Contacting Instructor

1. Through regular email. Please allow 1-2 business days for response. Email sent on Fridays may not get a response until Monday.

2. Through Desire2Learn (D2L) mail function.

3. Through Desire2Learn (D2L) discussion board. Best for questions about the course that need not remain private. Chances are others have the same questions you have.

4. By phone. For voicemail only. I will not answer this line directly. I will check voicemail rarely (about once a week). For leaving time sensitive information (e.g., notification of absence), email is better.

5. Consider emails for this course as professional correspondence (see sample correspondence at the end of the syllabus).

   a. Subject Line should include your class and a brief description of the issue (e.g., Subject: Psych 100W: absence on 10-10-11).
b. Greetings should be formal and use your instructors title (e.g., Professor Pelaprat)

c. Identify yourself and the course/section you are in.

d. Issue or question should be stated clearly, concisely, respectfully, and with attention paid to grammar, complete sentences, and so forth.

Example email correspondence

Subject: Psyc100W: Assignment due date question

Professor Pelaprat (or Ms. Pelaprat)

My name is Maggie Jackson and I am in your 100W class. I am not sure when the Outline assignment is due because of conflicting information. The syllabus schedule says Nov. 5, but the assignment sheet itself says Nov 9. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Regards,

Maggie

Course Description

The goals of 100W are that students will develop advanced proficiency in college-level writing and appropriate contemporary research strategies and methodologies to communicate effectively to both specialized and general audiences. Written Communication II should reinforce and advance the abilities developed in Written Communication IA and IB, and broaden and deepen these to include mastery of the discourse peculiar to the discipline in which the course is taught. Psychology 100W gives students the opportunity to develop writing skills appropriate to the broad field of psychology, including essays, reports, and scholarly communication.

Learning Outcomes

Overview

Learning Outcomes (LOs) are specific, measurable goals and objectives that students have demonstrated upon successful completion of the course. 100W is designed to address 3 levels of Learning Outcomes:

GE/SJSU Learning Outcomes (LOs). These are outcomes mandated by General Education.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs). These are outcomes for this specific course. For Psychology 100W, Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) are the discipline-specific ways in which the general GE/SJSU learning outcomes (LOs) for 100W (Area Z) will be fulfilled. The specific CLOs for this course contribute to the overall experience, learning opportunities, and Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) students are exposed to when completing the SJSU Psychology Major.
Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs). These outcomes refer to the broad goals of the SJSU Psychology Major program. The SJSU Psychology Major is designed to address 5 broad PLOs. These PLOs are outcomes students should be able to demonstrate after having successfully completed the Psychology Major.

GE/SJSU Studies Learning Outcomes (LO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

LO1 – refine the competencies established in Written Communication IA and IB

LO2 – express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse

LO3 – organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences, including appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

For Psychology 100W, the general GE student learning outcomes (LOs) for 100W (Area Z) will be fulfilled in the following discipline-specific Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) [matched GE LOs indicated in brackets]. Upon successful completion of this course students will:

CLO1 – have developed proficiency at using databases (e.g., PsycINFO and MEDLINE) to locate empirical research and research review articles in an area of psychology [LO 1, 3]

CLO2 – have demonstrated competency in American Psychological Association (APA) writing style, including grammar, spelling, and syntax [LO 1, 3]

CLO3 – have summarized and evaluated empirical research articles in an area of psychology [LO 1, 2, 3]

CLO4 – have written for a general audience [LO 1, 3]

CLO5 – have organized and developed a literature review, or other appropriate major paper (e.g., research report) in an area of psychology [LO 1, 2, 3]

CLO6 – have begun to develop critical thinking skills in psychology including the ability to [LO 1, 2, 3]:

(a) synthesize disparate research findings into a coherent framework which addresses a question or topic relevant to the discipline of psychology, and/or

(b) compare and contrast differing theories and research findings

GE requirements for 100W stipulate that students shall write a minimum of 8000 words in the course of the semester, and that they shall be provided with frequent practice and feedback for improving their communication skills.

The last page of this syllabus summarizes for each course assignment the word totals, points totals, and relevant SLOs being assessed.

Assignments and Grading Policy Overview

The assignments in Psychology 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology.

Assignments in 100W generally include (but are not limited to):

- Basic skills review (e.g., plagiarism tutorial, research skills tutorial,)
- Writing assignments (e.g., reflection pieces, article summaries, literature review)
- APA style mastery assessments

The course schedule and assignment summary table at the end of this syllabus provide a timeline and the planned grading for each assignment. You are expected to come to class with the requisite materials and to have completed the assigned readings and assignments.

For each assignment, an information sheet outlines the specifics of the assignment. Please print them off the D2L web site when they are available and have them with you on the appropriate lecture days. These information sheets are not a substitute for the lecture.

Written Assignments

An assignment summary table appears at the end of this syllabus. Assignments are subject to change. Students will be notified of any changes in a timely manner during class and through D2L.

Details for each assignment are provided in lectures and in assignment information sheets.

Assignment information sheets (as well as other useful resources) can be found on the course D2L site. You are expected to print and bring copies of each handout to the appropriate class.

The written assignments in Psychology 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology.

The major writing assignments for this work include (but are not limited to):
• Dissecting a Literature Review
• Article Summaries and Critiques
• Literature Review (see detailed description below)
• Peer Reviews
• Brief Research Report Paper (“Methods Paper”)

Major Scholarly Paper: Literature Review

The major paper you will be writing for this course is an APA style literature review (approximately 2500 - 3000 words including references; 10 or more scholarly references). The goal of a literature review is to answer a research question by describing and synthesizing relevant theory and research findings relevant to the question.

