The Panetta Institute for Public Policy

Congressional Internship Program
Program and Position Description

Program Summary:

The Panetta Institute’s twenty-first annual Congressional Internship Program will be held from Sunday, August 4 through Friday, November 29, 2019. This semester long program begins with a rigorous two-week academic orientation at the Panetta Institute followed by an eleven-week experiential education as a Panetta intern in a Washington, D.C. office of a California member of the U.S. House of Representatives where students serve through Friday, November 1, 2019. While serving in our nation’s capital students will also attend regular seminars. Upon return to California, interns begin to work on the academic requirements of the program: a twenty-page policy paper with evidence of research and analysis and a twenty-page reflective journal, a polished compendium of the student’s intern experience. The academic program ends on Friday, November 29, 2019 with the submission of both assignments directly to the Panetta Institute for grading. Upon completion of all requirements for this course, interns will earn a letter grade commensurate with their performance for twenty (20) full-time academic units that will be posted to their university transcripts. All program costs are covered, including housing, ground transportation, travel to and from Washington, D.C. and some reimbursement for living expenses. Any academic major may apply; the program is open to qualified students regardless of income.
