Departmental Committees Policy
Accepted as Department policy effective September 26, 2014
Vote: Yes (18), No (0), Abstain (0)

Background:
In recent years the committee structure of the department has become unclear, both in policy and in practice. The policy below will replace all prior conflicting departmental membership-related policies/decisions/practices related to appointments for these committees. Note that the membership of some committees (e.g., Departmental RTP) is determined by policies and/or contractual demands that are outside of the department.

Department of Psychology Policy on Departmental Committees

Definitions:
Tenure/Tenure-Track is used to represent faculty members with tenure or tenure-track appointments. Unless otherwise restricted by contract or university policy, this group explicitly includes FERP faculty.

Policy:
Departmental Committees

1. Selection of Committee Chairs
Where the individual committee selects a chair for the upcoming academic year, that vote for the incoming chair shall generally take place at the end of the spring term. Exceptions to this are noted (e.g., RTP). Votes for committee chairs shall generally be “one person one-vote” (unless otherwise indicated).

2. The Standing Committees of the Department Shall be:

2.1. Executive Committee
   2.1.1. Membership:
   • The committee shall be composed of the Department Chair and four fulltime faculty members of the Psychology Department (including Temporary faculty) who are serving their second consecutive year or more.
     o No more than one member of the Executive committee shall be non-tenure/tenure-track faculty.
   • The term shall be three-years. Ideally the terms of the members shall be staggered such that there should be one opening per year (this may require a shorter term for a newly elected member in the case that an individual does not complete their term).

   2.1.2. Charge
   • To provide guidance to, and as a sounding board for, the chair.
   • To review departmental expenditures (annually)
• To review any non-usual large expenditures (great than $20,000)
• Space utilization within the department (e.g., allocation of research space), although not normally including the allocation of office space.
• Personnel issues so long as they are consistent with the bargaining agreement
• To review advertisement and processes for the continued recruitment of sessional lecturers.
• To prepare or review material in response to internal calls for approval for tenure/tenure-track hires.
• To establish policies, where needed, consistent with the bargaining agreement, for merit evaluation of the chair (in such cases the chair shall recuse themselves from participation).

2.1.3. Chair – Shall be the Chair of the department

2.1.4. Meetings – As requested by the chair, but at least annually

2.2. Curriculum Committee
  2.2.1. Membership
  • The committee shall be composed of the undergraduate coordinator, a representative appointed by each of the Graduate Programs identified in the SJSU Catalog, one or more GE Course Coordinators, a representative appointed by the Assessment Committee, the CoSS curriculum committee representative from the Department, and other interested psychology faculty.
  • The minimum size of the committee shall be four people and it is explicitly permissible that individuals may serve multiple functions.

  2.2.2. Charge
  • Review and facilitate updates to the curriculum of the department
  • Produce a call for course or program changes sufficient to allow reasonable time for feedback and proposal development.
  • The scope of responsibility shall include graduate and undergraduate curriculum whether in-person or on-line.
    • Be responsive to requests from the Graduate programs regarding curricular changes
    • Graduate Curricular issues should first be referred to the appropriate graduate program.
  • Requirements of all of the programs in the department are included
  • Course descriptions (and changes to course pre/co-requisites) are included
  • Many-to-one articulation agreements (e.g., Statewide Course-ID and/or Transfer-Model Curricula) are the responsibility of the Committee.
    • Be responsive to requests from the Graduate programs regarding curricular changes
  • Guiding and encouraging appropriate submission of new and/or experimental courses.
2.2.3. Chair – Shall be elected by the membership from the membership at least every two years. Repeated terms as chair shall be permissible.

2.2.4. Meetings – There shall be a meeting of the Curriculum Committee at least once per semester.

2.3. RTP (Retention/Tenure/Promotion) Committee

2.3.1. Membership
- Membership on personnel committees for the purpose of deliberating or voting on personnel recommendations is limited to tenured full-time faculty members.

- Members are elected each year to serve that academic year. In the case that there are insufficient self-nominations to allow full constitution of the committee, all appropriate tenured individuals shall be placed on the ballot for membership.
  - The ballot shall list the self-nominees first. The remaining individuals shall be listed in reverse order of recency in serving on Departmental, College, or University RTP unless an individual served the previous year and elects not to be nominated.

- No faculty member shall serve on the department committee who is on either the college or university committee.

- Tenured faculty members, including department chair, which are candidates for promotion, may not serve on promotion committees.

- No faculty member, including department chair, may participate in promotion deliberations about colleagues of equal or higher rank, although they may serve on recruitment/appointment, retention, or tenure committees concerning colleagues of any rank.

- Participants in the Faculty Early Retirement Program (FERP) may not serve on any recruitment/appointment, retention, tenure, or promotion committees.

- The committee shall be composed of at least five (5) tenured full-time faculty members.

2.3.2. Charge
- The RTP committee will serve as the department-level personnel committee, follow SJSU RTP procedures, and review and recommend any changes to the Departmental RTP policy.