You will be developing your final literature review in several assignments, including (but not limited to):

• Research Question Assignment in which you develop, with help from the instructor, a research question appropriate to the discipline of psychology and to the requirements of the course.

• Database Assignment in which you identify at least 10 – 15 sources relevant to your literature review topic using databases and other resources appropriate to psychological research.

• Outline Assignment in which you organize the main points of your literature review and indicate which sources will be used to support the main point, and how it will do so (e.g., full summary of the article vs. “microsummary” of the article)

• Literature Review Conferences and Drafts in which you receive feedback from a variety of sources and revise your paper as needed.

• Article Summaries. Two of the three articles summaries you will be writing will be related to your research question and will be used in your final literature review.

Course Grade

Course grades will be based on the number of points accumulated throughout the semester.

The assignment summary table at the end of this syllabus provides the points associated with each assignment.

Important Notes about Grading
• Beginning Spring 2012, 100W will be graded on an “A – F” system, as opposed to “A – C, NC” system. This means that your grade will be used to calculate your GPA even if you don’t pass the class.

• In terms of GE the only passing course grades are C and above.

• Although some assignments are essentially credit/no credit (i.e., worth up to 1 point), it is very important to complete all of them because:
  o each develops a skill necessary for successful completion of major assignments
  o cumulatively “credit/no credit” assignments account for approximately 10% of your total grade
  o completion of some are required for the course (pre- and post-test; plagiarism tutorial; workbook chapters)

• missing a portion of these assignments can lower your course grade substantially

Make-up Exams

No extensions or make-up exams will be given except in cases of documented emergencies, serious illness, or a dean’s excuse. Should such a circumstance arise, please contact me as early as possible and be ready to provide documentation.

Late Assignments

Late credit/no credit assignments will not be accepted except in cases of documented emergencies, serious illness, or a dean’s excuse. Should such a circumstance arise, please contact me as early as possible and be ready to provide documentation. It is your responsibility to plan, follow-up, and initiate alternative arrangements when such circumstances arise.

Major assignments (10 or more points) will lose a full letter grade (10%) for each day late. Graded assignments more than 3 days late will not be accepted.

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of forty-five hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying, or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus. The credit hour is defined as "the amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonably approximates not less than:
1) one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester..."
2) a credit hour is assumed to be a 50-minute (not 60-minute) period.

As an example, the expectation of work for a 3-credit course is 150-minutes of direct faculty Instruction, and six hours of out-of-class student work each week."

Extra Credit

Extra credit assignments are given at the instructor’s discretion. Should extra credit opportunities be extended, the total amount of extra credit points earned by a student cannot exceed 1 – 2 % of the total number of points available in the course.
University Policies

Academic Integrity

Students should know that the University’s Academic Integrity Policy is available at http://www.sa.sjsu.edu/download/judicial_affairs/Academic_ Integrity_Policy_S07-2.pdf. Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The website for Student Conduct and Ethical Development is available at http://www.sa.sjsu.edu/judicial_affairs/index.html.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for this class or another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the DRC (Disability Resource Center) to establish a record of their disability.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, etc. Information on add/drops are available at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/soc-fall/rec-324.html. Information about late drop is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/sac/advising/latedrops/policy/ . Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for adding and dropping classes.

Classroom Protocol

Read the syllabus!
You are responsible for knowing the details in this syllabus. I am happy to answer questions about the course as they arise, but I expect you will make some effort to find the answers in the syllabus and class materials, and to pay attention to the answers given.

Skill-Development Course
It is important that you understand that this class is a workshop on skill development and differs from a standard lecture class that teaches content. I will provide a few lectures and am available for consultation, but I do not “teach” in the traditional lecture sense.

In a workshop, you have primary responsibility for learning the material. I can answer any questions about the material you are learning and I provide feedback on your assignments. You are expected to take the initiative in mastering the material and skills in this class.
Time Management & Regular Attendance

Time management is a major issue for students in this class. As in the workplace, deadlines are real. Assignments are due one after another and you need to keep on top of them! You can fall quickly behind if you fail to turn every assignment in on time.

Although the course has an online resource, this resource is not a substitute for attending lectures. Students who do not attend class or keep up with assignments rarely pass the class.

Turning in Assignments

All written assignments must be submitted on paper, except of course for those tests you are taking online. If you are authorized to submit a paper via email, it must be submitted in pdf format. NEVER submit assignments via email without checking with instructor first.

Laptops

Laptops and iPads (or similar tablets) are not allowed in class.

Cell phones and other electronic devices

Please be certain to turn off cell phones, pagers, and any other devices that produce distraction prior to entering the classroom. If you expect an emergency call, you can leave your phone on silent. Please take the call outside the classroom. No texting during class is allowed.

Late arrivals

If you must arrive late or leave early, please do so quietly and with a minimum of distraction.

I expect you to come to class prepared

“Prepared” means you have completed the readings and any assignment before class starts, you have written down any questions you had from the assignment, and you should bring the material required for the class. You should be as prepared as you expect your professor to be.

Communication

Use email!! Use office hours! Talk to me!!

Use of recording devices

Common courtesy and professional behavior dictates that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. This permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.

- If you wish to use a recording device in class, please notify me two days before via email. Permission, will be granted on a class by class basis.
- In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission from those students or guests should be obtained as well.

Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent."
Check the course D2L site regularly
If I become ill, I will inform you the night before that I will be absent. Please email me before class if you will not be in class. Please set your spam controls to accept my email address.
