The Study of Women: Inequalities & Cultural Change

Course Description

This course is an advanced-level introduction to the study of gender inequality in the contemporary United States. We will draw on feminist methodologies that understand inequalities of gender, race, class, sexuality, nationality, and disability as interlinked structures affecting women’s and men’s lives.

Like many social science courses, this class is not about providing hard and fast answers. It is about raising productive questions about women, men, and gender in a modern world, and equipping you to articulate your own views in a compelling and thoughtful manner. The course requires upper division standing and passage of the WST. Beyond that, we presume only an interest in the subject, a willingness to consider new ideas, and a respect for views other than your own.

As a General Education course, this class is intended to significantly develop your writing and research skills. Assignments include various discussion and writing assignments. You will also hone your library and research skills by writing a short research paper on a topic of your choosing.

Required Texts:
All required readings will be provided on SJSU’s learning management system (LMS), Canvas. Please print out each reading and keep in a notebook or folder. You must bring weekly readings to class for discussion. For inexpensive copies, I recommend San Jose Copy (6¢ ea) at 109 E. Santa Clara Street (next to Chevron), (408) 297-6698.

GE Student Learning Outcomes

GE Course prerequisite: Writing Skills Test (WST), completion of Core General Education, and completion of, or co-registration in, 100W. Students will meet the 3000-word writing requirement by writing a research presentation and paper of 2000 words. Students will receive substantive comments addressing the quality and form of your writing. Courses to meet Areas R, S, and V of SJSU Studies must be taken from three different departments, or distinct academic units.

Course Requirements and Assignments Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in

Class Participation
The strength of this course depends largely on the strength of your contributions as individuals from different backgrounds and perspectives. Each of you will participate regularly in class, in groups, and in occasional meetings with me. I will regularly ask you to do short freewrites in class about the week’s reading; these participation exercises cannot be made up.

- Twitter news (50/100 participation points)- In addition to regular class participation, you will follow online news on any one of the racial/ethnic/gender/sexuality communities we are studying—see the list of suggested sources on Canvas. You are expected to either browse the online site or sign up for an RSS or Twitter feed, so that you will be regularly following current news for that community. I encourage you to choose a community other than your own, but it’s up to you. Fifty points of your grade depends on you regularly posting news or comments to the class twitter feed #ws101 (8-10 posts total for the semester)

- And finally, in terms of class, participation means:
  o coming to class on time. If you come in late, enter quietly and sit near the door, minimizing distraction to the class.
  o interacting respectfully with your peers, paying attention, listening carefully, encouraging others' contribution, and contributing when you can.
  o NOT texting or surfing or facebooking. I will give you my full attention for the class period, and I expect the same in return. If I see you texting or surfing, I will ask you to leave class for the day.

Midterm
The midterm will cover all readings, lectures, films, and discussion in the first eight weeks of the course.
You will take the midterm online on Canvas during class time on Wednesday 3/23 before Spring Break.

Final Research Paper & Presentation
All students will research a topic of their choosing with a partner, make a 5-6 minute presentation on their research to the class, and write a 7-8 page individual research paper on the topic. I encourage you to get an early start on your project as presentations will begin right after spring break. Research papers will be due on Monday, May 2.

Final Exam
The final exam is comprehensive over the entire content of the course, with a slight emphasis on the later half. The final exam as decided by the Registrar is 9:45 am – noon Tuesday 5/24 for Section One, and 12:15 – 2:30 pm 5/18 for Section Two.

Grading Policy
I will grade each assignment on the following scale:

Canvas (http://sjsu.instructure.com)

We will rely on SJSU’s learning management system, Canvas, for this course. You should be automatically added to the Canvas site. You can find detailed tutorials discussing the different components of Canvas at the following links: https://community.canvaslms.com/community/answers/guides and http://www.sjsu.edu/at/ec/canvas/. For problems within Canvas, please click on the word Help in the upper right corner of the screen, and select, “Report a Problem.” You can also submit an iSupport ticket by clicking on the following link: https://isupport.sjsu.edu/ecampus.

Classroom Protocol

You will receive more details about all of these assignments during the semester, but generally:

- All assigned work is due at the beginning of class, whether turned in online or in hard copy. Printing problems are not an excuse. LATE work will be downgraded a half-grade every day it is late. I strongly suggest you invest now in an inexpensive printer ($50-100) of your own if you do not have one already.

- Unless otherwise noted, all work must be typed and double-spaced in a plain 12 point font with one-inch margins all the way around the page. For EVERYTHING you turn in, please write your full name at the top right of the page, along with class, section (WS101.2), date and topic. Handwritten work is not acceptable, unless specifically stated in class.

- Grade checks – If you require a midterm grade check of any kind (athletic, EOP, fraternity/sorority, etc., personal), you must come to my office hours. I cannot guess your grade in class, or email your request. Come to my posted office hours for a quick discussion and I will sign off on your request. No exceptions.

- My office is in Dudley Moorhead Hall (DMH), 238A. DMH is on San Fernando Street, just two buildings down from the MLK Library. Please come by and see me during office hours at least once during the semester. Seeing your professor during office hours is an excellent habit to establish – you can ask a question, clarify your understanding of lecture material, we can just chat about how you are doing in class, or you can ask about my little girl. Office hours are part of our job as professors, and you absolutely have the right to our time.

- And finally, I assume you are adult and are in this class because you want an education. You do not need to ask my permission to leave early, go to the bathroom, etc. This also means that if you are chattering with a friend, texting, playing videogames, or are in any way disruptive to me or other students, I will ask you to leave.

University Policy & Resources

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU’s policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises (S90–5 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf). In general, students should always seek clarification or address concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Campus policy in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act:
If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at http://www.sjsu.edu/aec to establish a record of their disability (Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf).

- It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor’s process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
- In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.

“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval.
