Course Objective and Description

History 15A/B is a two-semester, interdisciplinary, team-taught course about the history and government in the United States. When taken in consecutive semesters with the same instructors, Hist 15A/B fulfills the American Institutions requirements for U.S. History, U.S. Constitution, and California Government (F 1-2-3). It also fulfills six credits of the Social Sciences requirement in Core GE (D2: Comparative Systems and D3: Social Issues). You must complete the entire two-semester sequence in order to fulfill the requirements and earn the six credits. This course provides a multicultural framework for the study of American history and government.

Note: The History Department recommends that students take Hist/PoliSci 15A before Hist /PoliSci 15B. If you have already taken POLS1 or POLS101, you may not take HIST 15A/B.

Student Learning Objectives

This is a General Education course with learning objectives established by the university. In addition to writing 2 term papers totaling more than 1500 words, by the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. place contemporary developments in cultural, historical, environmental, and spatial contexts;
2. identify the dynamics of ethnic, cultural, gender/sexual, age-based, class, regional, national, transnational, and global identities and the similarities, differences, linkages, and interactions between them;
3. evaluate social science information, draw on different points of view, and formulate applications appropriate to contemporary social issues;
4. recognize the interaction of social institutions, culture, and environment with the behavior of individuals;
5. compare and contrast two or more ethnic groups, cultures, regions, nations or social systems;
6. apply multi-disciplinary material to a topic relevant to policy and social action at the local, national and/or international levels;
7. demonstrate knowledge about colonialism and conquest, the American Revolution, the New Nation, slavery and anti-slavery, reform movements, Jacksonian Democracy, the Civil War, Reconstruction, foreign relations, Populism, Progressivism, the New Deal, wars and conflicts of the 20th century, the Fair Deal, the Great Society, McCarthyism, the civil rights movement, mobilization of minorities, new feminism, women and gender relations from the colonial period to the present, the history and experience of racial and ethnic minorities, emigration to the United States and the experiences of these immigrants to this country, and patterns of race and class relations;
8. understand the foundations of the political system, including the evolution of the philosophies of the U.S. and California constitutions, political culture, separation of powers, bureaucracy, federalism, relations among various levels of government, and the evolving institutions of the President, Congress, and the judiciary;
9. understand the links between the people and government, including participation and voting, political parties, interest groups, and public opinion and socialization. Students should also analyze the rights and obligations of citizens, the tension between various freedoms of expression and due process and the maintenance of order, and the efforts to end racial and gender discrimination in both the public and private sectors of society;
10. understand the operations of California government, including the similarities and differences between the California and U.S. Constitutions, the relationship between state and local government in California, the basic issues of California politics, and a careful assessment of the impact of demographic changes on the history and politics of the state and the nation.

Your success in meeting these learning objectives will be assessed through your term papers, your participation in class discussions, and your performance on the exams, which will ask questions about these topics.

Lectures

Because of the vast amount of material being covered, the course will primarily be conducted as a series of interactive lectures, with student participation being highly encouraged. Students should come to each class prepared by having done the assigned readings. Lectures and discussions are meant to facilitate learning the course materials. You, however, have the responsibility to finish the assigned readings before class.

In class, each student should make regular and meaningful contributions to the discussion. If you have a question, raise your hand and the instructor will call on you right away. The in-class discussions and lectures will often not address the same information that is covered in the readings; nonetheless, students are responsible for knowing all materials covered in both the lectures and the readings. Questions about the readings and lectures are welcome at any time; there will always be time for questions, comments, and discussion at the end of class as well.

Classroom Protocol

IMPORTANT: Turn off your cell phone and put it away when you come to class. Do not answer phone calls in class. Do not send, receive, or read messages in class. Do not leave the room to use your cell phone. Do not record, transmit, or broadcast the lectures in any way.

WHAT IS EXPECTED?

- We expect students to come to class prepared. Readings are due as assigned. So is the homework.
- Please come to class on time, don't be late. Sit quietly, and refrain from eating, sleeping, talking, whispering, passing notes, surfing the web, doing email, or using your cell phone.

- Opinions and discussions should be presented in a respectful manner. You should come to this class with an open mind, ready to discuss exciting issues in a way that values individual perspectives and appreciates differing points of view. We can agree to disagree! Because the university bases its information on science and rational thought, conclusions will rely on evidence.
- It is expected that you have a notebook, pens or pencils, AND A STAPLER. Professor Jerke will deduct (or minus) 5 points if you turn in papers that are not stapled.
- Turn in your assignments on time. For each day you turn in your paper late Professor Jerke and Schendan will take off 5 points.

IMPORTANT:

- We do NOT allow make-up exams unless there is a compelling reason to do so. This exists only when you can provide us with a valid reason BEFORE THE EXAM DATE BY EMAIL OR PHONE. If you are sick or injured and cannot take a scheduled exam, it is your responsibility to contact us BEFORE the exam. Any excuse must be accompanied with official documentation.
- NEITHER INSTRUCTOR WILL ACCEPT ANY WORK ELECTRONICALLY UNLESS SHE HAS -- IN ADVANCE --AUTHORIZED ITS TRANSMISSION VIA EMAIL.

Attendance

Every lecture covers material that will appear on exams. If you miss class, you are still responsible for any lecture material that you missed. . It will be difficult to pass the course if you miss even a single class, unless you carefully complete the reading for that class and obtain the lecture notes from at least one other student. It is every student's responsibility to maintain excellent class attendance and to keep up with each class lecture.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page located at http://www.sjsu.edu/academic_programs/calendars/academic_calendar/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

Examinations, Assignments, other Requirements, and Grading Policy

HISTORY ASSIGNMENTS AND EXAMS: You will be required to take one midterm exam and one final exam. Each exam will consist of multiple choice and true/false questions. The final will not be comprehensive; it will cover only material from the second half of the semester. You need scantrons.

I have also assigned a 5-page analytical paper.

Political Science Papers and Exams: You will have 3 multiple-choice exams throughout the semester on several chapters of material or an equivalent online reading, see the syllabus for dates and test content. In addition, you are required to write a Political Science 5-6 page paper due towards the end of the semester. Assignment and paper grading criteria will be emailed after your first political science exam. All political science exams will require you to bring a T & E 200 scantron. You may bring to class, during all exams, any notes you have taken for the course.

Student grades will be determined by the following:

Midterm History (due September 26, 2011)	100 points

99-100 = A+	87-89 = B+	77-79 = C+	67-69 = D+
93-98 = A	83-86 = B	73-76 = C	63-66 = D
