

The Campus Reading Program presents - The “Wall of Reading” - 150 Years of Great Literature

February 26—March 2, 2007

Clark Hall—1st floor

Opportunity to review and comment on some of the great novels of the past 150 years and to sign the “Wall of Reading” scroll.

Plus—book discussions and other events each day.

Featured Events for Wednesday February 28

“Not Just for Children”

11:30—12:30—The Art of Storytelling

- Storytelling for Teaching—How was it used at the Normal School to help train teachers: History and Explanation by Professor Andrea Whittaker, College of Education
- Storytelling Today—Why and Where it is Used + a demonstration by SJSU student Ovan Chan
- Storytelling books of 100 years ago—examples of the books used by grade school teachers decades ago will be available for you to look at

12:30—1:45—Book Discussion—*Alice in Wonderland

1:00—2:00—Book Discussion—Harry Potter (#6)