Ms. Pelaprat

My name is Maggie Jackson and I am in your 100W class. I am not sure when the Outline assignment is due because of conflicting information. The syllabus schedule says Nov. 5, but the assignment sheet itself says Nov 9. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Course Description

Practice in improvement of writing skills appropriate to the broad field of psychology, including essays, reports and scholarly communication. Prerequisite: ENGL 1B (with a grade of C or better); Completion of core GE, satisfaction of Writing Skills Test and upper division standing; PSYC 1; STAT 95 or senior standing. Psychology Majors/Minors and Behavioral Science Majors only. Note: Must be passed with C or better to satisfy the CSU Graduation Writing Assessment requirement.

Learning Outcomes

Overview

Learning Outcomes (LOs) are specific, measurable goals and objectives that students have demonstrated upon successful completion of the course. 100W is designed to address 3 levels of Learning Outcomes:

GE/SJSU Learning Outcomes (LOs). These are outcomes mandated by General Education.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs). These are outcomes for this specific course. For Psychology 100W, Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) are the discipline-specific ways in which the general GE/SJSU learning outcomes (LOs) for 100W (Area Z) will be fulfilled. The specific CLOs for this course contribute to the overall experience, learning opportunities, and Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) students are exposed to when completing the SJSU Psychology Major.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs). These outcomes refer to the broad goals of the SJSU Psychology Major program. The SJSU Psychology Major is designed to address 5 broad PLOs. These PLOs are outcomes students should be able to demonstrate after having successfully completed the Psychology Major.

GE/SJSU Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)

Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency. Students shall be able to:

SLO 1. produce discipline-specific written work that demonstrates upper-division proficiency in:
   a. language use
   b. grammar
   c. clarity of expression

SLO 2. explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse

SLO 3. organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences

SLO 4. organize and develop essays and documents according to appropriate editorial and citation standards

SLO 5. locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and to communicate that purpose in writing

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

For Psychology 100W, the general GE student learning outcomes (SLOs) for 100W (Area Z) will be fulfilled in the following discipline-specific Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) [matched GE SLOs indicated in brackets]. Upon successful completion of this course students will:

CLO 1. have developed proficiency at using databases (e.g., PsycINFO and MEDLINE) to locate empirical research and research review articles in an area of psychology [SLO 5]

CLO 2. have demonstrated competency in American Psychological Association (APA) writing style, including grammar, spelling, and syntax [SLO 1, 4]

CLO 3. have summarized and evaluated empirical research articles in an area of psychology [SLO 1, 2, 3, 4]

CLO 4. have written for a general audience [SLO 1, 2, 3]

CLO 5. have organized and developed a literature review, or other appropriate major paper (e.g., research report) in an area of psychology [SLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5]

CLO 6. have begun to develop critical thinking skills in psychology including the ability to [SLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5]:
   a. synthesize disparate research findings into a coherent framework that addresses a question or topic relevant to the discipline of psychology, and/or
b. compare and contrast differing theories and research findings

GE requirements for 100W stipulate that students shall write a minimum of 8000 words in the course of the semester, and that they shall be provided with frequent practice and feedback for improving their communication skills.

The last page of this syllabus summarizes for each course assignment the word totals, points totals, and relevant SLOs being assessed.

Assignments and Grading Policy Overview

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

The assignments in PSYC 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology. Assignments in 100W generally include (but are not limited to):

• Basic skills review (e.g., plagiarism tutorial, research skills tutorial, )
• Writing assignments (e.g., reflection pieces, article summaries, literature review)
• APA style mastery assessments

The course schedule and assignment summary table at the end of this syllabus provide a timeline and the planned grading for each assignment. You are expected to come to class with the requisite materials and to have completed the assigned readings and assignments.

For each assignment, an information sheet outlines the specifics of the assignment. Please print them off the Canvas web site when they are available and have them with you on the appropriate lecture days. These information sheets are not a substitute for the lecture.

Written Assignments

An assignment summary table appears at the end of this syllabus. Assignments are subject to change. Students will be notified of any changes in a timely manner during class and through Canvas. Details for each assignment are provided in lectures and in assignment information sheets. Assignment information sheets (as well as other useful resources) can be found on the course Canvas site. You are expected to print and bring copies of each handout to the appropriate class.

The written assignments in Psychology 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology. The major writing assignments for this work include (but are not limited to):

- General audience essay
- Article summaries
- Literature Review (see detailed description below)
- Peer Reviews
- Brief Research Report Paper (“Methods Paper”)

Major Scholarly Paper: Literature Review

The major paper you will be writing for this course is an APA style literature review (approximately 2500 - 3000 words including references; 10 or more scholarly references). The goal of a literature review is to answer a research question by describing and synthesizing relevant theory and research findings relevant to the question.

You will be developing your final literature review in several assignments, including (but not limited to):

- Research Question Assignment in which you develop, with help from the instructor, a research question appropriate to the discipline of psychology and to the requirements of the course.
- Database Assignment in which you identify at least 10 – 15 sources relevant to your literature review topic using databases and other resources appropriate to psychological research.
• Outline Assignment in which you organize the main points of your literature review and indicate which sources will be used to support the main point, and how it will do so (e.g., full summary of the article vs. “microsummary” of the article)

• Literature Review Conferences and Drafts in which you receive feedback from a variety of sources and revise your paper as needed.

