Course Description
Adolescent personality as the product of cultural and psychological factors, emphasizing normal behavior and development.

Course Goal
The goal of this course is to provide you with information about the typical issues one faces during adolescence. Highlighted themes include cultural beliefs and family relationships, concepts of self and one’s relation to their peers, and how the challenges of adolescence affect our performance in school. Students will be given multiple opportunities to reflect on these concepts and others and then explain them to the professor in their own words.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CLO 1 – Display knowledge of the psychological concepts and theories relevant to cognitive and social development during adolescence.

CLO 2 – Describe, in writing, the relations between overlapping concepts within the field of adolescent development.

CLO 3 – Evaluate one’s own childhood experience through the scope of various concepts within the field of child development.
Program Learning Outcomes (PLO)

Upon successful completion of the psychology major requirements, the following are expected…

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

Other equipment / material requirements

1. Computer, Internet, and SJSU library access.
2. Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint software. SJSU students can download Microsoft Office (which includes Word, Excel, and PowerPoint) for free (see http://its.sjsu.edu/services/software/microsoft-students/index.html).

Library Liaison

Bernd Becker (Bernd.becker@sjsu.edu). Libguide: http://libguides.sjsu.edu/psychology.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Exams

There will be four exams, each worth 25 points and each covering two chapters from the course textbook. All exams will include multiple-choice questions and will be taken in class. Specifically, Exam 1 will cover chapters 2 and 3, Exam 2 will cover chapters 4 and 5, Exam 3 will cover chapters 6 and 7, and Exam 4 will cover chapters 8 and 9. There is no comprehensive midterm or final exam. A study guide will be available for each exam beginning about a week before the exam date. Please bring pencils to each exam.
Make-up Exams

If you have a legitimate excuse for missing an exam, a makeup exam will be permitted. However, you will need to contact me as soon as you can before the exam is scheduled to alert me that you will miss the exam and why you will miss the exam. You will also need to present written documentation verifying the unavoidable circumstances, so that we can schedule the makeup exam as quickly as possible.

School Movie Summary

Over the course of two class periods, we will watch “Dead Poets Society” and discuss related concepts from the textbook chapter on the influence of school on adolescent development. Then during the next class period, you will complete an in-class assignment with a partner. For this assignment, you will answer questions about the film and textbook chapter. This assignment is worth 10 points. Your grade on this assignment will be shared with your partner, so you must attend class on the day of the partner assignment or you and your partner will lose points.

Related Concepts Reflections

On two occasions, you will complete a brief reflection where you will relate two or more concepts within the field of adolescent development to one another. Each of the concepts for these reflection will correspond to a textbook chapter. For these two reflection, you write a paragraph relating what you have learned about the two concepts to one another. Each of these essays is worth 5 points.

Reflection 1: Cultural Beliefs (Ch. 4) & Family Relationships (Ch. 7)
Reflection 2: The Self (Ch. 6) & Friends & Peers (Ch. 8)

Each reflection will be turned in through the course canvas website. Here is the rubric I will use to grade each reflection paragraph:

- 1 point for addressing all parts of the question.
- 1 point for clearly and concisely expressing your thoughts.
- 1 point for using proper spelling and grammar.
- 2 points for providing accurate information regarding your answer.
  - 1 point for citing information from the corresponding chapter to support your answer.
  - 1 point for citing a personal example to support your answer.

Extra Credit Opportunities

A total of 12 extra credit points may be added to your final point total if you take advantage of the following opportunities. This is a substantial amount, but the points will have to be earned and are being made available to encourage specific behaviors.

The first set of opportunities will be to earn a bonus point each time you turn in a related concepts reflection assignment early (2 possible points). Specifically, any time you complete and turn in one of these assignments two days before it is due, you will receive a bonus point on that assignment. For example, if the first essay is due on 2/9 at midnight, turning it in any time before midnight on 2/7 would earn you a bonus point. These opportunities are meant to encourage you to complete assignments early rather than procrastinate in completing your assignments.
The second set of opportunities will be to earn a bonus point each time you download an exam study guide, completely fill out the exam study guide as you study, and turn it in on the day of that exam (4 possible points). These opportunities are meant to encourage you to not only use the study guides in preparing for each exam, but to begin studying a week or so ahead of the exam date rather than cramming the night before the exam.

The third opportunity will be to earn 6 points for perfect attendance to class throughout the semester. Excused absences will not count against your attendance record. This opportunity is meant to encourage you to stay focused on learning throughout the entire course and to get as much out of it as possible.

Grading Policy

Your grade will be based on the total amount of points (120 possible points) you receive from exams (100 possible points), the school movie summary (10 possible points), and the related concepts essays (10 possible points). Below is a breakdown of the amount of points needed to earn the specified letter grades.

116-120 = A+ (~97-100%)
111-115 = A  (~93-96%)
108-110 = A- (~90-92%)
105-107 = B+ (~88-89%)
99-104 = B  (~83-87%)
96-98 = B- (~80-82%)
93-95 = C+ (~78-79%)
87-92 = C  (~73-77%)
84-86 = C- (~70-72%)
81-83 = D+ (~68-69%)
75-80 = D  (~63-67%)
72-74 = D- (~60-62%)

Less than 72 = F (~59% or less)

All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades. See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.

Office Hours

Please do your best to contact me before you come to see me during office hours. This will require you to plan ahead, such as generating a specific agenda and/or questions to guide your visit. Unless I have been contacted by a student letting me know that they plan to visit during my office hours, I may leave my office early. So, be sure to contact me if you plan to attend my office hours so that you do not show up when I have already left.

Diversity Statement

As the instructor of this course, it is my goal to create a safe and diversity-sensitive learning environment that respects the rights, dignity, and welfare of all students, faculty, and staff. Diversity means the fair representation of all groups of individuals, the inclusion of minority perspectives and voices, and appreciation of different cultural and socioeconomic group practices. I aspire to foster and maintain an atmosphere that is free from discrimination, harassment, exploitation, or intimidation.

Classroom Protocol

It is vital that you complete all scheduled readings and assignments before each class. Arrive to class on time. Arriving late disrupts other students and interferes with continuity of the lectures and class activities. If for any reason you cannot avoid being late, please enter the class through the least noticeable door and take a seat quietly. Do not come in late and enter into a conversation to catch up on information you missed or expect information you missed to be repeated. Leaving early is equally disruptive; please be considerate. Do not carry on conversations with others during class. Do not sleep during class. Do not work on any other course material during class, including studying or reading for other classes. Be polite and respectful to other people in the class.
Classroom participation is expected. Therefore, phones, laptops, Ipods, etc. are not allowed to be used during class so that one stays focused on class discussion. Do not text or surf during class. This rule is not only so you will not distract yourself, but also so you will not distract anyone else. Food and drinks are permitted during class, but you must be sure that your space is clean when you leave the classroom. If you miss a class, you are responsible for contacting me or another student to inquire about the information you missed from that class.

University policy F69-24 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F69-24.pdf states that students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.

Student Athletes

If you are a student athlete, please inform me at the beginning of the semester of any spring semester team obligations. If there are any conflicts between your games and class participation/assignment, we may need to figure out alternative arrangements for you to complete an assignment.

University Policies

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

As members of the academic community, students accept both the rights and responsibilities incumbent upon all members of the institution. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU’s policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90–5 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog, at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

- “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”
It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor’s process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.

- In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.

- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed.
