C4-5 and CMS1-5	Reading: Hacker: Section P

Week 7
October 5, 2009

Week 8
October 12, 2009

Week 9
October 19, 2009

Week 10
October 26, 2009

Week 11
November 2, 2009

Week 12
November 9, 2009

Due October 5

Draft of Personal
Statement/Election
Position

Discussion:
Punctuation

Reading:
Hacker: Section P

Due October 12

Punctuation Test

Discussion:
Grammar

Assignment:
In Class
Assignment

Reading:
Hacker: Section G

Furlough--No Class

Due October 26

Rewrite of Personal
Statement/Election
Position

Discussion:
Grammar

Reading:
Hacker: Section G

Due November 2
In-Class
Assignment

Discussion:
Grammar

Reading:
Hacker: Section G

Due November 9

Grammar Test #1

Discussion:
Grammar

Assignment:
The Discipline of Political Science

Reading:
Hacker: Section G

Week 13 November 16, 2009	Week 14 November 23, 2009	Week 15 November 30, 2009	Week 16 December 7, 2009	Final December 11, 2009
------------------------------	------------------------------	------------------------------	-----------------------------	----------------------------

Due November 16 Grammar	Due November 23 Draft of Discipline of Political Science	Due November 20 Grammar Test #2	Due December 7 Post-Test and Discipline of Political Science Presentations	Due December 11 Rewrite of Discipline of Political Science
-----------------------------------	---	--	---	---

Discussion: Style	Discussion: Style	Discussion: Style	Discussion: Style Post-Test
-----------------------------	-----------------------------	-----------------------------	--	--

Reading: Hacker: Section S	Reading: Hacker: Section S Scott and Garrison: Introduction, pp. 1- 16 on Blackboard
--------------------------------------	--