• Article Summaries. Two of the three articles summaries you will be writing will be related to your research question and will be used in your final literature review.

Grading Policy

Course grades will be based on the number of points accumulated throughout the semester.

The assignment summary table at the end of this syllabus provides the points associated with each assignment.

Important Notes about Grading

• This course must be passed with a C or better as a CSU graduation requirement.

• A minimum aggregate GPA of 2.0 SJSU Studies (R, S, & V) shall be required of all students as a graduation requirement. To see full text, review University Policy S11-3 at http://www.sjsus.edu/senate/docs/S11-3.pdf

• Although some assignments are essentially credit/no credit (i.e., worth up to 1 point), it is very important to complete all of them because:
  - each develops a skill necessary for successful completion of major assignments
  - completion of some are required for the course (pre- and post-test; plagiarism tutorial; workbook chapters)
• missing a portion of these assignments can lower your course grade substantially

Make-up Exams

No extensions or make-up exams will be given except in cases of documented emergencies, serious illness, or a dean’s excuse. Should such a circumstance arise, please contact me as early as possible and be ready to provide documentation.
Late Assignments

Late credit/no credit assignments will not be accepted except in cases of documented emergencies, serious illness, or a dean’s excuse. Should such a circumstance arise, please contact me as early as possible and be ready to provide documentation. It is your responsibility to plan, follow-up, and initiate alternative arrangements when such circumstances arise.

Major assignments (10 or more points) will lose a full letter grade (10%) for each day late. Graded assignments more than 3 days late will not be accepted unless special arrangements have been agreed upon with professors before the due date.

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of forty-five hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying, or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus. The credit hour is defined as "the amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonably approximates not less than:

1) one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester...

2) a credit hour is assumed to be a 50-minute (not 60-minute) period.

As an example, the expectation of work for a 3-credit course is 150-minutes of direct faculty instruction, and six hours of out-of-class student work each week.

Extra Credit

Extra credit assignments are given at the instructor’s discretion. Should extra credit opportunities be extended, the total amount of extra credit points earned by a student cannot exceed 1 – 2 % of the total number of points available in the course.

Classroom Protocol

Read the syllabus!
You are responsible for knowing the details in this syllabus. I am happy to answer questions about the course as they arise, but I expect you will make some effort to find the answers in the syllabus and class materials, and to pay attention to the answers given.

Skill-Development Course
It is important that you understand that this class is a workshop on skill development and differs from a standard lecture class that teaches content. I will provide a few lectures and am available for consultation, but I do not “teach” in the traditional lecture sense.

In a workshop, you have primary responsibility for learning the material. I can answer any questions about the material you are learning and I provide feedback on your assignments. You are expected to take the initiative in mastering the material and skills in this class.

Time Management & Regular Attendance

Time management is a major issue for students in this class. As in the workplace, deadlines are real. Assignments are due one after another and you need to keep on top of them! You can fall quickly behind if you fail to turn any assignment in on time.

Although the course has an online resource, this resource is not a substitute for attending lectures. Students who do not attend class or keep up with assignments rarely pass the class.

Turning in Assignments

All written assignments must be submitted on paper, except of course for those tests you are taking online. If you are authorized to submit a paper via email, it must be submitted in pdf format. NEVER submit assignments via email without checking with instructor first.

Laptops

As you will be requested and will have the opportunity to work on some of your assignments in class, it is highly recommended that you bring a laptop to class. If you don’t own a laptop you may be able to rent one on campus. For instance, the AS Computer Services Center offers laptop rentals to SJSU students through the laptop rental program. Also, the MLK Library provides loaner computers to SJSU students at no charge, for 4-hour up to one week at a time.

Use of laptops and iPads (or similar tablets) are allowed in class only for the purpose of note-taking and research or work pertinent to the class. If you decide to you use your laptop or tablet for another purpose than taking notes or working on class-related material, please step out of the classroom and come back when you are done.

Cell phones and other electronic devices

Please be certain to turn off cell phones, pagers, and any other devices that produce distraction prior to entering the classroom. If you expect an emergency call, you can leave your phone on silent. Please take the call outside the classroom. No texting or instant messaging during class is allowed. If you must text/instant message, leave the classroom and come back when you are done.

Late arrivals

If you must arrive late or leave early, please do so quietly and with a minimum of distraction. It is your responsibility to seek information you may have missed because of your late arrival or early departure.

I expect you to come to class prepared

“Prepared” means you have completed the readings and any assignment before class starts, you have written down any questions you had from the assignment, and you should bring the material required for the class. You should be as prepared as you expect your professor to be.

Communication
Use email!! Use office hours! Talk to me!!

Check the Canvas site regularly and your email for forwarded announcements.
If I become ill, I will make every effort to inform you the night before that I will be absent. Please email me before class if you will not be in class. Please set your spam controls to accept my email address.

For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for this class or another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Accommodation to Students' Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed.
