Course Description

In this class you will practice and improve writing skills appropriate to the broad field of psychology, including essays, reports and scholarly communication. The goals of 100W are that students will develop advanced proficiency in college-level writing and appropriate contemporary research strategies and methodologies to communicate effectively to both specialized and general audiences. This class reinforces and advances skills developed in Written Communication IA and IB, and then broaden and deepen these to include mastery of the discourse peculiar to the discipline in which the course is taught.
GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Learning Outcomes (LOs) are specific, measurable goals and objectives that students have demonstrated upon successful completion of the course. GE/SJSU Course Learning Outcomes (GELOs) are course outcomes mandated by General Education and can be found, along with additional required course content, in the Fall 2014 GE Guidelines, which can be found here: http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/2014geguidelines.pdf

Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

GELO 1. Produce discipline-specific written work that demonstrates upper-division proficiency in language use, grammar, clarity of expression satisfied by the following major assignments (there are other assignments that also address this GELO): Literature Review, Mini-Literature Review, APA Style Mastery Test

GELO 2. Explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse satisfied by the following major assignments (there are other assignments that also address this GELO): Literature Review, Mini-Literature Review, Research Report, Research Article Summaries and Evaluations

GELO 3. Organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences satisfied by the following major assignments (there are other assignments that also address this GELO): Literature Review, Mini-Literature Review, General Audience Paper

GELO 4. Organize and develop essays and documents according to appropriate editorial and citation standards satisfied by the following major assignments (there are other assignments that also address this GELO): Literature Review, Mini-Literature Review, Research Report, APA Style Mastery Test

GELO 5. Locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and to communicate that purpose in writing satisfied by the following major assignments (there are other assignments that also address this GELO): Literature Review, Mini-Literature Review, Annotated References, Literature Review Outline, Research Skills Pretest and Posttest

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

For Psychology 100W, the general GE Learning Outcomes (GELOs) for 100W (Area Z) will be fulfilled in the following discipline-specific Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) [matched GELOs indicated in brackets]. Upon successful completion of this course students will:
• have developed proficiency at using databases (e.g., PsycINFO and MEDLINE) to locate empirical research and research review articles in an area of psychology [GELO 5]
• have demonstrated competency in American Psychological Association (APA) writing style, including grammar, spelling, and syntax [GELO 1, 4]
• have summarized and evaluated empirical research articles in an area of psychology [GELO 1, 2, 3, 4]
• have written for a general audience [GELO 1, 2, 3]
• have organized and developed a literature review, or other appropriate major paper (e.g., research report) in an area of psychology [GELO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5]
• have begun to develop critical thinking skills in psychology including the ability to [SLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5]:
  ➢ synthesize disparate research findings into a coherent framework which addresses a question or topic relevant to the discipline of psychology, and/or

Course Requirements and Assignments
The assignments in Psychology 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology.

An assignment summary table appears at the end of this syllabus. Details for each assignment are provided in lectures and in assignment information sheets. Assignment information sheets
(as well as other useful resources) can be found on the course Canvas site. You are expected to bring copies of each handout (paper or electronic) to the appropriate class.

The written assignments in Psychology 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology. The major skills and associated assignments include (but are not limited to):

- Basic skills review (e.g., plagiarism tutorial, research skills tutorial, formatting tips in Microsoft Word)
- APA style (e.g., APA style Mastery test)
- Writing assignments (including, but not limited to)
  - Dissecting a Literature Review
  - Article Summaries and Evaluations*
    - Literature Review development (see description below)
  - Peer Reviews
  - Brief Research Report* (see description below)

* Students will be given the opportunity to revise in response to instructor feedback and resubmit

Mini-Literature Review

The major paper for this course is a literature review (see description below). To prepare you for this assignment you will write a “mini-literature review” (800 – 1000 words) that will help you to learn how to read, understand, and accurately report psychological research reports, develop synthesis skills by describing how studies build upon one another, and apply APA style.

Literature Review

The major paper you will be writing for this course is an APA style literature review (approximately 2000 - 2500 words including references; 10 or more scholarly references). The goal of a literature review is to answer a research question by describing and synthesizing relevant theory and research findings relevant to the question. You will be developing your final literature review in several assignments, including (but not limited to):

- Research Question Assignment in which you develop, with help from the instructor, a research question appropriate to the discipline of psychology and to the requirements of the course.
- Annotated References Assignment in which you identify at least 10 – 15 sources relevant to your literature review topic using databases and other resources appropriate to psychological research.
- Outline Assignment in which you organize the main points of your literature review and indicate which sources will be used to support the main point, and how it will do so (e.g., full summary of the article vs. “microsummary” of the article).
- Literature Review Conferences and Drafts in which you receive feedback from a variety of sources and revise your paper as needed.

Research Report
A second major paper you will be writing for this course is an APA style research report (approximately 1000 - 1500 words including references). The goal of a report is to describe the results of an empirical study. We will be conducting a simple study in class, and you will write the research report as if you were the experimenter.

The University Policy S16-9, Course Syllabi (http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf) requires the following language to be included in the syllabus:

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

Final Examination or Evaluation

The final evaluation for this course is the oral presentation of students’ literature review. Due to time constraints, these presentations are scheduled over several class periods at the end of the semester – including during the time of the final exam.

Grading Information

Course grades will be based on the number of points accumulated throughout the semester. The table on the next page summarizes the points and percentage of course grade associated with each course assignments.

Rubrics for all major assignments can be found on the course Canvas shell.

Final grades in this course will be assigned as indicated below.

Determination of Grades

- Grades will be determined by a rubric provided on Canvas. Students will have access to a “preview” of rubric before due date. Assignments will be uploaded onto Canvas AND a hard copy turned in at the beginning of class. An uploaded copy on Canvas and hard copy must be turned in before the beginning of class to receive full credit.
  - If a hard copy is turned in and a copy has not been uploaded onto Canvas (or vice versa), it is considered late.
- Extra credit will not be offered in this course.
• List of the percentage weight assigned to various class assignments (see 100W Assignment Summary Sheet).
• Assignments turned in after the due date (and time) will not be considered. There are no exceptions. This policy is set up so that no one falls behind. To enforce this rule fairly, there can be no exceptions (except for extenuating circumstances of a catastrophic nature and even then, you must be extremely persuasive - - see below). So, turn in your assignments on time! I clearly note due dates on Canvas, syllabus, and I will make in-class announcements well in advance. Take note of these dates and plan accordingly.
• No extensions or make-up exams will be given except in cases of reasonable and documented academic reasons, emergencies, serious illness, or similar seriously disruptive events. If such a circumstance should arise, please contact me as early as possible and be ready to provide documentation.

Grading Information for GE/100W (if applicable)

This course must be passed with a C or better as a CSU graduation requirement.

Subject: PSYC 100W: Assignment due date question

Dear Mr. Ventura,

My name is Miranda Jackson and I am in your 100W class that meets T/Th 1:30-2:45. I am not sure when the Response Journal assignment is due because of conflicting information. The syllabus schedule says Nov. 5, but the assignment sheet itself says Nov 9. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Regards,

Miranda
